

A Fashion a Day

The Guardian's Special Pattern Service

FOR SCHOOL HOURS

A sophisticated model for the young girl of 8, 10, 12 and 14 years, who adores to wear clothes that are as smart as her elder sister's. This practical little dress of bright and woolen with velvet collar is chosen by the younger fashionables for school hours, because it is so comfortably warm, and smart at the same time. It is a one-piece affair, tucked at shoulder and low neckline, with an inverted plait in- serted at center-front to supply excess for activities of youth. It takes but 1 1/2 yards of 40-inch material with 1/4 yard of 36-inch material to make Style No. 306 for the miss of 8 years. Patterned wool jersey, plain jersey, homespun, velvet, wool crepe, tweed, wool silk printed sateen, cotton broad- cloth and chambray also appropriate. Pattern price 15 cents, in stamps or in coin is preferred.)

We suggest that when you send for this pattern, you enclose 10 cents additional for a copy of our Winter Fashion Magazine, showing all the most attractive Paris styles. Also embroidery and interesting ideas for Christmas gifts you can make.

MONTHLY MEETINGS OF THE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

CARDIGAN NORTH—Institute meeting was held at the home of Mrs. James Wilson for the November meeting. Thirteen members and three visitors were in attendance and a good meeting was the result. Roll Call was answered by the members' favorite flower. A report was given of the first District Com- munion held at Montague. $3.00 was collected for the fixing of the school grounds, and it was decided to have a play presented in Cardigan Hall on Tuesday Nov. 27th. A musical programme was provided. Next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. Frank Campbell.
