NEW ROCKET FUEL

CANBERRA — (CP) — A new form of explosive for propelling rocket motors has been produced by Commonwealth scientists who are doing experimental work for the Australian rocket range. The explosive was produced through research into the suitability of nitro-cellulose for use in service projectiles.

C. W. L. MEETING AT ST. TERESA'S

The meeting of St. Teresa's sub-division of the C.W.L. was held at the home of Mrs. Thomas E. Durphy with an attendance of eighteen members and several visitors. The president, Mrs. Peter McKenna presided. The meeting opened with prayer by Fr. Croken. A circular was read by Fr. Croken on the scholarship for young Catholic girls. He pointed out what a helpful course it was and encouraged the League members to put on entertainments to raise funds to help out this worthy cause. It was decided to send $30.00 to the scholarship fund. A new Alb was to be bought, also to do something to help sick members of the parish. A Driver of this light panel truck died instantly when it was struck by a car and plunged off the road and into a tree on the side of highway near Peterboro, Ont. Body of the driver, Thain Barker, of Hastings, Ont., was imprisoned in the wreckage. Crowbars were used to remove the body.

Llewellyn-Young Wedding

A pretty autumn wedding was solemnized in Kingsboro Baptist Church, Wednesday afternoon, October 19th, at 2:45, when Miss Margaret Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Major R. Young, Red Point, was united in marriage to S. Spencer Llewellyn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Llewellyn, Montague. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H.R. Bell, pastor of the church. The wedding music was played by the church organist, Mrs. Clinton Stewart.

The church was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and leaves and the guest pews were marked with miniature bouquets with white ribbon bows.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, by whom she was given in marriage, looked charming in a floor length gown of white satin with net yoke and sweetheart neckline and fashioned with a bouffant skirt and fitted bodice and long fitted sleeves ending in points over the fingers. Her full length veil fell softly from a coronet headpiece of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and maiden hair fern with long pink satin streamers. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls.

Mrs. Robert Dixon, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and was becomingly gowned in a floor length dress of pink taffeta with net overskirt and matching headpiece and mittens, and carried a nosegay of white baby mums. Miss Selma Llewellyn, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and looked equally charming in a floor length dress of turquoise taffeta with net overskirt and matching headpiece and mittens, and carried a nosegay of mauve baby mums.

Mr. Frank Greene, Montague, very capably performed his duties as best man and the ushers were Mr. Ross Young, brother of the bride, and Constable C.F. Curtin, Toronto.

During the signing of the register, Miss Florrie Beaton, Montague, sang very sweetly "I'll Walk Beside You".

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where a buffet lunch was served to sixty-five guests. The bride's table was centered with a beautifully decorated three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. The cake was cut by the bridal couple in the traditional manner.

Tea was poured by Mrs. L.A. Johnston, Montague, and those serving were Mrs. Carl Boehner, Montague, and Mrs. Charles Ching, Mrs. Washington Young, Miss Loretta MacDonald, Mrs. Theodore Robertson and Mrs. Alexander Robertson, Red Point. The toast to the bride was proposed by the groomsmen, Mr. Greene, and responded to by the groom.

Receiving with the bridal party were Mrs. Major Young, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Richard Llewellyn, grandson of the groom. Mrs. Young wore a dress of wine silk crepe with wine hat and black accessories and a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Llewellyn chose a black crepe dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of tallman roses. Mrs. Archibald Llewellyn, step-mother of the groom, wore a blue suit with matching accessories and a corsage of American Beauty roses.

His many friends will regret to learn that Mr. W. A. Johnstone, Montague, has entered the King's County Hospital where he will undergo treatment.

Miss Roma Dunning and Miss Phyllis MacNeil, student nurses at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, spent a few days at their respective homes in Montague.

Miss Betty Ann Beck, who has been at the hospital in Montague for the past three weeks, has returned to her studies as a student nurse at the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

The motor vessel "Beatrice P." arrived in Montague on Thursday with a load of ballast from Sydney, N. S., for Poole & Thompson. The vessel will take on a cargo of produce from local exporters before returning to Sydney. The ship is under the command of Captain James Cruickshank.

A large congregation was in attendance at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, on Sunday evening when Remembrance Day was fittingly observed. The service was conducted by Rev. F. N. Young and appropriate hymns were sung. A solo "Ninety and Nine" was rendered by Mr. J. E. Dunning, and the choir sang the anthem, "A Song of Peace", arranged from "Finlandia".

Mr. Vernon N. Hodson, Charlottetown, was a visitor to Montague on Tuesday in connection with the promoting of Christmas Seal sales in this locality. Mr. Hodson also visited several other localities throughout King's County to show to the general public the many projects financed through the sale of such seals, and the enormous good which had been accomplished during the past few years in dimples and a corsage of American Beauty roses.

Following the reception, the happy young couple, amid showers of confetti, left by car on a honeymoon trip through the Island. For travelling the bride wore a two-piece dress of royal blue moire taffeta with black accessories, and blue top coat, and a corsage of yellow roses.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn will reside in Montague.

Vulard Family Reunion

An event of interest to many Islanders was the reunion of the Vulard family, which took place at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Townsend (Elsie Vulard), Wasaga Beach, Ont. The mother of this large family, Mrs. Catharine Vulard is in her 87th year and is well and active. She was the oldest daughter of John and Mary Summers of St. Peter's Bay, P.E.I. Mrs. Vulard is the mother of thirteen children of which eight are living, and all were together again. This family has not been together since 1918 when one of the boys went to France but did not return.

inspiring the toll of tuberculosis. It is the hope of the committee that the success which has been so great in the past, will be again forthcoming this year.

New Glasgow And Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Lavitt and little daughter of Charlottetown are temporary residents of Highland View Farm.

Mrs. Horace Ling has returned home after being on a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Wright and Mr. Wright and family.

Mrs. Ella McCoubrey has returned home after enjoying a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Brookins and Mrs. Brookins.

Mrs. Murray Orr and two children enjoyed the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Whitlock.

Mr. Vernon Hill who has been confined to his home here, with a severe attack of tonsillitis, returned to his position in Summerside last week. He is an employee of Bay-side Construction Co. of Campbellton, N. B.

Mr. John O'Connor of Hope River who enjoyed a two months visit to friends in Western Canada during the past summer has returned home. He reports that great changes have taken place in the West the past number of years. Binders, threshers and the plough have all been replaced by the swather, the combine and the tiller. The return trip was made by rail, C.P.R. to Montreal, C. N. home. Mr. O'Connor thinks the West is the young man's country with their healthy climate and the best soil in Canada.

The Sunbeam Mission Band met in the United Church on Saturday afternoon. The president led the meeting which was opened by singing hymn, "Praise Him", followed by repeating the purpose and prayer in unison. Marion Stevenson read the scripture lesson from St. John's gospel. Shelia Dickson led in prayer. Minutes of previous meeting read and adopted. Roll call answered by fifteen members. Treasurer gave her report. Marion Stevenson invited members to her home for a November 15. Offering was received by Chester Moffat and Freddie Andrews. The chorus, "Bring your gifts to Jesus" was nicely sung, followed by "We Give Thee But Thine Own". The leader, Mrs. George Gough then introduced Miss Beryl Morson who is a missionary from India on furlough, and is enjoying a visit in her native land. A number of adult visitors as well as smaller ones were present, and listened with rapt attention, while Miss Morson, "attired in a native dress of India" gave an illustrative talk on the life in that country. She showed articles of clothing, jewelry, also pictures of different Gods which they worshipped, which was all very interesting. Her talk left a challenge to the youth, to go as a missionary to that great country. On behalf of the Band Mrs. Gough extended thanks to the speaker. Meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.
