The Praise Service in St Andrew's church, Orwell, Sabbath evening Sept 25th, under the able leadership of Mrs L. R. Ings, organist, was a fine success from every point of view.

The Guardian acknowledges with thanks the receipt of recent Atlanta papers from J. F. Whear, City, who is attending the Oddfellow's Grand Lodge in session there. The papers contain extended reports of the convention all well illustrated.

Mrs Mark Wright and step-daughter, Miss Anna Wright, City, are visiting the former's parents Thomas and Mrs Williamson, Hampton, N.B., Miss Wright will remain in Hampton until her parents are ready to move to Victoria, B. C., in the near future.

Oa Friday evening next at the Opera House The Colonial Stock Company will favor Charlottetown Theatre goers with a brand new play, never before presented in this Province, entitled the New Magdalen. This play is beautifully staged and calls forth the full strength of this Company. Further particulars will appear later but all should reserve the date.

The Methodist Church at York was reopened on Sunday last. In the morning an eloquent sermon was preached by Dr Heartz. The afternoon service was taken by Rev Mr Hawley and in the evening by Rev. Wm Harrison. Both gave strong and fervent addresses listened to by large congregations. Miss West presided at the organ. The collections amounted to about fifty dollars.

The following clipping taken from the Calgary Herald will be of interest here as the Miss Essory referred to is a daughter of the late Fred Essory, Union Road, Lot 33.—There was a pretty wedding on Wednesday, Sept 7, at the home of the bride's mother, 610 Twelfth avenue west, when her young daughter Fannie Louise, became the bride of Edward Sydney Keith, son of J. T. and Mrs Keith of Halifax. Rev A. Tuttle, of Wesleyan Methodist church, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large company of friends and relatives. The bride, who was gowned in a smart travelling suit of grey, and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses, and maiden hair fern, was given away by her brother Stanley, and was unattended. The hat which was donned on her departure was a large grey picture hat with beautiful black plumes. The house was most profusely decorated with pink and white sweet peas and roses. After the ceremony, luncheon was served in the dining room, the table being made very pretty with pink and white carnations and ferns. The presents were exceptionally handsome. A beautiful cut glass water set was sent by the staff of the Crown Lumber company, and an almost similar gift from the staff of D. J. Young's bookstore, to which the groom belonged. Checks were received from the groom's parents from Halifax, and several others. A large collection of cut glass and many pretty pieces of hand embroidered linen were received from friends of this popular young lady. The Misses Sybil and Lillian MacMillan, of High River, were the out-of-town guests. Mr and Mrs Keith left on the six train for the coast, and will spend a three week's honeymoon, at Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle. On their return they will reside on Twelfth ave.

The Wesleyan says of Rev Mr Gaetz formerly of this Province: The Rev Joseph Gaetz supplied for Rev J. P. Anthony at Lunenburg, during the absence of the latter at General Conference, much to the pleasure and profit of old friends. We had the pleasure recently of calling on Bro Gaetz's two sons who are successfully conducting two mercantile establishment at Red Deer, Alberta.

Years of Suffering
A Desperate Case of Catarrh in the Head.

"My father had catarrh in the head for a long time. It was such a desperate case that he didn't know what to do, but one of his friends recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla. He got a bottle immediately, and as soon as he commenced taking it he felt relief and after the use of two other bottles he was completely cured. He was so well pleased he has ever since recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla." Delle Aline Begin, Levis, P. Q.
