GEN. CARDONA'S ARMY PRACTICALLY INTACT.

(Canadian Press Despatch) WASHINGTON, November 2.—Reassuring news came from Rome today in official despatches. While serious, the situation on the Italian front is described as far from desperate, General Cardona's army is declared to be practically intact, and complete confidence is expressed in his ability, with aid coming from the Allies, to stop the Austro-German drive.

(Canadian Press Despatch) ROME, November 2.—Thwarting the plan of the enemy by the rapidity of their promptly decided upon movements and by the brave resistance of the covering units which have detained his advance," reads the official statement, "our troops have effected the withdrawal on the Tagliamento in spite of the extremely difficult strategical and other conditions. The first and second cavalry divisions and especially the heroic regiments of Genoa and Novara, and the untiring aviators are worthy of mention to the admiration and gratitude of the country. Last night enemy airplanes brutally bombed several unprotected towns far from the line of communication, causing a few casualties amongst the civilian population."

SECRET BALLOT USED IN GUARDIAN CAMPAIGN

No Information Can Leak Out Regarding Standing of Various Contestants—Names and Judges Soon to be Announced

In a few days The Guardian will publish the names of the men who will act as judges in the automobile prize campaign. The men selected by the Charlottetown Guardian will be prominent citizens of Charlottetown and vicinity whose integrity will insure a square deal to every candidate.

The final counting of the ballots will be in the hands of the judges, and neither The Guardian nor the campaign department will have anything to do with the final count.

On the last day of the campaign the ballot box will be sealed and placed in the hands of the judges. All votes cast on the final day will be in secret, no one except the person depositing them will know how many votes are being placed in the ballot box.

ENTER TODAY AND WIN.

New candidates are starting to work daily and have announced that they will be able to gather a large number of votes in the coming week. It is surprising how many friends are being made over the telephone every day and never before has any newspaper in this Province caused so much interest among its readers. Every vote clipped from the paper by your friends will count; but ballot given with subscriptions are what cause figures opposite the name of candidates to go upward with leaps and bounds. Get your friends to subscribe and give you the votes. The first thing you know you will be at the top with the leader.

Remember the old saying: "Every little bit added to what you have makes just a little bit more!" That trite saying is one that all candidates should continually keep before their eyes, and in no other way can candidates show that they are interested than by bringing in votes daily. The secret of all success lies in grasping an opportunity when it appears. This may be your opportunity to obtain a magnificent compensation for a few weeks effort.

Subscription blanks, letters to send to your friends and instructions how to win are to be had at the office. Call or phone 132-2.

In this way no information can leak out to the advantage of any candidate and the disadvantage of any other.

Candidates will place their subscriptions together with the amount of money for same in envelopes, seal the envelopes, and write their names on the outside.

The envelopes will then be deposited in the ballot box and no one will have access to it until the judges break the seal at 10 o'clock on the last night of the campaign.

The secret ballot is used so that each candidate will be assured that no one aside from himself will know how many votes he casts the last day. In this way no one will be able to tell until after official count by the judges who the winners are.

The general public as well as the candidates and their friends will be invited to the judging as everything will be open and above board.

SELECT YOUR CANDIDATE.

Select your favorite Candidate. Then cut out the Subscription Blank on the inside of this paper. Fill it out and send it direct to the Campaign Manager of the Charlottetown Guardian and your Candidate will receive the votes on same. If you are in arrears send that in, as it will entitle the Candidate to the votes just as an old subscription.

In that conclusion the Globe finds itself in the best of company. The Globe stands with the Union Government for the winning of the war, and for the dedication to that great cause of the country's wealth and resources, as well as its manhood."
