will go to college.....

...this one may not. WHY?

His father intends to send him but—

An Imperial Educational Endowment Policy would Guarantee the money

He may die before he can complete his plans—he may not have the money when his boy is ready for college—other demands on his resources may step in and say, "No."

Of course, you want your boy or girl to be trained and equipped for a successful business or a professional career. The prizes in life go to the well trained mind.

In the Imperial Educational Endowment Policy you have a definite contract with us that the money will be available, whether you are here or not. The annual deposits are low and there are many other advantages.

Your boy or girl is well worth this very tangible expression of your wisdom. Write for particulars of how it can be done.

—MRS. BASSETT OF ST. ELEANORS PASSED AWAY—There passed away on Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sweet, St. Eleanors, Mrs. W. K. Bassett, who before her marriage was Miss Amy Best. The deceased was only 22 years of age, but had been ill for nearly eighteen months. Her sweet disposition and wonderful patience through her long illness won for her the admiration of all who knew her. She had many friends who called to see her and their pleasant visits helped along many weary hours. There are left to mourn her husband, who arrived home from Boston, Mass., last evening, her mother and one brother, Ernest Best of St. Eleanors, to whom sympathy is extended. The funeral takes place this afternoon at the home at two o'clock, to the cemetery at Lot 16.—S.

FREAK WEATHER IN FRANCE

France is getting "imported" weather which it does not enjoy. The French tradition speaks of March showers, but this year the rain descended in April instead of in March. May weather also has been out of line. Observers say that the change in weather is due to unusual wind currents blowing from other countries.

While actions become easier and easier by repetition and are converted into habits, mental impressions unacted upon become feeble and feeble.—Butler.

Laird for her assistance. Mrs. Stevenson replied in a fitting manner. Short speech by Rev. H. S. Bishop. The singing of Auld Lang Syne brought the enjoyable evening to a close. Following is the address. Dear Mrs. Bishop: We deeply regret the fact that you and Mr. Bishop have decided to change your sphere of labour and in common with your many friends we would wish you happiness and success in your new field. We shall miss you in our Mission Circle for any success we have attained has been due to your interest and resourcefulness. You have been unsparing of your time and energy in seeking to inculcate in us the missionary spirit and have shown us many practical ways of assisting in this work. Our earnest wish is that emulating your example may be able to carry on the work you so well begun. May this little gift remind of the occasions we have met together and of your friends of name sake Mission Circle. ELLA SEMPLE, Hon. MARGARET HOWATT, ANNA STEVENSON, Miss Musa Stevenson, New Glasgow, is visiting in Milton, guest of Mrs. O. W. Campbell. Rev. J. M. Murchison of St. N. B., is at present visiting the land and working in the land of the Bible Society.
