Father Morrissey's Remedies Now On Sale

Arrangements Completed to Supply His Famous Prescriptions to All Who Need Them

It was a severe loss to his Parish and his friends when the beloved priest passed away last spring, but the loss would have been even heavier to the world had his remedies perished with him.

But fortunately Father Morrissey had reduced his best prescriptions to formulae. These were known only to the priest himself and to the druggists who put them up.

The remedies are still known by their old names: "Father Morrissey's No. 7," for Rheumatism and the Kidneys; "No. 10," a splendid Cough mixture and Lung Tonic; "No. 26" for Cough and "Father Morrissey's Liniment." They can be had from any store where medicines are sold, or from the Father Morrissey Medicine Co., Ltd., Chatham, N.B.
