owing to the high wind, there was not so many traps out as usual. The opinion of experienced fishermen is that there is every indication of a good season this year.—S.

—WELL PLEASSED WITH VISIT—Mrs. Watson Tranton, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Robert Hume and Mr. Hume, left on Monday morning on their return to Kentucky. They have been spending some few weeks on the Island and were charmed with the picturesque scenery and charming manners and hospitality of the people. They were entertained by a number of the Summerside ladies. Mrs. Tranton came by boat from New York to Charlottetown, calling at Boston and Pictou on her way down. Mrs. Tranton has travelled extensively in Europe and she declares that she has never met such charming people as the Prince Edward Islanders.—S.

—DIED SUDDENLY WHILE BATHING—Many friends throughout the Province were grieved to learn of the sudden death on Friday evening, while bathing of Miss Myrtle Williams, R.N., daughter of the late Mr. Henry Williams, of Ellerslie. Miss Williams had gone with a party of friends to Fortune Cove on a picnic on Friday afternoon. Members of the party were bathing in the water and Miss Williams ran down from the car to join them. She had not been in the water long when she took a weak turn. The water was only about two feet deep, where Miss Williams was and she was just walking about, when she was seen to fall. She was brought to the shore and a doctor was sent for, but she expired before the doctor could arrive. Death was due to heart failure. Miss Williams was forty-six years of age and had come home from the United States, where she had been nursing for some years, on account of poor health. Miss Williams was well known in the nursing profession and very highly esteemed by the doctors and nurses with whom she came in contact in her professional duties.
