THE CLEVELAND MEETING

Grand Circuit For 1924 Will Open At North Randall Today

(Special To Guardian)
 CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 1.—The Grand Circuit of 1924 will open at North Randall today. Twenty events are programmed for the five days racing, the leaders so far as value is concerned being The Edwards for 2:08 pacers, The Ohio for 2:08 trotters, and The Texas for the 2:12 trotters. Each of them call for $5,000.

Forty-two horses were named in The Edwards when it closed in February. A few of them have fallen by the wayside but so many have remained in that it may be necessary to race it in two divisions as was done in 1920 when Red Lancelot and John Henry won and last year when Lambert Todd and Hal Bee finished in front.

With only training form and what few hints could be picked up at the half-mile track meetings to go on there will be considerable guessing when the time comes to select a favorite. There will be starters from all points of the compass and each will have a following.

New England will be represented by Anokis, last year's Bay State star, Colonel Eldwell, Margaret Spangler, which has been in 2:07 1/4, and Sparkie. Murphy has Baron Worby, Dixie Direct, Don McGregor, and Iskander to pick from. The converted trotter can step in 2:03. That is with a quarter of a second of the record to the race which was made by Prince Loree in 1921.

Dick McInnes has Hollywood Hilda and Trampalane in this race. The last named worked as 2:06 last half in 1:01 1/4 before leaving Lexington. Fred Egan also has a stout representative in Gilded Lady Second, if she is in trim after a slight sickness during which he was forced to let up on her work. In addition to the above Cox has Peter Bradford and the Great Chance, and Marvin Childs the western queen Ribbon Cane that was defeated by Ruth Volo at Canton and Frank Manager at Cranford.

The Edwards will be raced on Monday. The Ohio is the feature for Tuesday. In it Trumpet will make his first start with Murphy up. For rivals the Eteawah gelding will have Jane the Great, Prince Bondsman, Marmaduke, and Valentine has been winning on the half-mile tracks, Steve Bond, Sister Ruth, Sylvie Brooke and that fast but uncertain quantity Guardian Trust.

 The Tavern for the 2:12 trotters will be raced Thursday. Etta Drake will make her first start in 1924 in this race. As there were forty-four horses originally named in it she will have plenty of company. This group includes Coleman, a winner this year, Fair May from the Good Time Stable, either Hindougan or Kernel from Ben White's outfit, Ah Boy from Beau Ideal Farm, and Rochelle Maid, Suzanne will also start. Before leaving Lexington she worked a mile in 2:06, last half in 1:02. This is the filly which when racing as Gulf Breeze kept The Senator very busy in the May Day Stake at Lexington and defeated Min at Hude Park in 1922.

The three year old race for pacers will be decided the same afternoon. One of the starters is the cross gelding The Farmer. He was sold for $7500 a few days ago after working a mile as 2:07. On public form this youngster has the edge on the other candidates but that has not always brought home the bacon on race day.

The first three years old trot of the season will be decided Wednesday. It will bring out the Rainy Day stake winner Trux in the colors of the Calumet Farm, Athalia from the Good Time Stable, and Tom Taggart's fast colt Colonel Bosworth. Ben White will start either Eria Guy, Tulip Frisco or his own filly Progressive. The Cleveland delegation will be represented by Gloria and The Buckeye. Lullwater Farm will send Tipple Frisco to the post.

This event will be sandwiched with the 2:03 Sweepstake. In it Charwarby, the old reliable from the Murphy stable, will meet Periscope, Favonian, Ethelinda, Cupid's Albinen, and Walter Sterling. It will be a fast race.

Mr. James Currie Presents Trophy For 18 Footers

The C. Y. C. are holding a race for 18 foot class this morning at 10 o'clock.
 As there is usually plenty of wind in the mornings at this time of the year, the yachts are expected to cover the course well within the time limit. About ten starters are assured.

The interest in this race will be great, and when the gun is fired for the start, it will be one of the most exciting races ever seen on the harbor.

Mr. James Currie has donated a handsome cup for a series of races between the 18 footers, and the most exciting will be the first of the series.

The donating of this cup by Mr. Currie shows his splendid sportsmanship and interest in the yacht race game and it will tend to stimulate the interest among the yacht owners who are taking part in the races.

SAYS FIRPO IS A PATRIOT

BUENOS AIRES (by mail to United Press).—Luis Angel Firpo's decision to return to the United States and fight Harry Wills, or some one else, was not due to the fact that around half a million dollars is waiting to be garnered by him in the north. It was really taken, as the opinion of his friends, to offset the growing impression among his countrymen that the Bull was losing sight of the "glory to the fatherland" by loafing around and waxing fat in Buenos Aires.

While Firpo is a hard bargainer and extracts the last cent of value from the money he accumulates, he is, on the other hand, more observed by the idea that he is an Argentine patriot, than he is by the ambition to become rich. Friends pointed out to him that Chilean fighters were acquiring fame in the north, and were taunting him with cowardice in refusing to fight again. At the same time, and after Tex Richard had broken off negotiations with "The Bull," the Uruguayan football team in the Olympic games in Paris won eternal glory for La Patria and received thousands of cables words of praise in the Argentine newspapers.

In the matter of patriotism, Firpo is super-sensitive and dead in earnest. Those who know him best, often are surprised by the extent of this feeling, and believe he would sacrifice his chances to make more money for a decisive victory over Chile's best representative of any other Latin, or Anglo-Saxon nation. The fact that many of the natives who follow him about, fawn or flatter or try to make money out of him—which latter they have lamentably failed—are quite "international" in their feelings, apparently has not influenced the "Bull of the Pamperos."

Although Argentina gave him birth in poverty and reared him in hard knocks, and all his money has been made in North America, Firpo's love of his homeland is the greatest passion of his life, and about his only continuing ambition. When he realized that the Argentine was about to finally class him as a "slacker" and that henceforth could not boast of the "fearless Bull," Firpo was glad enough to accept Richard's proposition to return and fight.

Whether Firpo is a better fighter than he was when he met Jack Dempsey may be open to question, for since his last fight here—when he trained hard and was in excellent condition—he has lived a soft and easy life, but there is no question but what he returns to the United States with much more confidence in himself than he has when he met Dempsey. He believes he can win, and he is not a coward and will do his "durdut."

The Argentines feel that Wills is only an incident in the "Bull's" career toward the championship, and there is no doubt but the local betting on that fight will run high with big odds on Firpo. Should he lose, there will be a lot of bankrupt patriots down here.

The Oil for the Athlete—in rubbing down, the athlete will find Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil an excellent article. It renders the muscles and sinews pliable, takes the soreness out of them and strengthens them for sprains that may be put upon them. It stands pre-eminent for this purpose, and athletes who for years, have been using it can testify to its value as a lubricant.

"My goodness!" remarked the old gentleman as he stopped the young lad with the fine catch of trout. "You've had a very successful day, young man. Where did you catch all these fish?"
 "Just walk down that path marked 'Private,'" directed the boy, "cross the field with the notice board saying 'Beware of the Bull,' and keep right on till you come to a notice 'Trespassers will be prosecuted.' A few yards further on there's a fine pool in the river marked 'No fishing allowed,' and there you are, sir!"

Don Cable of Montreal, a discus thrower, who has qualified for the Olympic games.

GOLF

Saturday was somewhat showery but a mixed foursome Handicap 15 hole match was played in the afternoon, notwithstanding weather. Sixteen pairs were drawn for this match, and two pairs Miss R. Longworth with Mr. A. B. Cosh, tied with Mrs. Miles and Mr. V. Saunders for first place with a net score of 72. On playing off, Miss Longworth and Mr. Cosh won.

Great interest is manifested in this double fixture as the above mentioned teams have been practicing hard for the

EPINARD IS COMING OVER

French Thoroughbred Scheduled To Sail This Week.

(United Press)
 NEW YORK, June 30.—Epinaud, peerless French thoroughbred, is scheduled to sail from France July 4th aboard the Cunarder Berengaria.

Pierre Wertheimer's great horse comes to this country to meet the best of our turf in a series of three match races. It is to be hoped that if they have no other good effect, the races will promote good feeling between horse owners and breeders of the two nations.

With increased facilities for transporting four footed champions there is no reason why horse racing should become as international a tennis or golf, as a more limited scale.

Epinaud was a real champion last year. He was beaten, but only under crushing imposts. The colt's record was a magnificent one. This year, Epinaud has not done so well, but Wertheimer is confident it will show to advantage on American tracks, which he inspected when he was over here on business last year.

The French colt has not the temperament with which Papyrus, the 1923 Epsom Derby winner, was credited. Less elaborate arrangements have been made aboard the Berengaria for shipping the horse. Everything that can be done to make his voyage more comfortable has been seen to, however.

WIMBLEDON, June 30.—Miss Suzanne Lenglen, world's woman tennis champion defeated Mrs. Elizabeth Ryan, former Californian in the Women's singles of the Wimbledon Tournament today only after one of the hardest battles in her career on the courts. Miss Ryan took the second set and relinquished the third, only after stiff resistance. The French girl won by a score of 6-2, 6-8, 6-4.

Miss Helen Wills of United States defeated Mrs. Colgate 6-4, 6-0.

IN THE FINALS

W. Crocker of Montreal, a finalist in the Ontario Provincial tennis championship singles and doubles.

Since the United Press last obtained a consensus of trainers, breeders and owners on the subject, no outstanding American colt has stepped his way to unchallenged supremacy of our turf. Some good ones have shown from time to time, only to be beaten in their turn.

Grey Lag, the champion of 1921, and still a great horse last year, was secretly "pointed" for a meeting with Epinaud by Sam Hildreth. The taciturn trainer would rather win with Grey Lag, whom he considers the greatest horse he ever trained, than with any of the others. Zev disappointed in several races in June.

Bracdale has been doing some good running; Mad Play, too, Black Gold disappointed in a Kentucky trial. Chilhowee won some fast races; so did Hephastus.

"That's our best horse, Mr. Wertheimer, bring on your Epinaud!"

The French colt lost this year to Sir Galahad III, and was beaten in a stake race, but still showed form above that of other European steeds. Wertheimer's horse now is four years old.

SUZANNE WINS 35 STRAIGHT IN TOURNEY

English Tennis Experts Find French Girl's Performance Marvellous.

LONDON, June 30.—As Suzanne Lenglen disposes of each fresh opponent in the Wimbledon tournament the newspaper lawn tennis critics show intensified interest. Never before, perhaps, have they been so impressed by the French girl's marvellous tennis, which is so perfect as to be regarded as almost uncanny. They pay tribute to the fine display made by Mrs. Wightman against Miss Lenglen yesterday, stressing the cleverness with which she judged every stroke ahead from the skill with which she delivered them, and say she must have beaten anybody except Suzanne; yet the latter seemed to defeat her without effort, playing with an excellence which they cannot conceive any woman surpassing.

S. Lenglen.

HER HARDEST GAME
 WIMBLEDON, June 30.—Miss Suzanne Lenglen, world's woman tennis champion defeated Mrs. Elizabeth Ryan, former Californian in the Women's singles of the Wimbledon Tournament today only after one of the hardest battles in her career on the courts.
