This widow has NO FINANCIAL WORRIES

During his lifetime, her husband set up an insurance estate with the Confederation Life from which she now receives a cheque for $100 every month.

To leave your wife a guaranteed monthly income, tell us how much you think it should be, and we will tell you how much insurance you should own. It is surprising how large an income a small amount of life insurance will provide.

Ambulance Driver Recalls Great War

TORONTO Nov. 13 (CP)—Mrs. Hugh Heston, a slim 16-year-old at the time of the first Great War says ambulance driving at the front will be pretty much of a cunch this war compared with the trials of cranking and directing the "funny old crates" of the 1914-18 models.

bers of the war ministry in England. "Thin aluminum goggles with slits to peer through and a heavy coat were the drivers only protection against the sleet, rain and snow," she recalls. "There were no mechanics, no orderlies to ride behind with the patients and the only light was the feeble flicker of oil lamps behind green glass."

Presentation

A very enjoyable evening was spent on Tuesday, October 31st, when a large number of neighbors and friends from surrounding districts gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacPherson, Darlington, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Hodson Jr. (nee Vivian MacPherson) York Village, Maine, who with Mr. John A. MacPherson, Portland Maine, are spending a short vacation on the island. It being Mr. Hodson's first visit to P. E. Island, he will not soon forget it. Mr. Elphalett Howatt in a few well chosen words expressed the purpose of the gathering and called on Mrs. Elphalett Howatt to read the following address while Mrs. Angus MacLean presented Mr. and Mrs. Hodson with a well filled purse both of whom thanked the donors for their gifts. After singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows," the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing music being supplied by Mr. Harry Yule. Luncheon was served by the ladies and an enjoyable evening was brought to a close by singing "Auld Lang Syne." All departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hodson much happiness.

Following is the Address: To Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Hodson Jr.—As we your friends, have had no opportunity of seeing you since your marriage we gather here tonight to offer our congratulations and wish you much happiness, also to give you a Prince Edward Island present. We are sorry your stay is so short so we might have a chance to know Mr. Hodson better, but vacations come every year and we will be seeing you again.

To you Vivian we have always been glad to see you back. Of course the island boys felt a little sore at first to think that you preferred a "Yankee" boy to them, but they all join us now in saying they are glad you have got a home of your own, and some one to love you when you're old. We imagine that home is a real home for we know you will be so good to him he will have to be seeing you.

We have here a little gift, please accept it and get something for your comfort, so when you use it, you may have good thoughts of P. E. I. Now we wish you happiness and very much joy. Not every year a girl or a boy but when twins come! Won't it be Creamy and Grammy will go in high state. But let come what may be happy and gay. Auld Lang Syne and please do not say To take Daddy Dione's fame away.

FAMILY BEREAVED—Mrs. Manson McNeill, Tryon, and Mrs. D. A. Manson, Alberton, were recently saddened by the death in Santa Ana, California, of their brother-in-law, Dr. Palmer Ross Reynolds, Message Coast. Only one half hour, (Angina Pectoris). Many older residents of Cape Traverse will regret to hear of his passing as he and his wife formerly Anna Manson of Cape Traverse made frequent visits to her island home. Dr. and Mrs. Reynolds ever since their marriage have resided in California.

MISSIONARY MEETING—The Cape Traverse Woman's Missionary Society held their meeting on Thursday, November 2nd, at the home of Mrs. Harper, with the president in the chair. The meeting opened with quiet music and the hymn, "Breathe On Me, Breath of God," followed by prayer and the Lord's Prayer in unison. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Twenty members responded to roll call and seven visitors were present. Following the business discussion the Scripture lesson from the third and fourth chapters of Jonah was read by Evelyn Bell. A duet, "The Kingdom Is Coming," was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Harper and Mary Luttart. The theme for this meeting was "Our Response to God's Missionary Purpose." The India Prayer was used, conducted by the president and Mrs. Gordon Harvey, showing the transforming power of Christ on the under-privileged masses. "O God Our Help in Ages Past" was sung, followed by a most earnest, inspiring and helpful prayer by Mrs. J. H. Lord. The presentation of a Life Membership Certificate to Mrs. Ralph MacCaull by her husband, Mr. Avard Bell, was a very beautiful and important part of this meeting. On behalf of the Auxiliary, the president thanked Mrs. Bell for her fine gift and the beautiful Christian spirit which prompted it, pointing out that it should be an example for others to be more willing to sacrifice for the Master's cause and kingdom. Mrs. MacCaull made a very fitting reply. She said that there was no gift she would prize more highly and that she would cherish it, both as a gift from her aunt and as a link with her former church, Cape Traverse. The collection was taken and the meeting closed by singing "Hail To The Lord's Anointed," followed by the benediction. A pleasant social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Harper served delicious refreshments in her usual kindly manner.

WAR RELIEF

National Red Cross War Drive For $3,000,000 Commencing November 13th

HOW is this money to be spent? The charter of the Canadian Red Cross Society sets out the objects of this great cause as follows:

"In times of peace or war to carry on and assist in work for the improvement of health, the prevention of disease and the mitigation of suffering throughout the world."

Last year the sum of $1,000,000.00 was collected to finance the peace-time work of the Society. Today, because of the greater needs of war, three times that amount must be raised. Peacetime activities cannot be neglected and the programme of war relief must be initiated at once.

Consideration of the many aspects of Red Cross work in 1914-1918 gives some indication of the programme that will have to be undertaken in the present war.

HOSPITALS AND NURSES

Hospitals must be built and equipped in England and France to care for the Canadian sick and wounded. During the last war the Canadian Red Cross built and equipped (wholly or in part) hospitals at Taplow, Bushey Park, Ramsgate, Bexhill and Buxton in England; built and equipped one of the largest military hospitals in France; and established a depot in Boulogne for Canadian hospitals.

AMBULANCES

From 1914 to 1918 the Canadian Red Cross provided scores of ambulances to convey the sick and wounded in France and England.

MOTOR LORRIES

The Canadian Red Cross in France maintained a service of motor lorries to ensure the conveyance of Red Cross supplies with the greatest possible dispatch wherever needed.

SURGICAL SUPPLIES AND MEDICINES

X-Ray equipment, surgical apparatus, supplies and dressings must be purchased almost immediately. During the last war, 147,270 cases of supplies were sent to hospital units in England, in addition to supplies for hospitals in France. £2500 was contributed to equip a ward in the St. John Ambulance Brigade Hospital at Etaples in France.

FOOD AND COMFORTS

Again the Red Cross wishes to be able to send socks, cigarettes and other comforts to the front. During the last war, 341,325 cases of supplies were sent overseas. The Society sent sixty pounds of food per month to every Canadian prisoner of war, in addition to tobacco, medical supplies, clothing and books.

INFORMATION BUREAU

The Information Bureau set up at the London office rendered personal services to thousands of soldiers. Hospital visitors supplied Canadian patients with extra comforts and entertainments and reported their progress to relatives at home, and their needs to the Society. The Enquiry Department constantly searched for news of "missing" men to relieve the suspense of distant relatives.

A corps of voluntary workers will make a canvass of as many donors as possible during this drive. If one of these workers fails to get in touch with you, send in your contribution to your local Red Cross Branch. Give big-heartedly.
