onomic relations with countries which apply restrictions to trade with the U. S. S. R."

Four of the measures were adopted by the Foreign Trade Commissariat. They read:

"First, foreign trade organizations in Soviet Russia are prohibited to give any orders to England or to effect any purchases in that country.

"Second, 'Soveracht,' the Soviet Government's ship chartering organization, is prohibited to charter any vessels sailing under the British flag.

"Third, introduction of restrictive rules for English goods in transit via Russia.

"Fourth, transit and re-exporting organizations are ordered to reduce to the utmost utilization of English ports and bases.

"All these measures are to remain in force during the time of validity of the embargo applied April 19 on imports to England of main items of Soviet exports."

The fifth retaliatory measure, invoked by the Commissariat of Water Transport, instructs "all chiefs of ports to charge vessels under the British flag higher rates as port duties instead of the preferential duties British ships paid during the period of validity of the Soviet-British trade agreement."

Meantime, a belief that the Soviet Central Executive Committee will act favorably on a petition for the release of the two imprisoned British electrical engineers and that the men, William H. MacDonald and L. C. Torrington, will be out of the country within a week, was expressed in foreign circles tonight.

The committee was asked either to cancel the prison sentences imposed on the engineers following their conviction of sabotage, bribery and espionage, or to commute their sentences to deportation.

The application was filed on behalf of both men by E. Braude, who acted as Thornton's attorney during the trial of the two men and four of their co-workers for the Metropolitan - Vickers electrical firm of Manchester, Eng. Braude conferred with MacDonald and Thornton in prison tonight. Quick action was expected on the petition.

The other four men, Allan Monk-house, C. H. Nordwall and John Cushy, who were convicted of the charges and A. W. Gregory, who was acquitted, left Moscow late last night for home.

An editorial in the newspaper for industrialization, organ of the Commissariat of heavy industry, forecast the economic reprisals yesterday when it declared, "the British embargo is a two-edged sword and the English bourgeoisie may still have the experience of a cut of the sharpest edge."

Calling attention that Soviet imports from the United Kingdom fell from 100,000,000 rubles to 43,000,000 rubles the first year after the 1927 break in diplomatic relations, the newspaper added:

"Die-hards in England hope other states will follow their example, which will allow them to succeed in building a unified front in boycotting the U. S. S. R. similar to 1927."

NEW HOSPITAL BUSINESS TRANSACTED

First Meeting Under
New Act Held Last
Evening. Decision
To Issue Bonds.

The first general meeting of the Prince Edward Island Hospital, under the new Act of Incorporation was held last evening in St.
Paul's Parish Hall. By-laws were passed, officers were elected, and a resolution was passed authorizing the issuing of bonds for $125,000 for the purpose of raising funds to pay the balance of the cost of erecting and equipping the new hospital. Mr. W. K. Rogers presided.

Mr. W. F. Tidmarsh reported that the total subscriptions made for the building of the new hospital amounted to $197,709.74 and that the total collected was $124,- 639.63. He remarked that the record had been a very good one considering the fact of the depression. Many subscribers had promised to pay in full as soon as possible.

Mr. S. A. MacLeod stated that a total of $321,000 was required for the completion of the building. As the entire amount had not been collected it would be necessary to get permission to put bonds on the market.

Called upon by the chairman, Mr. R. N. MacNeill explained why it was necessary, under the new Act of Incorporation to appoint a new board of trustees. It was decided to pass the by-laws before appointing the new board. The laws were read clause by clause by Mr. MacNeill, and were passed with a number of amendments. A vote of thanks to the retiring board of trustees was moved by Mr. Isaac Carter, seconded by Mr.
W. F. Tidmarsh, and passed by the meeting.

The entire trustee board consisting of Messrs. W. K. Rogers, (Chairman), J. E. Bell, S. A. Mac-Leod, Alfred Pickard, H. H. Horne, James Paton, F. M. Stewart, J.
G. MacPadyen, Dr. H. D. Johnson,
Dr. J. A. Clark, was re-elected.

The Board of Trustees retired to approve a resolution to issue bonds to the amount of $125,000 for the purpose of completing payment for the erection of the new building.

Solomon Gallant, one of the neighbors, testified to picking up Eddie Perry and helping to carry him into the house.

Frank Gaudet testified to the prisoner coming into Mrs. Joseph Bernard's home and asking for Eddie Perry, who was not there at the time. Bernard went out and witness did not see him for the rest of the

MANSLAUGHTER

glass he had broken. "Pay me for the window and I will give you your quart of moonshine" he said.

Edmund Arsenault then said "I don't care a damn for anything in St. Louis."

Eddie Perry said, "Neither do I." Arsenault struck him with his fist on the right side of his face. Perry had both hands in his pockets. He fell.

Edmund Arsenault shook him a little and gave him a light kick.
I said "That's enough, we had better go away." Edmund Arsenault and I went up the road and caught up to Sylvan Doucette. We did not know if Eddie was dead or not. We went to Sylvan's father's place, then to Andrew Allen's and down the road again in the direction of Peter Bernard's. We stopped on the road, then Sylvan went home, the prisoner and I went to Fred Arsenault's.

After leaving the house we could hear people up the road crying for help. We could not make out exactly what it was.

Questioned by Mr. MacCarthy: "I live in Tyne Valley, son of Daniel Arsenault. Was visiting my cousin, Edmund Arsenault. I was there all the time the fight went on. The prisoner gave Perry only one slight kick. There was no one came out side up to the time I had left. Mrs.
Elizabeth Bernard, mother-in-law of the deceased was in the house with some children. I did not see any of them. Did not know Perry was unconscious. Yes, I saw Perry fall. He fell on his back 'ace up. I thought Arsenault kicked Perry in the side. I came up closer after he had fallen.

About 10 o'clock I went over to Peter Bernard's. Meddie was there.
He told me he thought Eddie was dead. Eddie fell to the ground. I did not notice any sticks or stones where he fell. It was a dark night, Edmund told me he was awfully sorry for what he had done. He said he had heard they were to send for the doctor on Sunday. Didn't know why they did not send for one on Saturday night.

Witness also said he was not drinking. Could not say whether prisoner was or not.

Sylvan Doucette testified that on the night of April 15th he left home walking. He called at Joe Perry's house a little before dark. Left there and walked up the road. Met a girl he intended to take home, but the road was very wet. He met Edmund Arsenault and James Arsenault when he was on his way to St. Louis.
They went back towards his house.
Went to the barn and got the horse.
Started back towards St. Louis. Edmund and James Arsenault went in the sleigh with him. Went to Joe Perry's to take a girl home but found she was gone. Then went towards St. Louis. Edmund and James Arsenault went with him.
When they got to Mrs. Elizabeth Bernard's (in the other half of the house where Perry was living) Edmund jumped out and went into the house, James and witness turned the horse and went back home. In the meantime Edmund had come out and got in the sleigh with them. After they got to Peter Bernard's house Edmund and James jumped off and witness kept going. Witness also testified that Meddie Bernard told them of what had happened at Perry's. They started up but turned back and witness went home to bed.

French Writer Returns From Arctic Circle

MONTREAL, Que., April 21—Jean Allouche, writer for "Paris Sol" and the Parisian periodical "Vu," reached Montreal today by Canadian National train from Prince Rupert, B. C. He passed the winter in the Arctic Circle living the life of a trapper several hundred miles north of Dawson City.
He has bid farewell to his dogs and will return to Paris after a short stay in Montreal. Later he will write articles and a book on Canada's extreme northland. He said that men are more truly men in the Arctic for they must constantly struggle for their lives. The largesse and hospitality of the north country, particularly appealed to him.
Allouche experienced temperatures as low as 72 degrees below zero fahrenheit, he reports. He suffered from snow blindness and other ills of Arctic adventures. But he likes the Yukon and Alaska and plans to return. velt proposals and early adoption of the legislation was in prospect.

ing to go on the demands from the European nations for relief on the war debts probably will not be determined until he finds what is going to be done about his proposals.
Closely following Mr. MacDonald here will come Edouard Herriot special emissary of France; Prime Minister R. B. Bennett of Canada and then the appointed spokesmen of eight other leading powers of the two hemispheres.
It may take a little while for Congress to complete the several proposals advanced by the President to give him the management of National Affairs that he desires.
But within the next two weeks he expects to have definitely before the world a broad programme for lifting it from the economic morass.
The President encountered his first full-fledged opposition from the Republican forces today with Oden Mills, Secretary of the Treasury under President Hoover, at the Capitol to lead the attack on the currency inflation Bill. The overwhelming Democratic majority however, quickly rallied behind the latest and broadest of the Roose-

Royal Scot Will Make Its Debut In Canada

(Special to the Guardian)
When the famous Royal Scot Express makes its first journey through Canada enroute from Montreal to Chicago, residents of cities along the way will find a noticeable difference in the sizes of locomotives and rolling stock compared with Canadian and United States practice, although the gauge is the same. This famous British train, which has been brought over from the British Isles intact for exhibition at the World's Fair, Chicago, Ill., will be assembled at Montreal and operate to Chicago under its own power. After being exhibited at the World's Fair the train will return through Canada on the lines of the Canadian National system, making stops for public inspection at various towns and cities.
The dimensions of British engines and cars are dictated by the permissible limits of height and width. The limits for the Royal Scot are nine feet three inches in width and twelve feet nine and one half inches in height as against clearances of ten feet wide and fifteen feet high in Canada and the United States. Bridge, tunnel and other clearances on British lines set the physical limits which still have to be observed in locomotive and car design.
Tunnels and other structures of the Liverpool and Manchester the Liverpool and Manchester railway of 1830, the oldest firm in the railway passenger business and now part of the London, Midland and Scottish railway, were constructed just large enough to permit the passage of a private coach loaded on a flat car. Although the locomotives are designed on a smaller scale than are those used in Canada and the United States, as are passenger and freight cars, they have developed high records for sustained speed, the "6100" which will haul the Royal Scot through Canada having developed 88.3 miles per hour between London and Coventry while hauling a train of over three hundred tons.

Former Famous French Spy Passes

CANNES, France, April 21—(A.P.)—Commandant George Ledoux, 58, former head of the French Counter-Espionage Service who was responsible for the arrest and conviction of the famous woman spy, Mata Hari, died today. Captain Ledoux held many important posts during the Great War, most important of which was charge of the Counter Espionage Bureau in Paris.
Ledoux, in 1929, was arrested in connection with a long chain of treason in France and was charged with having had dealings with the enemy. He was acquitted but two others who faced similar charges respectively received sentences of five years in prison and death.
Captain Ledoux at that time was said to have destroyed or mislaid

WASHINGTON, April 21—(A.P.)—A biting denunciation of the Roosevelt plan for controlling inflation in the United States was issued tonight over the signatures of four prominent Congressional Republicans, while Democratic leaders stood their ground confident of more than enough votes for approval of the program in both Senate and House.
