Church Services

ST. PETERS CATHEDRAL

There were good congregations present yesterday at the 11 o'clock celebration of the Holy Eucharist and at evening. Rev. Canon Malone officiated and preached at both services. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week are Rogation Days, which days are set apart by the Anglican Church for prayer for those employed in industry, commerce, agriculture and the Fisheries. Thursday next is Ascension Day and there will be a choral celebration of the Holy Eucharist in the Cathedral at 7.15 in the Morning and evening at 7.30 p.m. in the Chapel.

ZION CHURCH

Rev. George C. Webster of London, occupied the pulpit at both services and preached two powerful and impressive sermons to large congregations. His morning theme from that beautiful text: Ruth 1:16 was a fitting commemoration of Mother's Day. His evening subject "The Supreme Gift of God" from Eph. 2:18 was a masterly explanation of the fundamentals of our religion. Grace and Faith, the gift of God, Zion will be favored by Rev. Mr. Webster's presence again next Sabbath.

The distribution of awards for attendance and memory work featured the afternoon Mother's Day services in the Sabbath School. Rev. Mr. Webster's message to the children was understood by them as evidenced by the wrapt attention with which they listened to his excellent instruction given in their own vocabulary. Mrs. Elizabeth McLennan gave a very appreciative reading. The C. G. I. T. occupied the choir loft and led the special Mothers Day music. Miss Clair MacMillan's clear musical voice was heard with effect in her solo number.

The regular choir was augmented in the morning service by the male choir who conducted the entire musical program at the evening service with the excellent assistance of Mr. James Calder. The initial appearance of the male choir is a tribute to Prof. Thompson's judgment in the arrangement of the part singers and the balance that made their numbers, particularly "Tell Mother I'll be There" and "Memories of Mother" so effective. Mr. Calder's rendition of that old familiar song: "Where is my Wandering Boy Tonight" was most impressive.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. A. C. Vincent, yesterday, "Mother's Day" spoke to the large morning congregation on "Mothers of Men." His text 1 Sam. 1, 28, "therefor also I have lent him to the Lord, as long as he liveth he is lent to the Lord and he worshipped the Lord there." The new dignity of womanhood is an achievement of Christianity. The history of the Church is glorified with the names of women who have served and suffered and died in the name of the Master. But above all the glories of women the greatest is that of being mothers. Through their influence, to a high degree comes our vision of God, religion, righteousness and duty. In their sacrifice and courage we have been given all that we are or hope to be.

Very appropriate to the subject of the day was the feeling and tender rendering of John Howard Payne's "Home Sweet Home" by Mrs. H. S. Henderson.

The speaker at the evening service was Will J. Greene, the Canadian Secretary of the "Gideons". Mr. Greene spoke eloquently and impressively of the mission of this useful society.

Mrs. G. Elliott Full resumed charge of the organ, executing the duties of the position with her usual efficiency and taste. The flowers of the day were presented by Miss Boyer and Mrs. H. C. Brown in memory of their mothers.

The usual activities for the coming week were intimated, mention being made of the fact that on Wednesday evening Miss Laura Bain would be the speaker, giving an address on mission work in India, and wearing costume of a Hindoo lady.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

There were several pleasing and happy features in connection with the services yesterday. Rev. Dr. Ramsay was heartily welcomed on his return from a short vacation which, it is good to learn, has been beneficial in every respect. The ordinance of Baptism was observed at the morning service when the darling little children of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hodgson and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Johnston were baptized. Then Mr. Elmer Farnell of Amherst, materially assisted in the singing by the Male Choir of 50 voices at the evening service. Mr. Farnell sang most delightfully the solo, "A Dream of Paradise."

But best of all it was "Mother's Day" and flowers adorned the breast of many. The Bellman in the Halifax Chronicle writes: "Thank God for Christian mothers! Yes, thank God too for all mothers! For mother love is essentially the same divine impulse and emotion wherever found. Such mothers are here and everywhere. They are the hope and joy of human life. They keep the world sweet with trust love and young."

Mr. W. J. Green of Toronto, Canadian Secretary of the Gideons Society, gave an address in the morning and chose as his text Hebrews 4-12. "The Word of the Lord is quick and powerful." Mr. Green is a very pleasing speaker and his address was both interesting and instructive as he told of the formation of the Society—details of the work they were carrying on and some instances to show that the work did have results.

The Sunday School is running ahead of previous years in interest, attendance and collections. A striking evidence of the renewed spirit pervading every branch of our work.

Dr. Ramsay preached the special Mother's Day sermon in the evening, taking as his text Isaiah 66:13, "As one who his mother comforteth will I comfort thee." The text memorializes one of the most beautiful offices in the life of a mother—comfort. And it is remarkable that God himself should compare his own gracious and infinite comfort to that of a mother.

The Press reports that the Presbytery of the Wesleyan Methodist Church in Bermuda have requested union with the United Church of Canada and the necessary action has been taken bringing the union into effect. The Church has lost another loyal and faithful member by the death last week of Mr. John Godkin. Mr. Godkin by his will left a suitable bequest for the Poor Fund of the Church.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The morning and evening services had unusual attendances in the Christian Church yesterday and in the evening the building was filled. Dr. Robt. F. Whiston, Provincial Evangelist, spoke at both meetings, and the programs were in harmony with Mother's Day. At 7 p.m. the evangelist spoke on "The Journey of Life," basing his message on the journeys of the Children of Israel, Isaac, the Apostle Paul and Christ. He said, "Conversion is not the end but the beginning, not the arrival but the starting. It may be a spiritual attainment but it is also a spiritual achievement. The Christian life is a sojourn, a journey and a pilgrimage. Isaac was the richest man of his age, and yet he lived in a tent. Why not a palace? Because he recognized that he was just a pilgrim passing through. God was no more with the children in their journeys than He is with us today, and as He numbered the Israelites to know they were all there, so he calleth His own children by name. The witnesses of our journey are the hosts who have passed on and we are spurred onward toward the end by the applause of the Saints of Bible times, who went the way first. James and John had three surnames—they were called 'Sons of Zebedee', 'Sons of Thunder', and 'Sons of God.' John was not the timid feminine character so many seem to know, although he was called the 'Beloved Disciple' and 'Lay upon the bosom' of Jesus. He was a fiery tempestuous man, easily angered, and revengeful. He wanted to call down fire on a city and to prevent others from speaking in Jesus' name because they did not belong to his particular group. But at the end of the journey what a 'Son of God'. Often the strongest men are the most tender."

The minister, W. L. Outhouse, announced that services will continue in the church each night except Saturday, with Evangelist Whiston preaching. These meetings begin at 7.30 closing by 8.45. Both organ and piano are used during the week, with Ruby W. Whiston at the piano and Mr. Outhouse at the organ.

Ralph M. of Boston; Walter, of Queensland, Australia, Will of Vancouver, and Prof. John C. of Owatona, Minn., Mrs. Margeson and Miss Lettie of Berwick. SOUTH LAKE NOTES

Mr. John E. MacDonald, Souris East, was at South Lake and North Lake last week on business.

Mr. Lewis Rose, North Lake, was a recent visitor to Souris.

An item in South Lake Notes in the April twenty-ninth issue, was misprinted and should have read thus: Mr. George Gillis, Bothwell, has gone to join the ranks of the lobster fishermen at East Point again this season. Mr. Gillis has been a fisherman for many years.

Mrs. A. Rose, North Lake, was in Souris recently.

The farmers of this vicinity have commenced their farming operations such as harrowing, plowing, cartings, etc., the land, now being sufficiently dry.

Mr. Russell St. John, Souris East, attended services at St. Columba Church on Sunday, April 3rd.

Mr. Alfred Fisher, South Lake, is assisting Mr. B. Frederick Rose in his agricultural pursuits this spring.

Despite the adverse ice conditions prevailing on that date, the fishermen at some of the factories set out their lobster traps on May 1st. The ice was all driven off a few days later by a heavy north easterly wind.

Some of the farmers of North Lake and vicinity, were busy on Tuesday, twenty-eighth, hauling lime from Elmira.

Mrs. Elizabeth MacDonald, South Lake, left on Tuesday for the United States to spend some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Daniel Montgomery.

Mr. Wallace MacDonald, South Lake, left on the Tuesday morning train for Charlottetown.

Mrs. Hudson Murray, North Lake, was a passenger on the Eastern train to Elmira on Tuesday night.—C

We desire also to place ourselves on record in condemnation of the Liberal administration for their violation of these election promises, particularly in regard to the enforcement of the Prohibition Act. DESTRUCTIVE FIRE—Three barns and the dwelling house of Mr. John Houston, New Glasgow, were completely destroyed Friday night by a fire which originated in one of the barns about 10 o'clock. When the fire was discovered one building was ablaze. The wind carried the fire to the adjoining structures which were soon also in flames. All livestock and farm machinery were destroyed in the barns, and only a small part of the household furnishings were saved. The buildings were situated on high land, and glow of the fire was visible for many miles.

ENJOYED SKY RIDE—Little Miss Jeraldine Hillion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hillion, perhaps the youngest child to take an airplane ride in this city, enjoyed a spin with Captain Keating yesterday in his Moth plane. Jerry, coasting a few thousand feet in the azure accompanied by her dad—and the pilot, thought it great fun—and to use her own words, "I'd like to go up again." Jerry's younger companions will no doubt be quizzing her today on how it feels to be air-minded.

THE MORNING—AFTER—Early yesterday morning there were six empty beer bottles, all within a few feet of each other on the base ball grounds at Victoria Park, some of them being broken. About fifty feet away on the road there was another beer bottle also which contained a significant smell. As liquids of this nature are only supposed in this Province to be used for medicinal purposes, it would be thoughtful of those taken ill and needing so much medicine if they would be good enough to take away the bottles or place them in a position where they will not endanger many young children playing baseball and other games in this beautiful Park. Broken glass is dangerous.

OXFORD MOVEMENT—The Rev. John Kebble preached the famous Oxford Assize Sermon on July 14, 1833. That was the beginning of the Oxford Movement, which restored more fully to the ancient church of the English much of the beauty and reverence of its services, and through its development has powerfully contributed to bring the church as a whole to a fuller and richer conception of its place and function in the eternal purpose of God. It is pleasing to see by the English press that recently a meeting was held at Lambeth Palace, London, which owing to the illness of the Archbishop of Canterbury was presided over by the Archbishop of York to make arrangements for the suitable celebration by the whole church of England of the centenary of the movement on July 14, 1934. Representatives were present from all schools of thought in the Church and preliminary steps were taken to assure the success of the celebration. Another striking example of the closer unity of the Church of England, which of recent years has and is doing much for the union of the Church Universal.

An unavoidable accident is one where all the members of the coroner's jury have cars, too.
