KEITH & PROCTOR'S
FIFTH AVENUE THEATRE.
NEW YORK, WEEK APRIL 29.

The S. R. O. (Standing Room Only) again will play an important part at the Fifth Avenue Theatre next week and the cooperation of the Police Department will be necessary to handle the crowds when the vivacious, effervescent, scintillating Eva Tauset makes her farewell appearance. It is the earnest desire of the management that all reservations should be made as early as possible, in order to guarantee seats and at the same time to avoid a repetition of the past week, when hundreds were turned away, unable to gain admission. As usual Miss Tauset will give new and brilliant surprises in songs and whirlwind mirth, and will wear some stunning Parisian effect costumes especially designed for this great event.

Mrs. Gene Hughes and a carefully selected company will offer the season's comedy success "Youth" by Edgar Allan Wolf one of the most delightful conceptions ever offered in vaudeville. Everybody will welcome the grand re-appearance of the favorite musical comedy stars Wilbur Mack and Nellie Walker in their new musical flirtation called The Dollar Bill. Henry Clive assisted by Miss Mai Sturgis Walker will give an amusing expose of necromancy. A royal welcome awaits the European musical entertainers. The Berrens making their American appearance, and presenting a sensational novelty in music. Burton and Stryker will give a roller skating exhibition, called Poetry of Motion. The novelty gymnast, Marseilles will present a series of surprise poses in "Black on White."

—There was some excitement on Water Street, Summerside, Saturday morning when a double team of horses attached to a truck wagon ran away from Sinclair & Stewart's shed at the rear of their store, dashed up the alleyway crossed the street and collided with the large plate glass window in the law office of Wilfrid Tanton. One of the horses drove his head through the window. There was a scattering of clients inside when the crash came, one of them a man, making a run for the rear of the office at that such a pace that he endangered the window there. The broken window was worth $75 and is a ruin. The horses were unhurt except for a slight cut on the nose which intruded into the lawyers' office.—J.

BERLIN TO GIVE HIGH-CLASS MUSIC AT 71 CENTS A SEAT.

BERLIN, April 26.—The highest grade of music produced in Germany, namely, orchestral presentations by the famous Berlin Philharmonic Society, is to be furnished in the summer and autumn under municipal auspices and at popular prices.

The city of Berlin, as a return for the annual subsidy of $35,000 toward the maintenance of the orchestra, will offer to the people concerts by the Philharmonic organization at a cost of 71 cents apiece for the best seats.

The concerts, which will be forty in number, will be given in the largest halls in the city and will be distributed so that all sections may benefit in turn. Several concerts will be given in breweries. Classical programs will predominate.

That first gray hair!

Oh how disappointed you are to see it—Gray hairs take away that youthful appearance that you are so anxious to and should keep—for beauty and good looks depend so much upon nature colored, thick, glossy and healthy hair. Every one is attracted to the woman with beautiful hair. Why not have it—get rid of the gray hairs—keep them out altogether by using HAY'S HAIR HEALTH.

You'll be surprised how quickly it will restore those gray hairs to their natural color and how well it will keep them so. It is not a dye but the most satisfactory and reliable restorer.
