To his many friends throughout the province the announcement of the death of John Percy Bell, of Charlottetown, Royalty will be read with deep regret. Born Dec. 9th, 1850, he was the second son of our esteemed citizen, Francis Bell. He was a highly intelligent and progressive farmer, and his farm and residence in the Royalty bear evidence to his industry. Broad minded and generous his popularity was attested by the immense concourse of people who attended the funeral on Sunday. A widow and six children Frank, Russell, Gertrude, Susie, Alice and Pearl are left to mourn the loss of an affectionate husband and parent. "There is no death, the leaves may fall. The flowers may fade and pass away, They only wait through wintry hours The coming of the May."

Floral decorations were sent by: Mrs. Lewis and family, crescent; Mr. and Mrs. Desmond, crescent; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. Gates, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. Pickard, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. Bolsner, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. Burke, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. McPherson, wreath; Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon, Cross; Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, anchor; Mr. and Mrs. Douse, Bouquet; Mrs. Moore, bouquet; Mrs. C. Higgins, bouquet; Miss Stone, bouquet; the Misses Huestis, Stars; Mrs. Tweedy, Bouquet.

To Mrs. John McCallum and family:

DEARLY BELOVED.—We the session of Covehead Brackley Point Road and St. Peter's Road congregation, herein acquaint you with the following resolution placed on our records in which sympathy is tendered you in your recent affliction: Inasmuch as God hath been pleased in His wisdom to remove by death one of our number, John McCallum, an elder and co-worker in the church militant, we the session of this congregation herein place on record our deep sense of the loss we have sustained, and our high estimate of the departed, as a man of excellent worth in the moral and religious life of the congregation, as a man of a high degree of intelligence, of courteous and pleasing manner, of wise counsel, and devoted readiness to every good cause. We, however, bow in humble submission to the will of the Heavenly Father, cheered by the assurance that his departure was to the church triumphant. We herein also extend to our afflicted sister Mrs. McCallum and her family our heartfelt and warmest sympathy in this their bereavement, and pray that the Great Head of the Church may afford every consolation, making his peace to shine upon them and giving them peace and joy in the kingdom of his Son. Sincerely and affectionately tendered in the name and at the request of the session.—W. H. Spencer, Moderator, L. U. D. Foster, Clerk.
