

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

STUDENT boarders wanted—see classified column.

THERE will be preaching at Ulag tomorrow at 11 a. m., and at Eldon at 7 p. m., conducted by Henry McKenzie.

A RETURN of the wet weather resulted yesterday in preventing a large attendance at the market, which would have undoubtedly been the case if roads were good. Very few people came in from the country.

OWING to the almost impassable state of the roads D. MacLean will not preach at Churchhill on Sabbath the 30th inst., but will preach (D. V.) in the People's Church, Charlottetown, on that date at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.

THE Guardian greatly regrets that it failed to advise its readers in last Saturday's Guardian that the failure to publish in that issue several of its special features was owing to extra work in connection with Christmas advertising.

THE Rev S. Weston Jones, formerly rector of St Paul's Church in this city has written a letter from Stoke-on-Trent, England to his former congregation of Windsor N. S., which place he removed to after leaving Charlottetown. The letter has been published in the Hants County Journal, Windsor N. S.

BELIEVING that the best is none too good, The Guardian has made arrangements whereby it will in future furnish its readers each Saturday with the famous Buster Brown comic page which is published by so many of the leading newspapers throughout America. Old and young will find it interesting to watch for it in every Saturday issue.

AT the close of the half-yearly Examination of Anglo Ruslo School, on Friday 21st Dec. the pupils presented their teacher Miss Lucy A. McLure with a complimentary address read by Miss Gladys Craswell, and a purse containing a sum of money presented by Miss Lottie Houston. Miss McLure replied thanking the pupils for their kindness and valuable gift, etc. etc.

PETER A McPHAIL, a native of West River, P. E. I., died in East Derry, Mass., last week, at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. T. Inman, aged 95 years, 3 months and 3 days. The direct cause of death was pulmonary tuberculosis, and the contributing cause was exposure, his illness being of about one year's duration. He was a stone polisher by trade. He was the son of Dugald and Effie McPhail, and his father and sister, Mrs. Inman, reside in East Derry. He is also survived by one brother.

PROCEEDINGS looking towards the recovery of $10,000 for libel were commenced yesterday by the filing of writs in the court house in the action of Frank J. Clarke, of Calgary, but formerly of Orwell, against the Daily News Publishing Company and the Columbian Company, both of New Westminster. The action is based on an article that appeared in the papers last month stating that Clarke had unearthed a system of graft in Calgary, and that he had accepted hush money from the grafters and was getting out of town. He asks $5,000 from each defendant.

SCRIBNER'S for January has been received. To the lover of magazines opens up a literary vista for 1907 abounding with pleasurable anticipation. A new novel by Mrs. Wharton is introduced by the leading chapters and these show that Mrs. Wharton one of the most talked about books has not lost her power to charm and interest readers. Henry Van Dyke writes delightfully of A Holiday in a Vacation. Of the other contributions making up the attractive table of contents it may be said they are selected with a rare skill, and maintain the well known leading position of Scribner's in the world of literature.

ON Dec. 16, 1906, the grim reaper Death gathered to the Heavenly Garnet an old and highly respected lady in the person of Mary McDonald beloved wife of George McPherson of Newton Cross. During the early summer she contracted pneumonia from which, although able to be about her household duties she never fully recovered. About a week previous to her death pneumonia again set in and notwithstanding all that the best medical skill, a devoted family and kind friends could do, he strain proved beyond her strength and her spirit took its flight. All through her illness she was never known to complain, always upheld by a strong faith in Christ her Redeemer. The deceased was of a kind and amiable disposition adored by her family and loved by her friends. She leaves to mourn a family of five sons and two daughters viz: Mrs. Albert Ross, Vernon River; Mrs. Harry Dwyer, Soudon B. C.; Daniel at Roxbury, Mass.; Neil, Malcolm, John and George at Newton Cross. The funeral to Belfast Cemetery on Tuesday was very largely attended. (Cont.)

ON Monday, December 31, a special train will leave Summerside at 8 o'clock a. m. for Charlottetown; returning will leave Charlottetown at 3.20 p. m. This is for the purpose of affording those along the line an opportunity to attend the New Year's market in Charlottetown, and transact other business.

A. M. GILLIS, Athens, Oregon, returns next week from a visit to his old home in Gasfield. Mr. Gillis has been absent 25 years and while home met his brother John D. of South Africa, who is also visiting his brother's place. John D. Gillis intends returning to South Africa in the course of a short time.

DISTRICT Division, No. 4, S. O. T., meets with Triumph Division, No. 62, North Wiltshire, on Saturday, January 6th, at 2 p. m. A public meeting will be held on the evening of 7, at which collection will be taken. J. A. McDONALD formerly a well known cheese maker in this Province has been successful in winning the two cash prizes offered by the Dept. of Agriculture of the Province of Saskatchewan to butter-makers whose work for the season was most satisfactory. This was done by the Department to encourage the industry. Accompanying the prize is a cheque for $75. Mr McDonald has been away in the Province for over a year.

THE crew of the steamer Beatrice, wrecked at Cranberry Head, Sydney, and likely to be a total loss, arrived at Halifax on Tuesday. A number of Dartmouth people were financially interested in the Beatrice. People in Charlottetown who became acquainted with the crew and officers of the steamer will be glad to learn that they came safely through their recent shipwreck, although it is feared the Beatrice is in a bad way.

AT St. James' Hall last evening the children of the Sunday-school was entertained to a Christmas tree party, at which there was a large and happy gathering where enjoyment was the prevailing feature. The youngsters were filled with admiration of the handsomely decorated tree which contained so many gifts for them, and the Christmas party will be something they will remember for a long time. All connected with this delightful function are to be congratulated on its success.

Prowse Bros. Ltd. CHARLOTTETOWN'S BIG DEPARTMENTAL STORE

—1906-1907— Hearty Christmas Greetings!

To all our Customers and Friends —WE WISH— The Compliments of the Season!

A WORD OF APPRECIATION

THE year which is about drawing to a close has been a notable one in the history of this store. Wonderful strides have been taken—great advances made—until today we occupy the proud position of being "Charlottetown's Greatest Store."

To our many customers, who, by their kind patronage have made these things possible, we extend our sincere and hearty thanks.

During the year upon which we enter shortly we aim to still further improve this store—to make it even more popular with the buying public and still more of a credit to Charlottetown.

OUR BROAD POLICY.

By offering greatest variety of choice in the different Departments of our store.—By ensuring unfailing courtesy and prompt attention on the part of our salespeople.—By giving at all times, best possible values.—By adhering to our broad "Money Back if Wanted" policy.—We hope to merit a full share of the confidence and patronage of the Public.

Overlooked Some body?

PERHAPS in the wild rush of pre-Christmas days you overlooked some friend? Why not make amends by sending something dainty and pretty for New Years? We suggest something in dainty Neckwear or Belts—as sure to please—with the added attraction of being easily mailed in event of your friend being abroad.

Quite a large order of Christmas Belts and Neckwear—delayed in transit—arrived Monday and some exceedingly dainty articles of the sort are here to choose from. Not missed or remnant offerings but dainty, 25c to $1 60 fresh, and clean.
