

"25 per cent off all straw matings in stock. This we are doing to clear this line. There are some short ends and we will make the price so low that you would not miss out of your purse what it would cost to cover your floor, bring the size of your room. Jas. Paton & Co. 3-5drft.

Remnant Sale commences this morning at 9 o'clock. Be early. Beer & Weeks. 3-8drft

"The time is now. The new goods are here, thousands of yards of new dress goods and silks opened this week. At Paton's 3-8drft.

"The time to buy silks is right now when the stock is complete. We have silks fit for a Queen, just in time for your dressmaker, and you will have no excuse to blame her if you don't get it on time. Paton & Co. 3-8drft.

There is a Difference

Scott's Emulsion is the original Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil and has been the world's standard for 35 years.

There are thousands of so-called Emulsions, but they are cheap, worthless imitations and never half as good as the standard. They are like thin milk.

Scott's Emulsion

Is like thick, rich cream. It is a concentrated food-medicine of the most beneficial sort. You can make it thin with milk or water, but don't buy the thin, worthless imitations.

THE PRINCE COUNTY GUARDIAN

Offices in Summerside, in and in Alberton, Office Late W. T. Burrows, Herbert Clark, Agent.

—The latest news, first of all.

—Rev. Mr. Young, O'Leary, was in Summerside yesterday.

—L. B. McMurdo, Newcastle, N. B., formerly of Alberton, was in Campbellton, N. B. last week.

—Up to last evening the number of exhibits for the Provincial Seed Fair far exceeded last years entries at the same date.

—Miss Helen Smith, Pleasant View, Hampton, has been spending a well earned and very pleasant short holiday with friends in Cape Traverse.

—The Rev Edwin Simpson, Quincy, Ills, son of the late Sam'l Simpson North St Eleanor's, arrived in Summerside yesterday by the afternoon train and will remain some time with his mother and his many friends at the old home.

—The beautiful cup donated by the Charlottetown Business College for the largest and most creditable number of exhibits in the household science Dept., at the Provincial Seed Fair is on exhibition in the office window of Thos Andrews, Summerside.

ANOTHER CANADIAN ANTHEM.

(Words by the Rev. R. Stewart Paterson, London—Music by M. Calixa Lavallee.)

Queen of the West throned 'neath the northern star
From Cape Breton e'en to Vancouver far
Thy borders stretch from sea to sea
O'er leagues of virgin soil,
Where prairies wide and forests free
Await the sons of toil,
God of our fathers hear our prayer,
Take our loved home beneath Thy care
May our dear Motherlands all blessing share.

Oh, Canada! Land of our eastborn sires,
Sons of fair France, sons too of British shires—
Thy standards wreathed with fleur de lys,
With maple leaves and rose,
Waive now by river, lake and sea,
To Rocky Mountain's snows,
God of our fathers hear our prayer,
Take our loved home beneath Thy care,
May our dear Motherlands all blessings share.

Canadians! Glance at your glorious past,

—John Dickieson, having severed his connection with The Guardian's Summerside Branch, this paper's headquarters will be in the office of the late W. T. Burrows, Summerside, and a representative from the head office in Charlottetown will look after the best interests of The Guardian's many customers and friends. 3-7drft.

—Happyland theatre had last night one of the best shows that has yet been put on in Summerside. They have changed things considerably in order to give their patrons the best shows that can possibly be put on. They are running three reels of films every night and putting on two illustrated songs. Judging by the applause last night when Miss Jean Arling sang, Come be my Sunshine, Dearie, and Wilfrid Gallant, The Ivy and the Oak, certainly look the house by storm. Happyland will put on nightly three reels of pictures and two illustrated songs by Summerside's two best singers. 3-8dl.

In prosperous days are your lots now cast?

Fear not the future—trust your God, who gives with open hand, And spreads His bounteous gifts abroad
Throughout a grateful land,
God of our fathers hear our prayer,
Take our loved home beneath Thy care,
May our dear Motherlands all blessings share.
