Eastern Guardian

—EASTERN AGENT — Mr. J. W. Murdock is now Guardian agent in Montague and will be pleased to receive news items, advertising, new and renewal subscriptions. .

—HOCKEY.—The hockey fans of Georgetown were treated to an excellent exhibition of hockey at the local arena on Thursday evening, March 24th when the Granites of Lower Montague crossed sticks with the fast clever sextette of puck chasers from Rosneath. The game was featured with many thrills and twice as many spills, as those evenly balanced combinations fought for supremacy. It would be unfair to make special mention of any particular player but for all that the stupendous goal tending of Anthony Donahue was an outstanding feature of a outstanding game. This exceptional guardian of the wire cage fought, kicked, chewed and bit in a fruitless endeavor to stave off defeat. Finally as a last hope he protested to the referee that there was more than one puck in use. The final score Lower Montague 6, Rosneath 4. Referee Albert Sklimer. The free skate after the game was much enjoyed. The young people of Georgetown are loud in their praises of the Rosneath boys who provided this excellent evening's entertainment for all. This is only one of the many times that those boys have shown themselves as being sports of a high order.—A.

New Firm for Charlottetown

Extensive alterations and repairs are at present being made to the building lately occupied by Wheatley & Company on Great George Street. This valuable site has been recently purchased by Messrs. Notting Bros., of Dartmouth, N. S. who are establishing a branch of their business in Charlottetown. This firm is well known in automobile circles in the Maritime Provinces.

They will handle two makes of cars in Charlottetown, i.e., Oldsmobiles and Chryslers. An attractive show room will soon be ready for these cars in the Great George Street Building. A full line of parts for both makes of cars will be kept in stock at all times. A service station will be maintained by the firm at the rear of the show rooms. The service upon Oldsmobiles and Chryslers will be under the direction of an expert mechanic on these makes.

Mr. J. A. Gillis salesman for the firm is now in the city. He is making his home at "The Russ." Mr. Gillis states that he expects the first shipment of Chrysler cars on or about March 31st. The first shipment of Oldsmobiles has arrived and have been the object of much favorable comment by all who have had the opportunity of examining them.

Messrs. J. H. and G. Gordon Notting are brothers of Dr. E. S. Notting of this city.

profit comes to R. A. Brown, C. N. R. station agent at Salisbury, who is largely interested in fox breeding.

Among the lot sent by Mr. Brown to the London sales a few weeks ago one of the skins sold for 83 pounds ($403). There were over 9,000 skins offered at the big sale and Mr. Brown's fox pelt beat them all.

Even Rice Hurt Stomach, Says Girl

"I had indigestion so bad that I was afraid to eat anything. Couldn't even eat rice. Adierika has done me so much good that now I eat anything. I have taken a lot of medicine but Adierika is the best."—Ardenta Howard.

Adierika gives the system a REAL cleansing and brings out old poisons which may have caused trouble for a long time. Unlike most medicines, it acts upon BOTH upper and lower bowel. Just one spoonful relieves GAS and takes away that full, bloated feeling so that you can eat better and sleep better. Even if bowels move daily, Adierika brings out much additional poison which you never thought was in your system and which caused sour, gassy stomach, nervousness, sleeplessness, headache. No matter what you have tried for your stomach and bowels, Adierika will surprise you. Hughes' Drug Co., Ltd., and other druggists.

Empire Educationists Gather In London Soon

LONDON, March 30.—The Prince of Wales hopes to be present at the opening on June 20 of the Imperial Conference on Education which meets again after four years in London. Delegates, who are all professional educationists, or officially connected with educational administration, will attend from all parts of the Empire.

The long and varied agenda divides the subjects to be discussed into five groups, which cover every phase of education, especially in its relation to conditions in the dominions.

Both the moving picture and broadcasting figure in the "New Ideas and Developments" group of subjects on the agenda. Their discussion should produce results of particular value.

Natives Kill Three Members of British Expedition

LONDON, March 30.—Captain West, of the British army, and two members of his expedition into Northern Burma to free slaves have been killed by natives, according to advices reaching the India office. The dispatches say the expedition was attacked by natives. Captain West and two native members of the expedition were killed. Three others were wounded and an interpreter is missing. Reinforcements of military police have been sent to the district.

Elephant Seized For Debt

(By British United Press)
VIENNA, Mar. 30.—A Viennese Bank is about to become the proud owner of Bimpfi, a fine African elephant, which is at present the guest of the Zoological Gardens in Schoenbrunn.

Bimpfi belongs to Count Franz Khuenhueser-Metsch, a noted Austrian big-game hunter and explorer, who brought it home from one of his African expeditions.

The count was granted a loan by the bank in 1919 to purchase estates in Jugoslavia, but after repeated applications, the bank was unable to recover the money, and was not able to serve county court orders owing to the count's absence in Africa.

Finally the bank obtained an execution order from the court, but discovered that the count's dis-trainable property in Austria was confined to forests—and Bimpfi. It was decided that it would be easier to realize on the elephant, and it was announced that bailiffs will appear in Schoenbrunn to attach the body of Bimpfi in the name of the law, and put it up to auction.

"Who wants a pet? What offers?"

Delightful Trip

The many friends of Mrs. John Richards and Miss McCollum will be pleased to learn the following particulars of their trip, dated Sunday, March 28, 1927 in the Mediterranean Sea.

We left New York on the 23rd of Feb. just at the tail end of a big storm which had stirred up a heavy sea of the Atlantic. For a few days we had quite a little roll on, enough to send many of the passengers to the seclusion of their cabins. Am glad to say Miss McCollum and I have proved to be good sailors, and we have enjoyed the voyage very much.

Our first stop was at Casablanca, Morocco, where we spent a day. The weather was warm and balmy as we neared the African coast, and we enjoyed an auto drive and a walk through the city of Casablanca. It is a big place of one hundred and eighty thousand population of a mixture of French, Arabs and Negroes. A very fine harbour sheltered a number of large ships. We enjoyed looking at the people, and never have I seen human beings so dirty or clothed in such rags as one sees when walking along the streets of Casablanca. It seemed like a blot upon the really fine city, for these unfortunate creatures were not confined to slums, they were everywhere.

An all night's run from Casablanca brought us to Gibraltar, where we anchored early in the morning. A beautiful summer morning it was too, and the 5th of March. A large tender took us to the pier where we hired an auto and started on "our most interesting sight seeing excursion. Gibraltar is a very attractive old town, with its narrow, crooked streets of cobblestones and its splendid shops. The views as one drives about are simply superb. It was interesting to see so many British war ships and submarines, besides a great number of large ships from different parts of the world. Almost hidden among the rocks and foliage is a little cemetery where are buried those who fell in the battle of Trafalgar. Three thousand is the usual number of soldiers stationed at Gibraltar, but just now there are only one thousand, two thousand have been sent to China.

In the afternoon we hired an auto and drove 25 miles into Spain to the little town of Algeciras. This is a favourite winter resort, and is famous for its delightful climate. Algeciras has the finest hotel in Spain, and the situation is ideal overlooking the sea and the great Gibraltar fortress. We spent some time in the hotel and the lovely gardens, where there seemed to be every variety of flowers, shrubs and ornamental trees.

We are now at sea again, and on Tuesday the 8th instant we are due at Palermo, Sicily, where Miss McCollum and I will leave the ship and spend a short time before going to Italy. Weather continues beautiful, like our June.

"Only twelve hundred a year, bath, four rooms and two closets." "Is this one of the closets?" "No, sir, this is the dining room."

Mother: "Is it only twelve o'clock?"

(Wise Son: "That's all it ever gets, Ma. After that it begins with one again.")
