Essery-Card Nuptials

At a double ring ceremony performed by President Daniel L. Marsh in the Robinson Memorial Chapel of Boston University, Miss Marian Ruth Essery of Brookline, Mass., became the bride of Mr. Ernest H. Card of Westboro, Mass., at four o'clock on the afternoon of Saturday, July 16th. Tall candles shed a mellow light over the dark background of the altar which was banked with delphinium and pink gladioli. Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. J. H. Mervyn Essery of Duval, Saskatchewan, the bride wore a princess gown of white lace and a halo of orange blossoms from which her veil fell over the long train of her gown. Her bouquet was of gardianis and bouvardia. Miss Margaret Ruth Essery of Melrose, Mass., a niece of the bride, was maid of honor, wearing a princess gown of silk marquisette in the same tea rose shade as her silk velvet halo. She carried a bouquet of roses and delphinium. The bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Colley of Leominster, Mass., a classmate of the bride at Boston University Graduate School, and Miss Ruth Hepburn of Cambridge, Mass., a niece of the bride. They both wore silk marquisette gowns and velvet halos of exactly the same style as the maid of honor's, but in a contrasting shade of powder blue, and their bouquets were of pink roses.

The best man was Mr. Curtis Card of Whitinsville, Mass., a son of the groom, and the ushers, headed by Mr. James E. Gridley of Brookline, Mass., included Mr. Allan Essery of Duval, Sask., a nephew of the bride, and Mr. Ralph Essery and Mr. Harold D. Peardon of Brookline. The wedding music was played by Mr. David Proctor, a colleague of the bride on the faculty of the Northboro High School.

The wedding was of great interest in Boston University circles, since the bride, who herself holds two degrees from the University, and is an active member of the B.Y. chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma, is a niece of Mrs. Everett O. Fisk of Brookline, Mass., prominent both as a trustee and as founder and former president of the Boston University Women's Council. Because of this close connection of the bride's family with the University, the wedding reception was appropriately held in the beautiful setting of the B.Y. Women's Building at 146 Commonwealth Avenue. From there the bride and groom left on a motor trip to Maine, the bride wearing a royal blue ensemble with navy accessories and a corsage of roses.

The bride is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Essery of Union, Lot 33, and a sister of Messrs. Lee and Mervyn Essery, the latter, accompanied by his wife and two sons, is at present visiting relatives and friends in Union and Charlottetown.

Sea View and Vicinity

The heavy rain which fell over this part of the province on Tuesday night and Wednesday a. m. proved to be a great benefit to all the growing crops particularly the root crops and vegetables. The rain also laid the dust which had become such a nuisance to the travelling public as the dust on the roads was so bad that it was dangerous for cars and carriages on the highway.

Several from this and near by communities motored to Cavendish on Wednesday afternoon and attended the tea which for a number of years has become an annual event. Although the day was cool they all enjoyed the outing as well as the bountiful tea provided by the ladies in charge.

Miss Minnie Manderson who has been spending her holidays at her old home in Darnley has returned to Charlottetown to resume her duties in Falconwood Hospital.

Mrs. Charles Aitken and little son of Rollo Bay are visiting in Baltic the guest of her mother, Mrs. Neil Matthews.

Miss Jean Profitt, Montreal, is spending a pleasant visit the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Profitt.

The members of Spring Valley W. I. spent a most pleasant afternoon on Wednesday at Darnley Beach when with their families and friends held a picnic in Mr. Lloyd Adams' field adjoining the beach. The afternoon was perfect for a dip in the ocean or a stroll on the beach. Interesting sports were enjoyed by the junior members and a bountiful tea was served by the ladies to which all did ample justice, a pleasant social hour followed and all felt they had certainly enjoyed their outing.

The Boy Scouts of Malpeque who had been in camp for the past two weeks broke up camp on Thursday after enjoying those days of camp life in ideal weather and an ideal spot for camping on Darnley Beach. This is certainly a beautiful spot for camping bathing and all other features of camp life. The Scouts were indeed pleased to have so many visitors and trust all were agreeably impressed with the efforts of their leader Rev. Mr. Thomas and the Boy Scouts as they are endeavoring to become better boys and better citizens of this fair province of ours.

The western portion of the Young People's Union met on Thursday afternoon for their annual picnic on Darnley Beach. Their was a large gathering of young people from the different societies included. The afternoon was fine and all entered heartily into the various sports and amusements as well as enjoying a dip in the ocean. A refreshment booth was on the grounds to supply ice cream and cooling drinks. All then gathered in groups and partook of a bountiful repast to which all did ample justice. A bonfire service was then enjoyed by all. After the devotional period led by different members, this large gathering joined in a sing song of old hymns and songs and as the music of this vast audience sounded in the calm moonlight air it surely tended to lift all above the routine of life and make all think of the worth while things of life. The benediction by Rev. Mr. Tilley brought this splendid and helpful gathering to a close

Mr. Roy Adams was a visitor to Charlottetown on Wednesday on business.

There appears to be quite an epidemic of sickness among the fox ranches but so far not many are succumbing to the disease and the majority are responding favorably to the treatment.

The Sea View W. I. met on Wednesday evening in the Institute room for their August meeting. President presided and opened the meeting in the usual way. Roll call was answered with riddles which were amusing. The committees reported and the reading of the minutes opened the business discussion. The school had been papered and painted by Mr. Chester MacLeod and ready for reopening on the 16th. Owing to the small number who were present no definite plans were made. Mrs. Donald read an interesting paper on Education. The National Anthem brought this meeting to a close after which refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Mrs. James Duggan and Mrs. Lorne Campbell and Mr. Eddie Murphy were among the visitors to Charlottetown during the past week.

Mrs. John Pickering and family were visitors to Charlottetown on Wednesday evening attending the marriage of their eldest son, Anson to Miss Elline Cameron of Charlottetown. Owing to the recent illness of Mr. John W. Pickering he was unable to be present at this occasion.

Mrs. Albert McKay, Boston, and her mother Mrs. Stanford Gay and Miss Marjorie Lefurgey, Summerside, were visitors to Sea View the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Pickering.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Pickering was the scene of a happy gathering Thursday evening when the people of this community together with many other friends gathered to tender Mr. and Mrs. Anson Pickering a post-nuptial shower following their recent marriage. The house was prettily decorated with choice bouquets and the drawing room was done in white and yellow with several bells suspended in an attractive way above a decorated seat of honor for the bride and groom. The bride and groom were escorted in by little Joyce McKay and Hazen Pickering as miniature bride and groom to the strains of the Wedding March played by Mrs. Lorne Campbell. A gaily decorated basket laden with many gifts was brought in and the parcels were opened by Mrs. Wallace Pickering, Margaret Cousins, the accompanying verses were read by Margaret Blakeney and arranged on the table by Marjorie Lefurgey. The gifts were both useful and ornamental and consisted of towels, China, and glassware, cushions and aluminum and graniteware besides a number of envelopes. The groom on behalf of his bride and himself thanked all in a gracious manner for their kindness and expression of goodwill on this occasion and invited all to visit them in their home. All joined heartily in singing "For They are Jolly Good Fellows" after which all extended congratulations to the happy couple and the groom was given a royal bounce. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in social chat and music, some talented musicians were present and delighted the guests with their contributions. Among the musicians were Mr. and Miss Downing, Charlottetown, who sang several duets in their splendid style. A sing song was greatly enjoyed by all after which a delicious lunch was served and the remainder of the evening was spend in dancing. Music was furnished by Mr. Roland Pickering and Mrs. Lorne Campbell. At a late hour all separated after wishing the young couple a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Among the guests present were a number of friends of the bride from Charlottetown.

Mrs. Frank Kinsman, Portland, and Mr. John Clark, Kensington, are spending a visit in Darnley with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mountain left for their home in Medford, Mass., on Friday morning after a pleasant holiday with friends in Darnley and Sherbrooke.

MIGRATION GIVEN AS ECONOMIC CURE

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, Aug. 13—An obvious method of relieving economic tension in certain islands of the British West Indies was to be found in migration and land settlement schemes, Allister Macmillan, F.R.G.S., F.R.S.A., said during a visit to British Guiana.

He has travelled extensively through the British Caribbean islands and said his impressions of the colonies were embodied in a poem of his new book, entitled "Isles of the West."

Lack of industrial enterprises throughout the islands was also mentioned by the author. Jamaica in particular was backward in this regard, as opportunities were present there that were being wasted.

"An obvious means of relieving economic tension in over-populated islands is to be found in migration and land settlement schemes in those parts which are not yet sufficiently populated," he declared. "Something has to be done, and the sooner that was done, the better."

He agreed, however, the governments of the colonies concerned were unable to tackle the problem of an extensive scale because of financial obstacles, but he hoped financial assistance would be received from the British government to relieve the situation.

EXPLORING SHARK FISHING GROUNDS

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Aug. 13—The German steamship Aequator was in Kingston harbor on a tour of the Caribbean sea, exploring the shark fishing possibilities off Central America and the West Indies.

The vessel is manned by a crew of 25, including two scientists who have had experience in shark fishing in the North Atlantic. The expedition is being undertaken as a commercial venture, the vessel proposing to catch sharks and other types of fish from which fertilizer could be manufactured on board.

The ship is fully equipped with machinery and equipment for catching sharks, also a fertilizer factory, oil factory and other appliances for carrying through the manufacturing processes. Tests will be made at the various shark fishing centres in the Caribbean and the best-suited areas will be selected for permanent activities.

PRESENTATION

On Friday night, August 5th, the members and friends of the Church of God in Charlottetown presented Mr. Albion Douglas who has been their preacher during the past summer months, with a Bible.

Following is the address:

Dear Bro. Douglas: — We, the members and friends of the Church of God in Charlottetown, wish to express our appreciation in the task the Lord has so called on you to do and you who so cheerfully obeyed.

We as members and friends of your faith have always tried to stand by you the past summer months, and to help you in times of need. We are glad you are about to take another step closer to the Lord in your path of duty. Although we regret to see you leave as we found you a cheerful friend, ever ready to give a helping hand to any of us who have needed your assistance, we can understand it's God's call, leading you on to a greater duty.

Bro. Douglas, we are sorry to see you leave us but are glad for the stand you are about to make. I'm sure our prayers will follow you closely, God leading you on.

Now we wish you to accept this little token, not as a great gift but to remember you still have many friends here in Charlottetown and that each time you read its sacred pages you may think of this little mission whose builder and maker is God.

Signed in behalf of the members and friends of the Church of God, Charlottetown, P.E.I.

Cornwall

The Bain-Howard-MacPhail annual picnic was held on Saturday July 23rd at Argyle Shore. This favorable picnic sight, on the MacDougall property at the south shore has been becomming quite popular during the last few years. Adding to the convenience, not only of those who occupy the bunglows there but also, those who go to camp and spend the day, is a housed over spring, tables and seats in the shade an outdoor stove and a beautiful bathing beach. The MacArthur-MacEachern picnic was also held at Argyle Shore on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Howard, Mr and Mrs. G. R. Bain and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bain were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buntain, North Rustico, on Sunday.

Many families of the village are busy picnicking for blueberries and raspberries.

Mr. Chas. E. MacArthur and Mr. Frances N. Bain were recent visitors to York Point.

It is customary for people to go on a camping trip but out here in Cornwall we have a water spaniel that has camped for a night and forenoon at the tent on Birch Shore Farm.

The Cornwall Sewing Girls Club have been cordially invited by the Women's Institute Supervisor, Miss Hazard and others of the staff, to present their three act playette at the College Auditorium on the Clubs' final achievement day.

An unfortunate mishap occurred on Mr. W. Lowther hill near Kelly's bride on Tuesday evening when the car of Mr. Earl MacKenzie, Long Creek, with six passengers ran up the bank and turned over, causing the windows and fenders on one side to be badly damaged and one front tire to be useless. It is learned that the cause of the misfortune was trouble in the steering wheel. The driver was seriously injured.

Among those who were in Charlottetown Saturday night were: Miss Mildred Murray, Miss Florence MacPhee, Miss Hilda Crosby and Miss Alice Howard. —E.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Mary Adelt MacDonald, Mermaid, age 18, who departed this life August 15, 1937. Just a rose from God's own garden

Dropped into our home one day
Won our hearts completly
Then smiling went her way.
Though the circle it is broken
And our hearts are sad today
Yet we would not for one moment
Bid her tarry on her way.

Ever remembered by the Family,
