"Hold Your Man" Rough, Rowdy And Romantic—Harlow and Gable Great! At The Prince Edward

The reunion of Jean Harlow and Clark Gable in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's answer to the exhibitor's prayer.

Ever since the smashing success of their romantic teamwork in "Red Dust," it was inevitable that Miss Harlow and Gable should play a return engagement on the screen. And now, after seeing "Hold Your Man" at the Prince Edward Theatre, it is this reviewer's opinion that the demand will be further extended.

Those Warm Interludes

Whatever it takes to put romance on the screen, Harlow and Gable have it. More dramatic than most stories on this order, the new picture nevertheless packs warm interludes bound to keep the matinee seats full so long as the film shows. There is no doubt that this pair are the most popular lovers on the screen today.

Even if for no other reason than its palpitating romance, "Hold Your Man" is a cinch at the box office. But it is replete, by way of further interest, with a stimulating story that has as its climatic background the interior of a women's reform school. Here, Jean discards the finery of her earlier appearances for the starched denim of a prison uniform. Gable, as the man whose kisses get her in all the trouble, also lands in jail and the ultimate happy ending comes when they are released and

Human Bones Found on Shore

QUEBEC, Nov. 20.—(C.P.)—Bones were found by detectives on the beach at Peninsula, Que., over the week-end and were shipped to Dr. Rosario Fontaine, Quebec medicolegal expert, in the expectation examination of the remains might throw further light on the death of the Asch cousins. It was learned here tonight. Maud and Marguerite Asch, respectively 15 and 17 years old, disappeared from their Peninsula homes on August 31. The mangled and partly clothed body of Maud was taken from Gaspe Bay about a month ago and Nelson Phillips, 18-year old Gaspe fisherman, was committed to stand trial for the murder of the younger girl. The body of Marguerite has not been found.

Phillips was brought here over the week-end from Perce, Que., jail where he was confined following preliminary hearing.

Fruit Vapour

Some remarkable experiments described in the report of the Food Investigation Board, United Kingdom, deal with the effects of substances given off as vapour during the ripening of fruit. Although this vapour has not been isolated in sufficient quantity to allow a complete chemical identification, evidence points to the active substance being either ethylene or a product of a similar nature.

Richard Dix In "The Great Jasper" At The Capitol

A man adored by all women and hated by all men because they envied his success with women—that's "The Great Jasper," Richard Dix' new picture and his greatest performance.

Here is the same old Dix—handsome, virile, energetic. But here also is a new Dix—a great character actor. Jasper is shorn of heroism. He's not noble, but human. He's bad, but intrinsically lovable.

"The Great Jasper," now playing at the Capitol Theatre, tells the story of the way of a man with his wife and other men's wives.

Jasper loved his wife, Jenny. Loved her when he was a horse car driver, an electric car motorman and a superintendent. Loved her when McGowd drove him out of town for being the father of his wife's son. Loved her when he became a rich and famous fortune teller in Atlantic City.

But Jenny couldn't believe him because he loved other women, too. He fell for them as naturally as they fell for his wicked wink and winning smile.

The day of regret doesn't come to Jasper until his son by McGowd's wife ruins the happiness of Jenny's life by practising the same heartless philosophy of snatching from life what he wanted for his happiness at last days after a blow!

Dix is superb as the swaggering, winking Jasper taking his triumphs with a frank pride that is disarming. Wera Engels, a lovely German beauty, is a charming Mrs. McGowd, "the finest lady" he ever loved. Edna May Oliver gives another of her unforgettable portrayals, this time being a bogus fortune teller. The wife is intelligently enacted by Florence Eldridge and Bruce Cabot. Betty Furness and James Bush provide the second-generation triangle.

HINDUS FINED FOR GAMBLING

BOMBAY, India, Nov. 16.—(C.P.)—Fines were imposed on Mohan Nagar and 29 other Hindus who were found guilty of gambling in cotton futures by the Presidency Magistrate, Third Court Bombay, at a recent sitting. The accused were arrested in the course of a raid. The room was searched after the accused were apprehended and betting slips were found scattered on the floor.

AUBURN WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The annual meeting of the Auburn Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. John Simpson on Nov. 14th with seven members and three visitors present. Meeting opened by singing of the Institute Ode and the reading of the creed in unison. The minutes of the previous meeting and the last annual one were read, approved and signed. Roll call was answered by each member paying their membership fee. The secretary gave a splendid report of the past year's work showing the amount of money raised and expended. All business being finished the following officers were then elected for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. Walter McEntee, Vice President—Mrs. Edward J. Roache, Secretary—Mrs. Edwin J. Curley, (re-elected).

Directors—Mrs. John Simpson, Mrs. Patrick Callaghan, Miss Margaret Heron.

Auditor—Mrs. Ambrose Callaghan.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the retiring president, Mrs. John Simpson, for the interest she took in the work of the Institute during the year she presided. In reply she thanked the members for their co-operation and help. A pleasant hour was spent in music and vocal solos, etc. A reading entitled "Neighbourhood News" was also read by one of the members and greatly enjoyed by all. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss M. Simpson. The singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close to meet again at the home of Mrs. P. Callaghan on Dec. 12th, roll call to be answered with "Christmas Recipes."

Mr. Wm. Virtue, brother of the bride, and Miss Belle McGowan of McGowan's Limited, Kilmuir, acted as best man and bridesmaid and did their duties splendidly. Mr. Duncan (Dover) McDonald "for he's a jolly good fellow," acted as chauffeur to the happy party, driving them to the manse and back to Kilmuir to the home of the bride party where assembled guests waited to welcome them home and where a sumptuous

SHE ATE ALL-BRAN

TWELVE YEARS WITH FINE RESULTS

Delicious Cereal Relieves Constipation

Read this very enthusiastic letter:

"Something like eleven or twelve years ago, I began eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. When I started, it was called simply Kellogg's Bran, and I believe it was one of the first products of the kind on the market.

"My friends often laugh at my fondness for ALL-BRAN. It gives such a clean taste in the mouth, and I do not feel satisfied until I have had my ALL-BRAN.

"If the Kellogg Company should ever stop manufacturing ALL-BRAN here is one who would be greatly disappointed."—Miss Amy Eason (Address furnished upon request.)

Science says that ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regularity. Also iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. How much safer than taking patent medicines—often harmful. Just eat two tablespoons daily for most types of constipation. For serious cases, try it three times daily. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Sold in the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

PERSONALS

The illness of Mr. Harry McDougall is regretted by his wide circle of friends.

Miss Iphigene Arseneault left Saturday on a visit to Halifax.

GRAIN PRICES DROP IN 'PEG' EXCHANGE

WINNIPEG, Nov. 19.—(C.P.)—Exporters again supplied most of the support on the grain market Saturday, but the movement was outweighed by hedging sales that shifted prices down for net losses of 3-4-1 cent at the finish.

Selling operations were not particularly large, but the export business amounted to only 300,000 bushels. This however, was enough support to bring values up about 1-2 cent from bottom levels.

November wheat finished the week at 64 3-4, December 64. May at 67 7-8 and July at 69 1-8 cents. Weakness at Chicago was also a depressing factor. Traders in the south also sold at Winnipeg, while locals liquidated a little.

Liverpool prices finished 5-8d lower while Buenos Aires values finished 7-8c to 3-4c lower. Cables reported further reductions in the Australian crop estimates, but the Argentine news continued generally satisfactory.

Trading in cash grains was slow. Coarse grains operations were dull and featureless and values fractionally lower.

CANINE CRITIC STIRS GOLFERS

TORONTO, Nov. 19.—(C.P.)—Meet Max, the golfing canine, or the canine golfer. He may not play the actual shots the human golfer does, but he knows the game and at times expresses displeasure of the manner in which shots are played.

Max resides in a kennel behind the Rosedale Golf Club. His circle of friends and acquaintances extends widely, the former being a select few and the latter numbering hundreds, according to Charles W. MacQueen in the Mail and Empire.

From early in the spring until late in the Fall he keeps a close eye on those who tee-off at Rosedale. When one of his friends starts on a round Max follows, but mere acquaintances are only permitted to hold a conversation with him on the tee, and perhaps scratch him behind the ears while they await their turn.

He is an Airedale and was purchased some 11 years ago by C. W. Hitchcock, steward of the club. Since then he has been a fixture, just the same as the starting box at the first tee or the clock behind the 14th.

Max knows his golf etiquette, perhaps as well as anyone. When he is following play from tee to green he keeps well to the side of the fairway. When a player is addressing the ball Max becomes a statue. He refrains from audibly expressing his appreciation or disapproval of a shot, but in his case actions speak louder than words.

During his residence at Rosedale Max has become a student of topography and, with the addition of years, accompanied by the customary obesity and weakening of the legs he has learned to economize in exertion. He finds his shuffling gait will barely keep him up with the payers, unless they are slow and if they are too slow he shows his disapproval by either disdaining to watch them play their shots or by trotting on.

M.A.A. Juniors Set High Record

MONTREAL, Nov. 19.—(C.P.)—One of Montreal's many football records was shattered with the defeat of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association junior football team by Westward Juniors this fall. M. A. A. A. had established the record by winning the Quebec Rugby Football Union title for eight consecutive years, a feat which will go down in the annals of sport as a high mark for future teams to aim at. During these eight years of victory the Montreal 12 succeeded in capturing three Dominion crowns as well.

Their long string of victories commenced way back in 1925 and continued until they were defeated this year by the strong Westward outfit by the score of 13-8. For many seasons the Westward team and many other contenders were attempting to wrest the provincial championships from the seemingly invincible Winged Wheelers. Many times the champions came near to being beaten but each time with a gigantic effort they succeeded in conquering their opponents. West had long been one of the strongest threats to the Montreal time but it was only this year that he became powerful enough to steal the laurels. During the champions' winning streak they were first coached by Hoody Foster and in the final years by Bill Soden who still continues to be their mentor. It was due to the great work done by this latter football genius that Montreal succeeded in retaining the championship.

Will Experiment With Secretly Made Newsprint

(By Howard W. Blakelee Associated Press Science Writer)

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 19.—Nine Georgia newspapers tomorrow will issue their regular editions on newsprint secretly made from southern pine trees as a demonstration of closing the last big link in American chemical independence.

This link, as scientists see it, is the manufacture from some resource of newsprint and all the high-grade white paper. Newsprint now is an annual business of about $140,000,000, and two thirds of it is imported, mostly from Canada.

The secret manufacture was undertaken to answer the final thing newsprint experts had asserted could not be done. They said American chemists could not make from southern pine forests sulfite and pulp which could run at commercial speed through a real paper-making machine—not at the 750 or more feet per minute of paper produced from northern spruce trees.

MILD SESSION IN NEW YORK EXCHANGE

(By John L. Cooley) (Associated Press Financial Writer)

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—(A.P.)—Excitement continued to abate in the financial market Saturday and Wall Street trading had a rather routine appearance.

With the dollar situation narrowing—their extreme changes were near the smallest in some time—the share market was quiet and steady. United States Government bonds, which had made fairly sharp recoveries Friday, drifted downward, treasuries closing with net losses of three to 17 thirty-second of a point though two liberties showed small gains. Chicago wheat weakened. Silver futures rallied here while spot metal declined 1 1-4 cents to 48 3-8 cents an ounce. Cotton was narrowly changed.

U. S. CURRENCY

United States currency ruled under the other monies, but the confused and wild gyrations had disappeared. No doubt the impression had gained weight that with the R. F. C. gold price unchanged at $33.56 since Tuesday the present policy was toward dollar steadiness, and speculators seemed to have lost interest.

Russian recognition had little visible effect on the day's dealings. Some of the so-called "Soviet trade" stocks flurried a bit at the active opening of the share market, but their performance was rather lukewarm. Farm implements and other machinery issues were generally firm through the two hours, though many leaders confined their movements to fractions. Mining share firms after Friday's tumble. Rail and utilities were slightly off.

General Electric, Allis Chalmers, Harvester, Case, Chrysler, Westinghouse, American Smelting, Dome, McIntyre, Chrysler, U. S. Steel and American Can closed firmly with fractional gains. U. S. Smelting and Du Pont improved about two each. Allied Chemical's three point rise was reduced to two-thirds. Santa Fe, Union Pacific, American Telephone and Consolidated Gas eased. Oils held steady. Sales amounted to $77,800 shares.

The matter of business stimulation as a result of Russian recognition depended, Wall Street naturally concluded, upon credit arrangements, and on this point the financial community had little definite information. Potential buying by the Soviets in this country was variously estimated; orders would presumably favor such lines as machinery, tools, railway materials and raw cotton. Meanwhile, it was concluded, the establishment of credit channels may require some time.

NOTHING TO COMPARE WITH BUCKLEY'S FOR COUGHS AND COLDS

G. Billings of Colonsay, Sask. ought to know, for he has taken BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE for years. He writes: "There is nothing on the market to equal it. Its flash-like action is sudden death to a cold."

No matter how stubborn or long standing your cough or cold may be, try BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE. You will be amazed at the instant relief it affords. The very first sip relieves the cough, and in no time at all clears up the deep-seated congestion soothes and heals the tender, inflamed membranes and fortifies them against future attacks.

Buckley's acts like a flash—A single sip proves it.

at 524 1-2, the latter at 635 cents Business news was meagre. The rise of wholesale price indices last month and early in November represents a step toward the desired goal, while industrial barometers are offering some evidence that the seasonal downward trend has been checked. Normally, steel output continues its sag into December but this year it is believed possible that the usual trend may be reversed as the effect of new public works and rail purchase is felt.
