ROBIN HOOD

11--Spectacular Reels--11

STARRING

Douglas Fairbanks

Tremendous Drama, Gorgeous Spectacle, yet always human. Stupendous scenes of regal splendor as a setting for the age-old story of Robin Hood and his merry bandits.

LOVE OF 800 YEARS AGO

For lovers of today! Love when Knights in armor fought with lance on armored steeds! When hearts were won with staff and cudgel and broad sword.

THE GREATEST SPECTACLE EVER PRESENTED ON THE SCREEN

FREE

A 98 LB. BAG OF "ROBIN HOOD" FLOUR GIVEN AWAY AT EACH PERFORMANCE TO THE ONE WHO HOLDS THE LUCKY NUMBER. ASK FOR COUPON WHEN PURCHASING YOUR TICKET.

EIGHT CENTURIES BRUSHED ASIDE BY CAMERA LENS

Robin Hood and his merry crew who took from the rich to aid the poor; his love for sweet Maid Marian; Sherwood Forest and Nottingham Town; Friar Tuck and Little John with their staves and cudgels—all etched out of the dim past and made to live again!

Towering battlements with turrets seeming to cut the sky; great castles of giant kings with their moats and draw-bridges—drawn across the span of 800 years and set before eyes of today! The great Fairbanks as bandit chief—yet supreme in the role of romantic lover!

Robin Hood's Merry Men of History are replaced by Happy Housewives of To-day

Robin Hood brought joy and gladness to thousands in the days of Richard the First even as Robin Hood to-day in countless thousands of Canadian Homes. What household duty gives such genuine pleasure or creates more real happiness for Mothers than a successful bake-day?

To the pleasing results, easily obtained, in baking with Robin Hood Flour, can be attributed the daily happiness of thousands of Canadian Mothers.

Bake with Robin Hood and be happy.

POULTRY MARKET DELAYED—The mild weather has put a damper on the trade in poultry in Westmorland Co., N. B. This county goes in strong for the raising of turkeys and geese.

AN INTERESTING COURSE.—Miss Catherine J. MacLean, of Clyde River, is now in Boston attending the Training School for Attendant Nurses, conducted by the Household Nursing Association of 222 Newbury street. Miss MacLean has just entered with the latest class and will have a six weeks' course under graduate nurses and dietitians followed by six months' training in a hospital. During the first three months students are taught not only nursing, but also the preparation and serving of the proper foods for sick people. At the end of the training period, the attendant nurses are offered the services of the registry conducted by the Association and are guaranteed positions. Miss MacLean will finish the course in August.

ROBIN HOOD WEEK.—This is Robin Hood Week in Charlotte town and grocers all over the city have their windows nicely decorated with advertising matter and bags of the popular brand of hard wheat flour—"Robin Hood." The wonderful film "Robin Hood" is showing at the Prince Edward Theatre Wednesday and Thursday afternoon and night. At each performance a ninety eight pound bag of Robin Hood flour will be presented free to the person holding the lucky ticket. Numbered tickets will be presented to each person entering the theatre. Every purchaser of a bag of Robin Hood flour before the Thursday afternoon matinee will get from their grocer a free children's ticket to this greatest of all pictures. Our advice to everyone is buy the flour and see the picture.

PANSIES ON DEC. 10th.—The Guardian received yesterday several pansies and a spray of white lilac picked from Mr. J. J. Stewart's garden, 126 Fitzroy Street, by his mother Mrs. I. A. Stewart, who takes full charge of the flowers, on Dec. 10th. The pansies are full grown and others are in bud, while the lilac spray is full of buds and makes one think of the balmy days of early spring. Mrs. Stewart, who is one of the grand old ladies of Charlotetown, does not remember a similar fall in her lifetime, when she could pick pansies for her friends in December, and says that there has only been two such frosts so far this season. The Guardian wishes Mrs. Stewart many more anniversaries with CARDIGAN PROGRESS CLUB.—A regular meeting of the Progress Club was held on Friday, December 7. The roll call was responded to by fifteen members. The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. It was moved, seconded, and carried that a glass be purchased for the library, also that each member pay a fee of 20c before the next meeting. The sum of ten dollars ($10.00) was voted toward the "Christmas tree fund." The election of officers took place which resulted as follows:—President, Stewart Scrimgeour, Vice-President, Florence MacNeill, Secretary, Bernadetta Lewis, Librarian, Hattie MacDonald, Executive Committee.—Chairman, Earl MacDonald, Assistant, Norman MacKenzie, Assistant, George Buchanan. There being no further business the meeting adjourned in the regular manner.—(Patric please Copy).
