—AN EXPLANATION—I would direct your attention to an article published in your paper regarding my cheque to the P. C. Hospital for $100 in settlement of a case, between Colin Smith, of Ellerslie, and myself. There are some statements in that article that are absolutely incorrect and I would ask you to publish a correct statement of what took place. The note states that "realizing the futility of litigation I opened negotiations for a settlement." The truth is the facts. The case was not to come up at the present term of the Supreme Court at Summerside, but at a later date before a jury, and Colin Smith, realizing the futility of litigation, to be tried before a jury from Prince County, especially the western part, sought negotiations for a settlement and offered, through my attorney, to call off the case if I would pay the $100 referred to as well as his expenses, which no doubt were considerable, as lawyers, doctors and photographers do not work for nothing. I positively refused to pay any part of his expenses; but did not object to paying a worthy institution like the P. C. Hospital $100 and this I agreed to do, and he has been well satisfied to pay his own expenses. The note also states that "Colin Smith, not looking for any personal advantage, suggested the payment to the Hospital." If this statement is correct, it is strange that he had served me with a writ of $100 which must have added considerable to his expenses. It had been told at different times by those who are not in the habit of telling the truth and whose voice we seldom hear on the right side, that I had on several occasions sought to settle with him. I never did at any time approach Colin Smith for a settlement, either directly or indirectly. I am, Sir, etc., H. D. Smith.

MRS. E. E. MESSERVEY

There passed away at seven o'clock Sunday evening at her residence 154 Pepperell street, Halifax, Mrs. Edith Eugene Messervey, one of the most highly respected and well known residents of the west end.

Mrs. Messervey was the widow of the late W. E. Messervey who was for many years a prominent city official and widely known member of the I. O. O. F. Mrs. Messervey was taken seriously ill about twelve weeks ago against which the best medical care and attention could not prevail and she passed peacefully away Sunday evening. She is survived by five sons, Albert G., Harry D., Frank W., of this city, Walter A., in New Brunswick and Clyde and Ontario; and four daughters, Mrs. J. W. Livingston, Windsor, N. S.; Mrs. R. S. Carll, Fredericton, N. B.; Mrs. E. A. Rhuda of this city and Mrs. W. H. Smallwood, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Mrs. Messervey was for many years a prominent member of Brunswick street Methodist Church but on moving to the West End eleven years ago became a member of Oxford street Church. She will be ever remembered by every organization connected with this Church, more particularly the Ladies Aid for her cheerful assistance and active co-operation in every movement for its welfare. She was also for many years an active member of Rebekah Lodge being one of its Charter Members. Being possessed of a most cheerful disposition and the Christian spirit of giving she will be greatly missed by its members and many personal acquaintances far and near.
