Oh, yeah?

SCOOP — Children rush to scoop out hot coals from underneath the locomotive as the train stops for a few minutes. Embers will be used for heating purposes by the chilled, hungry refugees, who huddle together for protection against chill November winds.

EVACUATION EXPRESS — As Jap troops converged on Luchow from the north, south and east, the long-suffering Chinese civilian population prepared to flee. For weary thousands, no transportation could be provided. A lucky few, shown in these remarkable photographs taken by NEA-Acme cameraman Frank Cancellare for the War Picture Pool, crammed every inch of space on a freight train loaded with human cargo. They clung to their babies, to a few scraps of food, to such pathetic luxuries as the parcel shading the youngster huddled close to the smokesack. From locomotive to caboose, wherever their fingers could hang on, refugees clung to the train.

Canadian Fliers Worship in France

Members of an RCAF Typhoon wing in Normandy recently marked the simultaneous decoration of three squadron commanders with an early morning church service at one of the dispersal points. Often called the "assistant chaplain" (upper left) LAC Walter "Tiny" Reave, 194 Maple Street, Timmins, Ont., the padre's personal driver, gathers the hymn books and the Union Jack pupit cover at the close of the service which was held in a harvested wheat field with a Typhoon as background and empty gasoline tins and ammunition boxes as pew. In the top centre Squadron Leader Herbert E. D. Ashford, MBE, 1413 Snelgrove Avenue, Calgary, the wing padre, leads the singing of a hymn. Sometimes the congregation's singing is drowned out by the roar of aircraft taking off or landing. The commander of the wing, Group Captain Paul Y. Davoud, D.S.O., D.F.C., Kingston, Ont., reads the Group scripture lesson in the top right. "A wing and a prayer" is suggested by the bottom left picture. Another section of the congregation is seen singing in lower centre and in the lower right Sgt. M. E. McRady, transferred from Vancouver, plays the portable organ and to his right is the first baritone, Cpl. "Lefty" Heim, cook from Kitchener, Ont. — (RCAF Photos).
