Shown At Capitol

Every move of the heavyweight scrap between the former champion, Maxie Baer, and Detroit's brown bomber, Joe Louis, was shown at the Capitol Theatre yesterday.

These pictures show vividly what was seen by the ringside seat holders at $25 each. In addition to the four rounds of breath-taking action (most of the breathtaking being caused by the colored boy's steaming punches) into Maxie's bleeding face) slow motion scenes were shown of the third and fourth rounds, including the knockout punch.

The slow motion was the big feature of the film. Just how much Baer was rocked by Joe's terrific left hand was seen clearly by these unusual shots.

The action was caught from close-up and the film is accompanied by the sound of the 90,000 fans, the announcer's remarks, and other ring-side sounds.

The pictures will be shown again today and on Saturday, on the same bill with "Secret of the Chateau" and added attractions. They are well worth seeing.

Truro Boy "Lee Crowe" Playing In "Secret Of The Chateau" At Capitol

Clark Williams, contract player, in Universal's thrilling French mystery drama, "Secret of the Chateau" which opened yesterday at the Capitol Theatre three weeks after his arrival in Hollywood, is a remarkable success story.

CLARK WILLIAMS

Clark Williams was born Lee Crowe at Truro, N. S., May 14, son of a retired druggist. He attended Kings Collegiate School at Windsor, N. S., and Truro, N. S. During his school years he was constantly in amateur theatricals. Upon graduation he joined with W. S. Harkins Stock Co., at Halifax, N. S., touring Newfoundland and then going to Bermuda, reaching New York City in 1926, he was signed for a role in the touring company of "The Show-off."

Hew as playing at Ann Arbor, Michigan in "Charibotte, Emily and Anne," when he was signed to a Universal contract. "Secret of the Chateau" is his first screen appearance.

Shirley Steals New Hearts In
"Curly Top" At Prince Edward

"Curly Top," Shirley Temple's bright and fun-filled new picture, had its first presentation before Prince Edward Theatre audiences last night. And to hundreds who had come to expect the utmost in cinema entertainment from this dimpled darling, the new picture brought new thrills in dancing, songs, laughter and sheer fun.

Beyond all comparison, "Curly Top" is Shirley Temple's greatest picture. It has five new songs, all with the magical melody touch of Ray Henderson; a number of intriguing new Jack Donohue dance routines, including the sensational rope-skipping dance episode; a sterling supporting cast; and a compelling romantic story about which all of the film's varied activities center.

Against the colorful musical background which Fox has provided, "Curly Top" tells the fascinating story of the curly-headed wif who brings happiness and romance to the millionaire step-father who befriends her.

Always in Mischievous

From the opening scenes in the orphanage where Shirley and her pets, a pony and a duck, are perpetually getting into mischief, the picture quickly flashes to the Southampton home of John Boles, the millionaire who (frees the little girl away from the stern domination of the orphanage.

Accompanying Shirley is her older sister, lovely Rochelle Hudson.
And while Shirley is stealing her way into the hearts of society's bluebloods—even charming the frosty butler—Miss Hudson is winning the affection of John Boles.

Misunderstandings occur, and the romance between Boles and Miss Hudson almost meets an unhappy end. But Shirley, with charismatic charm and ingenuity, manages to bring the two people she loves most together in the end.

Songs for All

Shirley's two songs, "When I Grow Up" and "Animal Crackers in My Soup," are the highspots of the song program. But John Boles gives his usually excellent rendition of two more numbers, and Miss Hudson surprises with an excellent voice in the first number she has ever sung for the screen.

Spike Rumors
Re Building
Of Red Sox

DETROIT, Oct. 2. — The Boston Red Sox board of strategy, here for the World Series, put an abrupt quietus tonight on the talk that they have already gone so far toward rebuilding for 1936 as to offer upward of $500,000 for three or more stars of Philadelphia Athletics, including Jimmie Foxx.

Following up owner Tom Yawkey's reiterated statement that he is no longer planning to spend "big money" for "big names," manager Joe Cronin said flatly the Red Sox do not want Foxx. Not that the Red Sox could not use the slugging first baseman but they do not think Foxx worth the price, reported to be $200,000.

"We would rather spend that kind of money on young players, if at all," said Cronin. The Red Sox would like to get Roger Cramer or Wally Moses, outfielders of the A's, Cronin indicated. He added, however, that no offers had been made to the Athletics.

Bill Terry, manager of New York Giants, has discussed a possible trade with Branch Rickey of the Cardinals but they reached no agreement, said Bill.

"Rickey told me six of the Cardinals can be bought but he was evasive about their identity. He said he would like to have Carl Hubbell and I replied I would like to have Dizzy, the big Dean. That made us even and we got nowhere."

Terry has his eye on Rip Collins, Cardinal first sacker, as well as Dolph Camilli, the hard hitting first baseman of the Phillies. The Giants' field boss, who plans to retire from active play next season, won't hang up his spikes unless he gets a replacement of the calibre of the players named.

TRANSFER INTERNATIONAL

BIRMINGHAM, England.—J.
Berestford, Aston Villa's international inside right, has been transferred to Preston North End in an effort to bolster the Lancashire soccer club's forward line.
Berestford went to the Villa from Middlesbrough in 1927 and last season made 29 appearances in first league games.

Scalpers Are Disappointed

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) CHICAGO, Oct. 2. — Scalpers of World Series tickets were grumbling tonight that the scalps weren't as plentiful as they ought to be.

As a result of their over-estimation of the local "sucker crop," scalpers of two more numbers, and Miss Hudson surprises with an excellent
ever sung for the screen.

EDITOR SUGGESTS CANNED BANANAS

(By The Canadian Press)
MANCHESTER, Eng., Oct. 2. — Fraisers of time-part may find in the rising import of tinned fruit salad another reason for denouncing the modern housewife, who lacks patience not only for cooking fruit but even for mixing it, says an editorial in "The Guardian."

"The substitution of grapefruit in cans for grapefruit in their own jackets suggests a similar distaste against people too lazy to peel and scoop out their own," the article suggests. "As for canned oranges, these (as one might almost have guessed) come largely from Japan.
They will be sending us artificial oranges soon. There seems, however, to be one field in which the fresh-fruit eater can still hold up his head. Nobody is canning bananas on a large scale. Perhaps the reason is that bananas are so little trouble to eat already."
