Bristol And Vicinity

Death struck quite suddenly for a third time in a very short time in this vicinity when Mr. Edmond Barry was called in death last week. Mr. Barry suffered a stroke on Sunday and passed away a few days later. He was unmarried but leaves two brothers to mourn his passing.

Last week this column stated Miss Mary Stott had taken up teaching duties at Sinnott's Road. This should have read South Lake School.

A number of teachers from this vicinity wrote the Civil Service exams at Charlottetown last week and several have already gone to Ottawa.

Mr. Raymond Jay, who has been employed in the Metropolitan store at Charlottetown for some time has answered the call to the Air Force and has left for training in Upper Canada. He was presented with a letter, during a recent absence of Dr. A. E. Dafe, their government-appointed physician.

Fishermen who follow the lobster fishing industry are busy getting their gear ready for the season.

Mrs. Arthur Aldershaw was in the City Saturday on business.

Mrs. John F. McInnis was in the City a few days last week the guest of Mrs. B.W. McEwen. She also visited her son John at S.D.U.

Mr. F.R. Nause, bank manager, Morrell, was in the City over the week-end on business.

The condition of Mrs. Frank Kelly in the City Hospital, remains about the same.

Friends of Mrs. Gerald Barry will regret to hear of her serious illness at her home here. Her husband Pie Gerald Barry has arrived home owing to her illness and the sudden passing of his brother Ed.

Mrs. Ted Anderson has arrived home from visiting her husband and other friends in Halifax. Her husband who is in the R.C.N. came to Halifax to visit his wife while she was there.

The Misses Mabel and Mary O'Brien spent the week-end in the City as did Miss Reta O'Brien.

Miss Rena Pigott, teacher at Church Road spent the week-end in the City while writing the exams for the Civil Service of Canada.

Miss Margaret McDonald, City spent a few days at her home here last week visiting her mother before leaving for Ottawa, to visit her sister who is employed in the civil service there.

Miss Ethel McInnis, and her sister have left for Montreal, where they expect to be employed.

The funeral of the late Edmond Barry, was held Saturday to the Church of the Little Flower where high mass was celebrated by the pastor Rev. T. Len McKenna, who

CHERRY VALLEY SCHOOL CONCERT

On December 23, the pupils of Cherry Valley School put on a splendid Christmas concert in the hall. In spite of bad roads and several neighbouring entertainments the same night a large crowd assembled. Miss Olive Ings was organist and helped make the program more enjoyable. Mr. T. Jenkins, who capably acted as chairman, announced the following:

Chorus, Old Santa Claus. Recitation, Welcome, by Verna Ings.

Recitation, My Christmas Gifts, by Craig Matheson. Dialogue, Here Comes The Bride, Motion Song, by Four Girls.

Recitation, After Christmas, by Everett Murphy. Reading, My Brother's Sweetie, by Douglas Huggan. Christmas Acrostic.

Dialogue, The Mock Marriage. Recitation, by Eleanor Huggan. Duet, by Olive and Dorothy Ings (encored). Instrumental Music by Elmer, Olive and Dorothy Ings. Sing Song, by pupils.

Recitation, by Marjorie Ings. Dialogue, Organizing a Society. Solo, by Verna Ings (encored).

Recitation, My Dolly, by Margaret Murphy. Dialogue, Concert Party. Reading, A Complaint, by Raymond MacIsaac.

Recitation, The Fall of the Monarch, by Louis MacDonald. Chorus, Santa Claus. At last Santa Claus arrived, and distributed from a well laden tree to pupils, teacher, and audience.

National Anthem brought the enjoyable program to a close. (No mention was made of the Demel dispatch from Bangkok said Thailand declared war on the United States and Great Britain to-advance into Burma by 100,000 Thai troops massed along the border. The news agency said the Thai forces were directed to carry out their operations in co-operation with the Japanese. Teiji Tsubogami, Japanese ambassador at Bangkok, was quoted as saying "the British raid on Bangkok last night is the immediate reason for the declaration of war today."
