

STOCK NOTES

Wm. McGrath, Covehead Road, has sold his beautiful driving mare to W. S. McKie, Charlottetown, for a large sum.

Owen Trainor's pacing stallion, record 2.20, as a three year old, arrived in Charlottetown yesterday under the care of Fred Cameron. He stood the long journey from Indiana remarkably well and in a few days will be as fit as when he left his native heath.

Fred Cameron the well known horse trainer arrived in Charlottetown yesterday with a four year old pacing stallion record 2.20 over half mile track as a three year old. Fred has been employed by the Hopper Stock Farm Indiana, Ind., for the past year and has been instrumental in giving a number of their stock fast records. He is looking hale and hearty and is busy greeting old friends.

Horsemen and others interested in stallions, are requested to write us and receive free a proof of twenty-seven (27) magnificent cuts of stallions, etc., etc. A postal card will bring them together with sample "Horse Cards" and prices, and full particulars as to the best way to see your stallion publicly. Address, The Charlottetown Guardian, 4-181rt.

The Holstein bull "Gibson Boy," owned by Roy Jones, Hazelbrook, was brought to Charlottetown on Monday's train. This is one of the finest animals that has been bred in this province, tipping the scales at the great weight of 2350 lbs. Previous to his becoming the property of Mr. Jones he headed the Holstein herd of Wm. J. Gibson, Marshfield, from whom he was purchased by the Hazelbrook Farmers' Institute and then sold to Mr. Jones who by good feeding and attention has brought him to the high standard now attained. Mr. Jones has great faith in the Holsteins as dairy cattle and has now a young imported bull of choice breeding to head his herd which are chiefly high grade Holsteins. His friends wish Mr. Jones every success with this noble breed of dairy cattle.

KEITH'S MAGAZINE FOR MAY.

Some delightful ideas for the builder are described and illustrated in Keith's Magazine, published by Max L. Keith, Minneapolis, Minn., just received. The picturesque loveliness of a bungalow is aptly told and how to furnish it, while the plan is plainly mapped out and prices quoted as to the cost. Things new and old for bedroom furniture and Berry low built and furnished for two interesting articles while the bungalow built and furnished for two thousand dollars makes interesting reading, brim full of suggestions. Right through the magazine appeals to the home builder and for outside decoration schemes is unsurpassed. How to remodel old houses is an up-to-date subject, and should appeal to all intending builders. The publisher would be pleased to send a copy to any address and the magazine is worthy of a prominent place in every home improvement and home comforts are the leading topics the year round.

In addition to the "Missionary Mock Trial" the program for Monday night's entertainment in Grace church will consist in part of vocal solos by G. E. Ritchie and Prof. Barlow. Reading by Mrs. Westmoreland and organ selections by Prof. Watkins. It will be an evening most pleasantly and profitably spent. Tickets 25c. 5-242t.

Tonight Frank T. Watkins will repeat in St. James' Hall, Charlottetown, the piano recital which he gave on April 11th. The repetition is made, not for financial benefit to Mr. Watkins, nor for that of the Young Men's Literary Society of the Church, under whose auspices the recital will be given, but purely for educational and pleasure-giving purposes. One of our leading musicians, who has had advantages and experience, and who has heard the best pianists of the day perform, has stated that Mr. Watkins' last performance was very favorably up to the standard of such eminent world-known pianists as Hambourg, Reubenstein and Moskow skf. He states that Mr. Watkins may well claim position among the most eminent pianists of the day. We trust, therefore, that the public of Charlottetown will avail themselves of this opportunity of hearing a musical treat, which it will be privileged to hear. The cost of admission is nominal. Encourage artistic progress and the endeavors of the Y.M.C.A. of St. James' in furnishing such superior entertainment by attending the recital tonight.

IN MEMORIAM

Today The Guardian announces the passing away of Mrs. Peter McGuigan at her home, South Melville, on the morning of the 23rd April in the sixty-sixth year of her age. Although deceased had been suffering for some time from an injury received, bright hopes of her recovery were entertained, and her death was a painful surprise to her many friends. During her illness she was greatly cheered and soothed by the attendance at her bedside of Dr. McGuigan, Emerald, who ministered to her every want with all the solicitude of a devoted son, but the best medical treatment, aided by skillful nursing, unavailing to check the progress of the insidious disease which claimed her for its victim. Mrs. McGuigan was an esteemed and respected member of St. Joseph's Parish. Her cheerful disposition, kindness and true friendship endeared her to her many friends, while in her home ever brightly shone the good qualities of the model wife and mother. Throughout her illness she had the happiness of being comforted and consoled by the ministrations of her good pastor, Rev. Dr. Curran, and fortified by the last rites of Holy Church her spirit went forth to her eternal reward. On Thursday, the 25th, her remains were followed by a large funeral cortege to St. Joseph's Church where Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Dr. Curran after which interment followed in St. Joseph's Cemetery. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband, two sons—Dr. James D. Emerald, and Leo at home, and one brother, Michael Duff, Charlottetown, all of whom have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement. The pall-bearers were—Thomas Malone, Patrick Hagen, Charles Dunsford, James E. McQuaid, James Gorman, John Bradley. May her soul rest in peace.

It pays to buy in this Province!

There were no cases before the police court in Charlottetown yesterday.

Wm. H. Batt, Charlottetown, was among the passengers returning on the Northumberland last evening.

The schooner Blanche M. Thornburn is discharging a cargo of Sydney run of mine coal for C. Lyons & Co., Charlottetown.

His many friends will heartily congratulate William M. Brehaut, of the Post Office Department, Charlottetown, who has received promotion to second class.

Noah Garthum, of the C. G. S. Earl Grey, now lying at Pictou, was among the passengers returning on the S. S. Northumberland last evening. He will attend the funeral of his nephew, the late Willie Garthum, who died Tuesday.

Yesterday morning at eight o'clock the tug William Aitken left Charlottetown for Cape Traverse in connection with repairing the broken Anglo-American Telegraph cable. No word was received from her at the Charlottetown office but as conditions were favorable it is expected that she arrived there about noon and commenced work immediately.

"Human Hearts" was presented for the second time in the Opera House, Charlottetown, last evening to a fair sized audience. The presentation was equally as good as the first night and was most pleasing to the audience. Vinnicombe's orchestra was in attendance at both performances and was particularly pleasing in rendering a number of excellent selections before the play and during the intervals between the acts.

The Peoples Theatre, Charlottetown, has again secured for its production one of the most highly priced films offering in the photo-play "Camille." The notable feature of this film is the fact that the part of Camille is taken by Sarah Bernhardt, the greatest actress of the world of a time. Every one knows the tale, a masterpiece of Dumas', supreme dramatic scope, fascinating in its pathos and passion and presenting a picture of life the more wonderful because of its foundation of truth. For posting for this film alone the Divine Sarah received $100,000.

Yesterday morning the remains of Miss Ethel Margaret Owen, daughter of the late Thomas and Mrs. Owen Cardigan, who died recently in Quebec, were forwarded to Cardigan for interment, accompanied by the deceased's sister (Dr.) Watts, Boston and Dr. Watta. The deceased was a young lady who had won much distinction as a nurse, having graduated a number of years ago from the recent American Hospital and Medical Institutions, studying her profession in practically all its branches with marked success. About six years ago, after having been for two years Lady Superintendent for the Hospital for the Insane at Faltonwood, removed to New York, and later proceeded to Quebec where she continued in the practice of her profession. She died there very suddenly after an illness of but one week, an operation proving unsuccessful. She leaves to mourn besides Mrs. (Dr.) Watts, the following sisters: Mrs. D. C. Morson, Cardigan; Mrs. H. L. McDonald, Calgary; and Mrs. William Knight, Souris. Two brothers predeceased her.

A good audience greeted the show at the Peoples Theatre, Charlottetown, last evening and thoroughly enjoyed the program featured, Mlle. Blivette, in two musical numbers, was given well merited applause. The headliner of the motion pictures was Love and Lemons, a reel that will be enjoyed by anyone. The other films were strong western pictures, the one entitled Mountain Law portraying the good results of a young man's resolutions, and The Substitute, a drama in which a girl does a man's work and proves herself a worth witnessing.

Word was received yesterday morning of the death of Mrs. Alexander Martin, at Valleyfield, Queen's County. She passed away about ten o'clock in the forenoon. The late Mrs. Martin was a daughter of Donald McKenzie, of Orwell Cove and was married to George Martin, our years ago to Mr. Martin, ex-M.P. She had been ill for some months and all that medical skill, tender nursing and loving care could do, was bestowed upon her. But she gradually failed and this morning her spirit took its flight to Him who gave it. The late Mrs. Martin was a Christian lady of fine character and lovable disposition. The numerous friends of Mr. Martin throughout Queen's County and the entire province as well as many others, will deeply sympathize with him in his sore bereavement.

"Formalin is the king of preservatives. You should use this preparation in preparing your ground beef for sewing. It prevents smut on wheat and oats and scab on potatoes, and will pay you for its use in cleaner, better and bigger crops. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."
