KENSINGTON OPEN AIR RINK.—The "Frost King" has been working a 24 hour shift for the past few days on Kensington's open air arena. If the weather keeps cold, it is expected there will be skating by Christmas day. This large skatorium, which afforded such fine healthful recreation during last winter to citizens of town and country has been remodelled on the western promenade, which will afford a better view to spectators. The local hockey team are getting in shape with daily physical exercises in order to show up creditably against all opposing teams. K.

MANY HAPPY RETURNS.—A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. D. L. and Mrs. Lowther, North Carlton, on Saturday, Dec. 19th, it being the 77th birthday of Mrs. Lowther. A large number of relatives and neighbors gathered for a surprise party and it was a delightful one to the aged couple. Mr. Lowther is in his 82nd year and is hale and hearty. Letters and cards arrived during the day from the absent children and grandchildren and were much appreciated by Mrs. Lowther. After a pleasant evening of music and social chat a dainty lunch was served by the daughters and grand daughters. The party broke up at a late hour and all left wishing Mrs. Lowther many happy returns of the day.

PROWSE BROS LIMITED

WE ARE OPEN EVERY NIGHT UNTIL CHRISTMAS

JINGLE BELLS.—The merry jingle of sleigh bells yesterday took the place of the familiar chug chug of the automobile. The snow fall of Monday afternoon made a nice bed of snow and although the roads were a little heavy many got out their sleighs and came to town. However there are some complaining about the autos not sounding their horns, who should learn that bells are necessary on sleighs. Today and tomorrow should be two of the biggest days in the business life of Summerside.

PERSONALS.—Mr. Peter D. Molver, Kinkora, was in Summerside yesterday. Mr. Jeremiah Gallant Mount Carmel, was among visitors to Summerside yesterday. Mr. James Dunphy, Kensington, left by Saturday a. m. train for St. John, N. B., where on Saturday. On their way from the his brother Daniel is an officer of the St. John police.

Mr. Major Carruthers, Augustine Cove, was among those in Summerside yesterday.

Mr. M. T. Lambie Springfield, was a visitor to Summerside yesterday.

Mr. James Winchester, a farmer of Lot 16, was in town on Saturday on a buying trip.

Messrs Bern Connolly and George M. Cahill, Bedeque were recent visitors to Kensington.

Misses Anna Sheen, Freda Cotton, and Florence McKenzie, Kensington, who have been attending Charlottetown Business College, are spending the Christmas holidays at home.

Miss Dorothy Carmichael, Carleton, spent Sunday in Chelton as the guest of Miss Gladys Murphy.

Mr. John Connolly, Bedeque, motored to Charlottetown on Sunday.
