IN MEMORIAM

MRS. WILLIAM NEALE After a long illness at her home in Bear River, there passed peacefully away to her Heavenly home on March 27th, Ada Elizabeth Neale, widow of the late William Neale, who predeceased her over three years ago. She was born at North River in the year 1869 being the daughter of the late Joseph and Katherine Colgan. She has left beautiful memories of a life spent in Christian living, all the sorrows and troubles of her life, which were many, were faced by that calm trust and patience of a life closely spent to her Master, whom she loved to serve. In all her associations her kindness won for her the love and respect of her many friends and neighbours. She leaves to mourn her loss, one son Joseph of Bear River, Charlotte Mrs. John Matheson, Appin Road P. E. I. and Dorothy, now in Halifax, N.S., who so lovingly and tenderly cared for her during her illness. Two brothers, John Colgan, Charlottetown, and Thomas Colgan, Saxonville, Mass., also three grandchildren. The funeral which was largely attended was held on March 29th. A short service at the home followed by service in St. John's United Church. Both services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie, E. D. who gave a very comforting and inspiring message on death, being the crowning time of a life spent in Christian service. Hymns sung were "The Lord is My Shepherd," "Rock of Ages," and "Abide with Me," a favorite of the deceased. Beautiful solo of "Somewhere" was feelingly rendered as a solo by Mr. Young, R.C.M.P. The funeral was tenderly laid to rest in St. John's Cemetery beside her husband. Surviving: Charles Campbell, Roy Townshend, Michael Koefe, Hugh Sheehan, Daniel Moore and James Hedges. Prime Minister MacKenzie King conferred with President Roosevelt and State Secretary Hull in Washington. APRIL 30, 1940—British War Office announced British troops resisted further Nazi attempts to advance in the Dombas area while Germany claimed the capture of Dombas. Canadian government re-evaluated most of foreign exchange held by Canadians. There British and United States officers and men who will take over the municipal administration of German towns liberated from the Nazis are training for their work. Whether you're the dramatic or the unobtrusive type, there's a handbag style to suit your particular personality. From the casual tailored envelope bag to the capacious brightly-colored carry-all, each adds something to the individuality of the wearer. The slender silhouette of a trim suit is an ideal background for a novelty handbag or other unusual design. Shoulder bags, too, look smart and Voguish with the simple, basic suit. In making your choice, remember that big fat bags add avoidability, while flat ones are flatteringly slimming—once you have the bag of your heart, treat it with care. Don't overload it like a small boy's pocket with all sorts of unnecessary objects to shame you some day when they spill out on the street! Carry the minimum in your handbag—and check all contents to see that they're fastidious by neat, from the lacy handkerchief fresh from its dip in gentle fine fabric suits to the last pencil and tidy address book.

NEWEST TRAINING WEAPON, the Swift Training Rifle is demonstrated here by Lieut. W. Earle Lobb, weapon training officer at No. 103 Canadian Infantry Basic Training Centre, Fort Garry, Man. sharp, spring-actuated prongs dart out at the target when the trigger is pressed. Targets, less than an inch square, are scaled perfectly. Performance made by prongs shows where a bullet fired from a normal rifle would strike target, also illustrate faults in aiming, holding and trigger-pressure. By raising and lowering the target frame the weapon may be fired from standing, kneeling and lying position. (Canadian Army Photo).

A programme of News war zones was a feature of the Flashes from our soldiers in many service.
