JARVIS—MACNEIL NUPTIALS

One of the prettiest autumn weddings to take place for some time was celebrated at East Point on November fourth, when Mr. Henry Jarvis of Munn's Road, led to the altar Miss Evelyn MacNeil of Elmira Station. The bride entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Mrs. James Holland, Elmira. The happy couple were assisted by Miss Laurena Jarvis, sister of the groom, and Mr. Henry MacNeil, brother of the bride, who looked charming in a princess dress of purple velvet with collar of old lace and fox fur, the gift of the groom, while her maid of honor wore mauve satin with a collar of point lace. Both carried bouquets of late sweet peas and asparagus fern, and during the signing of the register Mrs. Wallace E. MacDonald, South Lake, sang very sweetly "O Perfect Love." The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion by girl friends of the bride with autumn leaves and flowers. After a delightful drive around the country the bridal party drove to the home of the groom where a reception was held for the immediate relatives of the happy couple. Little Misses Dorothy MacNeil and Eileen MacDonald, wearing yellow crepe dresses attended the door, while Mrs. MacNeil, mother of the bride, wearing black cut velvet and Mrs. Jarvis, mother of the groom wearing midnight blue satin, assisted the bride in receiving. The happy couple were the recipients of many valuable and useful gifts, chief among them being a racoon coat, the gift of the Elmira Women's Institute. This is the second coat of this kind those good ladies have given to a bride from their neighbourhood. Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis will reside at Munn's Road.

SALMON CANNERS EXPECT GOOD YEAR

VANCOUVER, Nov. 7.—British Columbia's salmon canners look for good world markets and firm prices for this year's pack in spite of reports from London that 1,000,000 cases of Russian salmon will be sold in the United Kingdom. The world pack of 1930 is much below average, amounting to 8,900,000 cases as compared with 10,049,000 in 1929 and 18,639,888 in 1928.

Of the 1,280,800 cases of Asiatic salmon going to the United Kingdom, only 20,000 cases are produced or controlled by the Soviet government. The balance is the property of Japanese packers working in Siberian waters on Soviet concessions. The Japanese are not inclined to cut prices, according to information received by British Columbia operators. Suggestions that the Russian pack will depreciate prices in Great Britain are therefore discounted here. The total from Asiatic waters is no more than for several years past.

The British market averages 2,000,000 cases a year from all sources, and British Columbia operators look for their usual share of the present prices.

The French market, averaging 500,000 cases a year, will get only 80,000 cases from Japanese waters under the preferred duty granted Japan. The Japanese pack in Siberian waters and the United States pack pays a maximum tariff, while Canada enjoys an intermediate tariff which will give even greater advantage than usual.

Canadian domestic demand for canned salmon is increasing. British Columbia companies report as much business in three months since July as in the whole of the 1929 packing year, and look for a total Canadian consumption at least eight per cent greater than last year.

In his remarks at the luncheon to the Deputy-Lieutenants of Aberdeenshire at the House of Cromar on Monday, the Earl of Caithness suggested that as Lady Aberdeen had been a pioneer in the Onward and Upward movement her ladyship might in a sense be regarded as the originator of the W. R. I. (Women's Rural Institutes).

His lordship did not state that Lady Aberdeen was the actual originator of the W. R. I. As a matter of fact, it is quite thirty years since the W. R. I. movement was started by Mrs. Watt, a Canadian and it was brought to Great Britain in 1912.

When I scratched it water came from it and the eczema spread until nearly the whole side of my limb, below the knee, was covered. Later it became dry and scaled over, and the irritation kept me awake nights. I had it more or less for twenty years.
