TIMELY RESCUE.—A timely rescue was effected last week when Mr. Frank Christopher of the railway employ, pulled Mr. W. Charles Gardner out of a hole in the ice off the railway wharf. Mr. Gardner had been trying his hand at hooking smelts and was returning home when he walked into the opening. Mr. Christopher shouted to him of his danger but Mr. Gardner who is about 75 years old evidently did not hear him.

SAVED FROM DROWNING.—On Thursday evening last Mr. W. Charles Gardner while returning home broke through the ice on the Hillsburgh River and was saved from drowning only by the timely aid of Mr. Frank E. Christopher, of the Canadian Government Railways. Mr. Gardner who is seventy-five years of age had been fishing during the afternoon and on returning home attempted to shorten the distance by crossing that dangerous stretch of ice extending in a quarter mile radius from the western end of the railway wharf around to the Cold Storage Plant. Mr. Christopher was aware of the dangerous condition of the ice at that point and shouted to Mr. Gardner several times but the old gentleman apparently did not hear him. However when about two hundred yards off the Railway Wharf Mr. Gardner walked directly into a large whole which was only slightly scummed over and covered with snow and which had been open a few days previous. Mr. Gardner managed to keep afloat by means of a board which he was carrying at the time until Mr. Christopher having jumped over the wharf and having run out across the honeycombed ice lifted the exhausted old gentleman out of the hole to a place of safety. This manly act on the part of Mr. Christopher deserves commendation as he saved Mr. Gardner at a very considerable risk of his own life.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND ON THE SCREEN.—Yesterday and evening the Prince Edward Theatre exhibited pictures of Charlottetown and Summerside together with a considerable amount of valuable information regarding Prince Edward Island, "the wealthiest province per capita in the Dominion." The pictures were taken by Mr. Berry a few weeks ago and show Charlottetown and Summerside in their winter mantle, but they are none the less interesting and attractive on that account. Some of the leading stores are shown and the Rotary Club at luncheon. Perhaps the two most interesting series of the pictures are those of the Car Ferry crossing to Tormentine in the winter through the ice, and a visit to Mr. Graham Rogers' store and fox farm. These two pictures are exceptionally interesting and are well worth seeing in themselves. In addition to this specialty there are three pictures of an attractive character, the bill of fare at the Prince Edward for the afternoon and evening being exceptionally attractive.
