

THE CAPITAL OF THE WEST

Latest from Summerside and Prince County.

Mrs H. A. Compton left Friday evening on a visit to her sons at Sydney.

L. McGregor has taken the position as teacher of the school at Port Hill.

His many friends are pleased to see J. D. Eoman home again much improved in health. Mr. Eoman arrived on New Year's eve, from the Canadian Northwest.

The polyar phines turned out on New Year's day forming a very creditable parade. Winter communication with all its difficulty was the chief subject represented.

REMNANTS of dress goods and cloths. Our December trade has left us with a lot of short ends of dress goods and cloths, just what you may want to make a coat or skirt or a girl's coat or dress. They are all piled on our counters at interesting prices.—McGougan & Wright.

The yacht Irena recently built by A. E. Baker was hauled to the shore near Clark's wharf yesterday afternoon. This yacht is considered by yachtsmen of the best design ever seen here and is calculated to do fast work. Mr. skill Baker has certainly shown great skill as a designer and builder of yachts and his latest efforts promises to give him a reputation which will be of inestimable value. The new boat will no doubt give other Island yachts all they can do to follow it in next summer regatta.

The Lecture and Bicket Social at Coleman Tuesday evening was a success. Rev. H. G. Gratz of Alberton lectured on Korea. He spoke of the importance of Korea in the present eastern crisis, the history of the country, the people, the opening of the field to the missionaries, the eagerness with which the Koreans received the Gospel. At the close of the lecture, the baskets were sold and a social half hour enjoyed. The proceeds of the lecture and basket sale amount to twenty-eight dollars which was applied to the reducing of the debt on the congregation.

MARKET Hall never was more crowded than it was on New Year's night at the concert given under the auspices of the Presbyterian choir. The program consisted of a chorus by fifty voices, a bass solo by Mr. Stanley, reading by Miss Flo McKenzie, soprano solo by Miss Jessie Sharp, tenor solo by Horace Andrew reading by Miss Ella Sharp, soprano solo by Miss Agnes Wickham, intermission and sale of candy, chorus, soprano solo by Miss Sinclair, saxophone solo by Reginald Stewart, bass solo by Mr. Stanley, and closing with a chorus and God Save the King. Nearly every number on the program was encored. The Boys' Own Band furnished excellent music at intervals. There was no weak number. The entertainment throughout was a thoroughly enjoyable one, and the audience showed their appreciation by hearty applause. Much credit is due Mr. Whitney for the success of the affair, which was far ahead of any entertainment held here for a long time—if ever it was equalled.

We spend large sums of money with the newspapers to attract readers to our advertisements. It is done for our mutual good. If the public knew how well and cheaply we serve them—large as is our business, it would be ten times larger. If they saw how—after our buyers had carefully selected the bargains to be placed on sale—one of our expert salesmen scrutinized every item quoted, rejecting many and cutting down "estimated" values on others—you would more fully appreciate the lowering price value of a newspaper and you would join the great army of readers for profit who daily look up our advertisements.—Jas. There is a SOMETHING about VIM TEA that is to be found in no other tea," said a Saint John lady to a grocer the other day. She did not know exactly what or how to describe the difference, only there was a "something" VIM TEA had that other teas lacked. That something was a little more QUALITY.
