BIRTHS

McLURE. — Born in this city on Dec. 31st, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Roderick McLure, a son. Congratulations.

HOCKEYISTS! A CALL TO ARMS!

New Year's Message from C. A. H. A. President to All Players and Officials Throughout Canada

KINGSTON, Ont., Dec. 31.—In this my first official note as president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, I take the greatest pleasure in sending out to all officials and players in the many Provincial associations connected with our governing body, the heartfelt wish that the coming year of 1916 will bring to one and all the greatest amount of happiness and prosperity possible.

I feel, however, that I have a greater responsibility and duty to perform at this time, and that is to point out to the great army of hockey players and officials scattered throughout our beloved Canada from coast to coast how great and urgent the need is for men to come forward and rally to the defence of our common cause and strike a blow for liberty and justice that will re-echo around the world.

Canada's athletes have responded nobly to the call in the past, and will, I am sure continue to do so. In a few short weeks our hockey season will be over, and if there are any who have not made up their minds regarding their future course or action, let me say that, in my opinion, there should be only one conclusion, and that should be to exchange the "stick and puck" for a "Ross rifle and bayonet," and take your place in the great army that is being formed to sweep the "oppressors of humanity" from the face of the earth

There can be no future security for our homes and loved ones until this is accomplished, and this gigantic task cannot be accomplished until every available man comes forward and fits himself for the great and glorious effort.

It takes nerve and gameness to play the game of hockey. The same qualities are necessary in the greater game that is now being played in France and on the other fighting fronts.

The thousands of hockey players throughout this Dominion have all the necessary qualifications. Therefore, I earnestly urge all such to "rally around the flag." With every man doing his bit Canada will raise an army of brains and brawn from our hockey enthusiasts the like of which the world has never seen.

The whistle has sounded. Let every man "play the greatest game of his life." Sincerely yours.

JAMES T. SUTHERLAND,
President C A. H. A., captain 146th Overseas Battalion, C.E.F., Kingston.

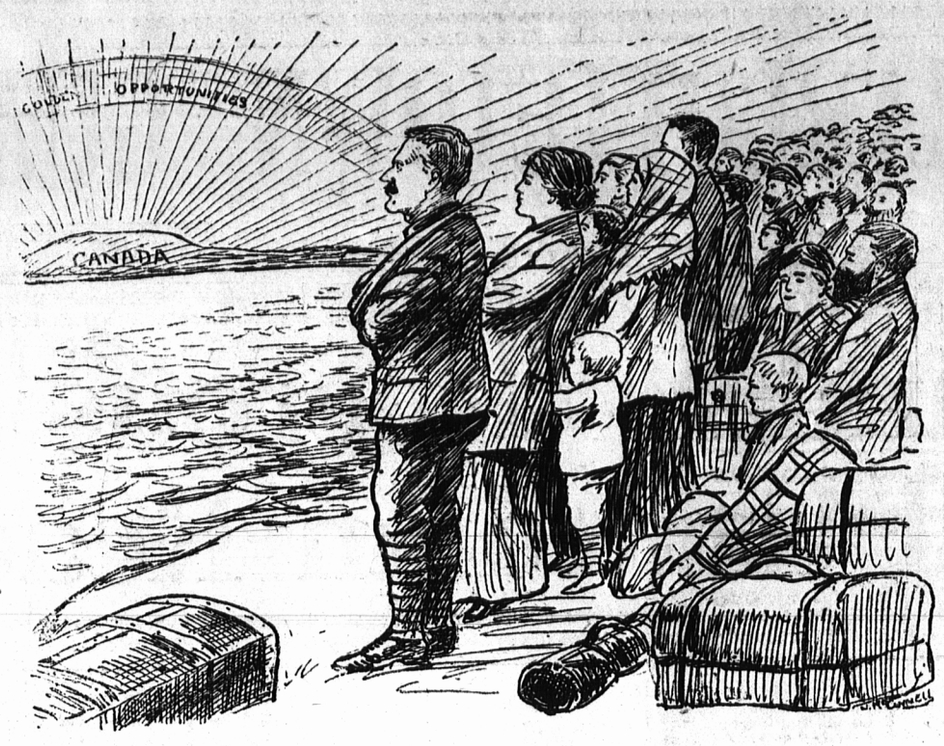
AFTER THE WAR



"THE LAND OF PROMISE," TO WH ICH WAR-WEARY EUROPE WILL LOOK.

HAPPENINGS OF THE WEEK

CANADIAN MOTHER'S ANSWER TO AMERICAN SONG

"I didn't raise my son to be a soldier."

I did bring up my son to be a soldier,
To play the game, be upright, loyal, strong,
To shun the boaster, fight the blatant bully,
To stand for truth and justice against wrong.

He was not urged to follow low ideals,
To "get rich quickly," or make wealth his goal.
He learned that all the world is not worth winning,
If it should cost him his immortal soul.

He was not trained by crafty politicians
To watch men fighting, or with cunning art
To make quite sure which side would be successful,
Then only if it paid, to take a part.

He heard instead, of Knightly faith and devoir,
Of good King Arthur, Galahad's high quest,
Of noble men whose dauntless deeds we honour,
Whose names are sacred, and whose memories blest.

So he was ready when the Tocsin sounded.
(And to the Standard King and Country called),
To fight a dastard foe whose broken pledges
And needless slaughter has the world appalled.

And if, with thousands of our brave defenders,
My son should fall and die 'neath alien skies,
With breaking heart I shall hold fast the promise
On God's great day my soldier will arise.

Two Mothers Tell

HOW THEIR SICKLY CHILDREN WERE MADE STRONG AND WELL.

"For six years our little girl suffered from a bronchial trouble, she had no appetite, could not sleep and was so nervous we had to keep her out of school. The doctors said nothing but a change of climate would help her. We were discouraged, when one day a friend asked us to try Vinol, and after taking six bottles she does not look like the same child. She has a fine appetite, is lively, healthy and well, and Vinol did it all." Mrs. F. E. Hufford, Iola, Kas.

Another child made strong.

"The measles left my little girl thin and delicate, and the doctor's medicine did not seem to build her up. I read about Vinol and got a bottle, and her improvement was rapid, her strength returned and she is now as well as ever." Mrs. E. Linot, Pittsburg, Pa.

We ask every Charlottetown mother of a frail sickly, ailing child to try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if it does not restore her child's normal health.
