One platter containing several vegetables facilitates serving for dinner. With one passing you have all the vegetable supply. For instance, pile a mound of fluffy washed potatoes in center of warm platter and surround it with buttered peas and diced beets, or use mashed or candied sweets for the center and surround with glazed pineapple slices which in turn are outlined with buttered cauliflower and green beans.

ESCAPES SERIOUS INJURY. - Manning Gregory, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gregory, St. Avaris, was knocked down by a car yesterday morning while playing near his home. The car was backing up at the time of the accident and the driver did not see the youngster who was struck by the rear bumper and fell between the wheels of the car. Fortunately the wheels passed on either side of his body and the young chap received no further injury than a cut on his forehead and a shaking up.

RECEPTION FOR PASTOR AND BRIDE. - A reception for Rev. G. P. Partridge and his bride was held recently by the congregations of St. Andrew's and Pakenham Presbyterian congregations at the home of Mrs. David Crookery, Kinburn. Mrs. Crookery, Mrs. J. M. Young, Mrs. G. T. Styles and Mrs. Herb Wilson received. R. H. Laughlin read the address and Mr. A. C. Cowan, Mr. O. C. Laughlin and Mrs. John T. Hanna presented the guests with a solid walnut tea wagon and book case. Rev. and Mrs. Partridge replied very fittingly. The program was presented with the following taking part: Rev. T. A. McAfee, Arranger; Rev. Robert Good, Organist; Mr. Harold McAfee, Miss Edith Hinds, Mrs. J. M. Young, and Rev. G. P. Partridge. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. David Crookery and Mrs. Harold Blanchard. The assistants were Mrs. D. E. Crookery, Mrs. J. M. Young, Mrs. Emmerson Gourley, Mrs. Russell Cowan, Mrs. J. Hinds, Mrs. James Ferguson, Mrs. Herb Wilson, Mrs. Guy Styles, Miss Evelyn Laughlin.

POST NUPTIAL SHOWER. - On November 28, a very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Coles, Winstown, when upwards of thirty friends and relatives wended their way to the tune of jingling bells to tender a miscellaneous shower to Mr. and Mrs. Emmerson Ford (nee Lois Coles). The bride and groom were escorted into the living room by Mr. Roland Roberts and Miss Joyce Auld to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Alice Youker. Misses Helen Roberts and Eleanor Moreside carried in a number of baskets heavily laden with gifts, which they unwrapped while Miss Esther Harper read the verses and presented them to the bride and groom. The presents were artistically arranged on the table by Miss Ruth Cutmer. When the gifts had all been opened Emmerson, on behalf of his bride, with a few well chosen words thanked the people for their generosity and extended an invitation to all to visit them in their new home. After singing, "For They are Jolly Good Fellows" the popular couple were bounced and the remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse, music, and dancing. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by several of the ladies present, after which the many guests departed for their homes, wishing Emmerson and Lois many happy years of wedded life. Auction officials said the prices obtained improved on succeeding days of the sale, with the total proceeds in excess of $578,000.

GUNN-MISNER. - A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the Stanhope United Church at 6 o'clock on the evening of Wednesday, Dec. 14 when Susan Jane (Jean) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bertam Misner of Stanhope was united in marriage to Mr. Shelton Robert Gunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Gunn of West St. Peter's. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas A. Wilson, B.S., of West Covehead in the presence of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The church was nicely decorated for the occasion by girl friends of the bride. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. Frankie Auld. The bride presented a picture of girlish loveliness in the possession of relative, and friend of the contracting parties. IN MEMORIAM
MRS. ARTHUR McMAHON

The angel of death, for the second time within six months visited the home of Mr. Eugene McMahon, Brookvale, claiming as its victim his Mother, a very highly esteemed lady in the eighty-second year of her age. Deceased was born in Kinkora, Lot 26, being the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Carr, and fifty years ago was married to Arthur McMahon, who predeceased her by just six months. After her marriage she with her husband lived on their farm in Brookvale, but removed to Emerald where they remained for some time, and later returned to their farm in Brookvale where she lived until her death.

During her illness she was tenderly cared for by her two daughters who did everything they could to alleviate her sufferings and to make her as comfortable as possible. She was spiritually attended by her pastor Rev. William McCabe who visited her many times during her sickness and on the morning of her death administered to her the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church, of which she was a consistent and very pious member.

The late Mrs. McMahon was a lady of many fine traits of character. She was kind-hearted, generous and always cheerful, indeed her cheerfulness seemed to be contagious for she had the art of making everyone happy with whom she came in contact. She was the possessor of many virtues and if any of these stood out more prominently than the rest, it was that of patience, never was she heard to murmur during all her illness, and if being asked by her friends, how she felt, she would smilingly answer, fine.

She leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother: two sons, Eugene and Joseph, and two daughters, Ella and Sarah, all of Brookvale, also one sister, Mrs. Helen Pursey of Summerside.

Her funeral, which was in charge of Mr. Frank Trahner took place to St. Joseph's Church, Kelly's Cross, and was very largely attended. High Mass of Requiem was said by her Nephew, Rev. Owen Kiggins, Georgetown, who also performed the services at the grave.

The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Walter Cusack, Jerome Smith, Patrick McGee, Emmet Sturdy, Joseph Carragher, and Mark Curley. May her soul rest in peace.
