QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The Guardian prints all the HOME and other news, and has the SWEET honor and pleasure of being the HOME paper for Prince Edward Island.

That pond!

Herbert Rodd, Providence R. I., is expected to arrive in the city tonight on a visit to his home here.

The Misses Haslam of this city will spend Sunday and Dominion Day at their home in Springfield. They will be accompanied by Miss Mary Lewis, St. Clair.

The first Tennis Tournament of the season will be played at Victoria Park on this afternoon. The game will be mixed doubles. Drawing for partners will take at 2.30 sharp.

The auction sale of Horses and carriages on the market square yesterday afternoon, drew a large crown of farmers. A horse fourteen years old, formerly owned by the late I. C. Hall, was sold to John Horne, Winsloe for the sum of sixty dollars. A double seated carriage nearly new, was sold for fifty eight dollars. Older carriages sold at very reasonable prices. The vehicles were owned by John Newsom, and were used in connection with the Sea Side Hotel.

On the return trip from Crapaud yesterday morning, the S. S. City of London had seventy cases eggs, forty-five cases lobsters, twenty-five boxes butter, three barrels and seven cases produce and one horse. On the return trip from East River she had fifty passengers and the following cargo: Ninety-five bushels quahaugs and fifteen cases eggs. The steamer plies on West River today and goes to Brush Wharf on Monday evening, on returning from Hickey's wharf, East River.

A very enjoyable time was spent at the residence of W. and Mrs. Jardine, Crown Point, a few evenings ago, when a number of invited friends assembled to celebrate the birthday party of Miss Elizabeth Jardine. Among the guests were Miss Leonie D. Rooth, Boston; and Mr. and Mrs. Hermons, Halifax. In the early part of the evening the guests were entertained by Miss Rooth, who played the Dancla six airs with variations on the violin; also a few songs by Mr. Hermons, accompanied on the organ by Miss Rooth. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, Shadrack Jardine furnishing violin and bagpipe music, after which supper was served.

In this morning's Guardian appears on page ten a most interesting account of the music trade being done in this Province by the firm of A. Horne & Co., Kent Street, who have been in this business for a great many years. This branch of the firm's large business is known as the "Central Music Store" and the capable and highly esteemed manager Allan Forsythe is known the Province over for thorough competence and a full knowledge of his business, which is most extensive. The firm imports from the leading manufacturers and esteems it a pleasure to have customers test the pianos, organs and other musical instruments which are always on exhibition at the fine show rooms on Kent Street. A full line of sewing machines and accessories are always kept in stock and can be had at shortest notice.

Boston is to have a Big "Old Home Week" this summer, a unique and elaborate mid-summer celebration and carnival that will attract thousands to the Hub. The event will occur between July twenty-eight and August third. A program of such dimensions is being arranged that there will be no single event going on in the United States this summer at all comparable to it, except the Jamestown Exposition. The motto of the Boston Old Home Week boomers is, "Something Doing Every Minute for Several Days," and there is little doubt that this promise will be literally carried out. It will be the first time that Boston has ever had an Old-Home Week, and the first time since 1880 that it has had a distinctively local celebration of any kind on a large scale. It will be a sort of home-coming jubilee and midsummer carnival combined, and of the throngs that are expected to enjoy it, many may be vacation seekers pure and simple, with no special ties or interests in the city of beans. It will be one of the finest opportunities ever offered of seeing Boston at its best— in July and August. The fact that the railroads of the country have granted one of the lowest excursion rates for the occasion ever given a celebrating community, will of itself insure a large attendance. It will be a summer vacation not many will care to miss. Return fares at slightly over one single first class fare will be given on the All Rail line to enable visitors to enjoy the events of the Old Home Week. Already it appears evident that very many will go from this Province to see the Hub, renew acquaintances and enjoy the pleasures to be provided at the celebration.

Famous Soap makes home happy.

The mail train arrived last night at 9.10.

The Northumberland arrived last night at nine o'clock.

The death took place at his home, Wakefield, Mass., June 23, of John C. Kalaher, aged thirty three years. He leaves to mourn a widow and three children Mrs. Kalagher was formerly Miss Theresa Murphy, Stanley Bridge.

The Guardian this morning contains sixteen pages of interesting reading. The illustrations with explanatory matter are most up-to-date and deal with leading topics of interest in Canadian, American and European countries.

There is lots of fun in store for the little ones at Hickey's Wharf, East River, by the S. S. City of London leaving Charlottetown at 2 p. m. on Monday next. Round trip only 15cts., or two for 25cts. Adults 25cts. Liquids and other refreshments in season.

The temperance demonstration at Kensington July fourth, promises to be the biggest and best ten of the season. It is expected that between five and ten thousand people will be present. Special train leaves Charlottetown at 8.50 a. m. Return fare only eighty cents. Intermediate stations at proportionately small rates.

Miss Ethel G. Mason, daughter of Rev. W. A. Mason, Port Hill; who has been attending the Ladies' College, Halifax, for the past year, took also a post graduate course in type writing and short hand in the Maritime Business College, Halifax, where she was successful in obtaining the diploma of the Business Education' Association of Canada.

The baseball team which will represent the League of the Cross Association in the match at Summerside on Dominion Day is as follows Catcher, T. Trainor; pitcher R. F. Cullen; first base, J. Gorley; second base, J. Brown; third base, F. Hennessy; short stop, C. McQuillan; right field, S. Purcell; centre field J. Hughes; left field. A. Joy; spares, J. Hughes, J. M. McKinnon.

In Tuesday's Guardian will appear the list of pupils who have graded in West Kent School. Those who graded in Prince street School appeared yesterday, and in Wednesday's Guardian will appear the list for Queen Square School. In these lists the names of the pupils are printed in the order in which they stand by marks those making the highest per centage in each mark coming first and so on in order down.

The sudden death took place at East Boston, Mass., recently, of Hannah C. Pearson (nee Kellow) formerly of Cornwall, Prince Edward Island. Deceased was the wife of the late Charles E. Pearson, East Boston, and a daughter of the late James and Jane Kellow, Cornwall, formerly of Plymouth, England. Although in poor health for many years her sudden death from heart disease, came as a shock to all who knew her. She is survived by two sons and two daughters and several grandchildren.

DANGER IN CORN SALVES.

They usually contain acids and burn the flesh. The one safe cure in liquid form is Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, which is purely vegetable, causes no pain and cures in one day. Don't forget the name "Putnam's."

Our Developing Department

is a decided success. We use new developer for each film and the result is that if the pictures were at all properly taken we can make a good negative.
