Penitentiary term of four years was given William Christianson, of Oakville, Ont., who was sentenced at New Toronto on 19 charges of housebreaking, one of assault causing bodily harm and one of forgery. Christianson, who has been termed "Raffles, Jr." is just 17 years old. Here young burglar is being led away by Chief Westrup. Seen leaving court are parents of "Raffles, Jr." who spent tortured moments in court as sentence was passed on their son. During trial father spoke on his son's behalf. No estimate of value of loot stolen, was given.
