Georgetown And Vicinity

Mr. Lawrence Batchelder was a visitor to Charlottetown on Wednesday.

Mr. Percy O'Hanley of Souris was a recent visitor to Georgetown where he was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Spurgeon Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Bonnell of Vancouver who are visiting in the province are guests at the "Highlands" beautiful summer home of Rev. Dr. Bonnell.

*Perry-King Wedding — A pretty wedding took place at St. James' Roman Catholic Church, Georgetown at 7.30 a. m. on Wednesday, June 18th, when Elizabeth Adele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert King of Burnt Point became the bride of Henry Anthony, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Perry formerly of Tignish and Georgetown. Rev. Owen Kiggins officiated. Given in marriage by her father the bride looked charming in a street length dress of turquoise blue crepe, with white accessories. Her matron of honor, Mrs. Raymond Martell wore blue with white accessories. Mr. Raymond Martell was best man. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride to which a large number of relatives and friends were invited. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Perry left for Nova Scotia on their honeymoon. For travelling the bride donned a light blue coat. On their return the happy couple will reside in Georgetown, where Mr. Perry is employed as engineer on the Georgetown-Lower Montague ferry boat. We extend to Mr. and Mrs. Perry best wishes for a long and happily married life.

Bristol & Vicinity

Miss Bernedette Kelly was in the city on Monday on business.

Mr. David Roach, who was here from Halifax, on business left this week on return to his home in Halifax.

Mackerel have struck here very good now and the plants are packing them. It was thought for a time no mackerel would be packed this season but we are pleased to see them being handled again.

McAdam's large transfer truck went through the bridge leading to the D. A. Cohan store at Dundee. On Monday evening the heavy loaded truck had to be unloaded before it could be pulled out un-damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hooper, who arrived home from Boston a short time ago have left again for that city where they expect to reside. Mr. Hooper refused to sell his property here and we understand a man in this vicinity has rented the mills.

A number of the lobster fishermen have wound up their fishing for the season more than two weeks before the season closed as there is no fish. Some of the fishermen did not land enough to pay for their hired help let alone have anything for their gear and time.

Mrs. John A. Hughes of Arlington, Mass., who left Bristol as a girl of sixteen, sixty seven years ago this summer informs us she is coming home this summer on her vacation not as young as when she left but still quite smart. She is a sister of Mr. John T. O'Brien who is eighty one. He recalls very clearly the day his sister left going to Charlottetown, in a two wheeled cart and to Boston, by boat. The fare was five dollars he said. Cars were not even a dream then and there was no railway here. Time marches on.

An unfortunate accident happened at the Co-operative packing plant here last week when Mr. Roddie MacDonald had his hand caught in the meat grinder that is steam operated, one finger was pulled out and a second one badly torn before the machine was stopped. Quick thinking on the part of the young man himself saved his entire hand from being crushed. He threw the belt with his free hand stopping the machine, but as help rushed to his aid they were unable to extract his hand that was drawn into the machine. A rush call was sent to Dr. Farmer at Mount Stewart, but before he left his office the young man was freed and rushed to his office by a salesman who happened to be at the plant at the time. Dr. Farmer after attending the torn hand ordered the man to the Hospital where he still remains. To make the accident more unfortunate it was the right hand.

1947 Lantigen Essay Contest Results

Results just received show that the second Essay contest put on by Lantigen Laboratories Limited, Toronto, has aroused keen interest in the Canadian Drug trade. Of the many entries received all were of such a high standard of excellence that the judges were hard put to it in picking the winners. It was evident that entrants were thoroughly conversant with the uses and merits of Lantigen and all those not included in the list of leading prize winners will receive a special pencil as a token of the Company's appreciation of their interest and efforts.

The directors of Lantigen Laboratories say that the essays show that a high standard of salesmanship and pharmaceutical knowledge exists among young Canadian druggists and assistants.

This year the grand prize of $500.00 was captured by a girl druggist — Miss Ursula M. Christie of Schumacher, Ontario. Miss Christie's excellent explanation of 'How and Why I Sell Lantigen' also brought to her employer, John E. Briscoe, a cash prize of $500.00.

The best essay by a lady assistant was won by Miss Mary Chemerys, Western Pharmacy, Edmonton; the best essay in French by Jean Paul Desjardins, c-o H. A. Desjardins, Ottawa; and the best essay by male assistant, Ralph Parker, Greene's Ideal Drugs Limited, Windsor, Ontario. Each of these entrants won $100.00 in cash. 24 prizes of $10.00 each were awarded to: Cora M. Harvey, Dimock's Pharmacy, Windsor, N. S.; Roy T. Kleaman, Vancouver, B.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

THE POWER OF PRAYER

The weary ones had rest, the sad hid joy
That day: I wondered "how!"
A ploughman singing at his work,
had prayed,
"Lord, help them now!"

Away in foreign lands they wondered "how!"
Their single word had power!
At home the Christian, two or three, had met,
To pray an hour!

Yes, we are always wondering, wondering "how!"
Because we do not see,
Some one, unknown perhaps, and far away,
On bended knee!

TWELVE STEPS OF THE ALCOHOLIC ANONYMOUS PROGRAMME.

1. I admit that I am powerless over alcohol—that my life has become unmanageable.
2. I believe that a power greater than myself can restore me to sanity.
3. I decide to turn my life and myself over to the care of God as I understand Him.
4. I make a searching and fearless inventory of myself.
5. I must admit to God, myself, and another human being the exact nature of my wrongs.
6. I am entirely ready to have removed all these defects of character.
7. I humbly ask Him to remove these shortcomings.
8. I make a list of all persons I have harmed and become willing to make amends to them all.
9. I make direct amends to them all, persons I have harmed, wherever possible except when to do so would injure them and others.
10. I continue to make personal inventory and when I am wrong promptly admit it.
11. I seek through prayer and meditation to improve my conscious contact with God as I understand Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for me and the power to carry that out.
12. Having had a spiritual experience as the result of these steps I try to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principles in all my affairs.

The most interesting feature of the movement is that the condition of membership requires those who have been helped to help another alcoholic, to work to free another from the habit.

(It would seem that this is a programme that every Christian might well study and practice.)

One thing that makes Alcoholic Anonymous different from any other organization is that members remain unidentified. Their names are never disclosed in public and their membership in A. A. remains their own secret.
