Junior Drama Festival Plays At Kinkora

On Friday, April 29th., the pupils of Kinkora School presented in their hall, three one act plays which are entered in the Junior Drama Festival. The first was "Elmer", a comedy in which a fourteen year old brother defends his sister Susie against the older and more sophisticated twins, who are just getting out. The cast was as follows: Elmer Collier — Leslie Smith; Susan Collier — sixteen tomorrow, Betty Fisher; Jeanie and Janie Collier, twins, Marion Cairns and Joan Murphy; Mrs. Collier — Joan McCarville; Miss Pinney — a dressmaker, Miriam Hickey; Hubert Brown — Louis Monaghan; Russ Jameson, Hubert's friend, Robert Croken; and Pansy, Elmer's dog. The second play was "Camouflage" in which a hopeful woman tries to get her Uncle's money by camouflage. The cast was as follows: Mrs. Fitzgerald — Irene Shea, the Fitzgerald children — Bob, Paul, Dolly and Mildred — Lorne Richards, Desmond Roberts Muriel Ann Sinnott and Phyllis Cairns; Uncle Jacob, the wealthy odd old man, John Trainor; Sally the maid — Una Trainor, a Flapper, a Negress and a French cook, applying for Sally's position—Adelaide Duffy, Anna Trainor and Joseph Cairns. The third was "The Tangled Web" a tale of an absent-minded professor who became entangled in the web he solemnly advised others to avoid.

The cast was as follows: Professor Doolittle — Simeon Farmer; Kate Regan, one who never had a chance—Florence McKenna, Constable Fogarty — a detective—Carman Smith; and Mrs. Wilcox, the Professor's sister, Jean Callaghan. All three plays had a good story and youthful actors portrayed their parts with a skill that would do credit to experienced actors. Every minute was one of interest to the audience and it seemed as if the adjudicator had a difficult task to decide the winner among these plays. "The Tangled Web" was given the first place, "Elmer" second and "Camouflage" third. The award for the best male actor was given to Simeon Farmer and for the best female to Joan Murphy. Specialties between the plays added to the enjoyment of the evening. Miss Paula Morris sang Mother Machree between the first and second plays and before the last play Miss Muriel Ann Sinnott sang Danny Boy and Too Ra Loo Ra Loo Ral and Miss Catherine McMahon danced the Highland Fling. The singing of the National Anthem brought to a close a very successful entertainment.

—DEATH OF H. L. BOWNESS IN CALIF. — Mrs. Layton Rogers of Kensington recently received a telegram telling of the death of Harry L. Bowness, a former resident of Kensington who with his wife went to Los Angeles, Calif., about twenty years ago. His age would be about 68 or 69 years. He was a son of the late Andrew Bowness, and engaged in his father's undertaking business in Kensington for many years prior to his leaving for California. His wife's maiden name was Jean Morin of Quebec province. They are both kindly remembered and Mr. Bowness' demise regretted by their numerous friends in Kensington and throughout the province. Mr. Bowness was a veteran of World War I. He leaves one brother E. W. Bowness, Engineer and Manager of the Calgary Light and Power Co. One sister Mrs. B. R. McFadyen (Jean) lives in Calgary, Alberta. Howard who also gave the Treasurer's report. The Essay committee visited the School and gave the rules of the Essay Contest and subjects upon which to write to the pupils of the Principal and Vice-Principal. The President announced that there was a possibility of forming a Film Council in Kensington and several members expressed their approval. In order to be ready to contribute to the cost of a Projector it was thought advisable to augment the funds of the Association by holding a pantry sale and Mrs. George Brookins and Mrs. R. Holman were named a Committee to make arrangements. The guest speaker of the evening was unavoidably detained in Charlottetown. Although the members were disappointed the time was used to good advantage in discussing various plans for the future in a most congenial manner over the customary cup of tea. At the June meeting the prize essays will be read by their authors.—K.
