THE WORLD IS RIDICULOUS

The world is ridiculous and I laugh at it; it is deplorable and thou lamentest over it," said Heraclitus, the laughing philosopher of old.

Possibly we can afford to spend thousands of dollars of the sweat-stained money of the taxpayers on party heeled appointed to new offices, while the bootleggers are roving in the blood-money, but we cannot afford to be laughed at by outsiders.

UN-CANADIAN

THE correspondence between the Mackenzie King Government and the Washington Government relative to the St. Lawrence Waterways project has, after much criticism, been tabled in the House of Commons and is now under discussion.

NOTES BY THE WAY

As an attraction to tourists and to add to their enjoyment, the Rhodes Government has intimated its intention to erect a pavilion at the border line between Nova Scotia and New Brunswick near Amherst.

SCIENTIFIC FEARS

SCIENCE is beginning to be alarmed at its own speed. The progress and the new discoveries of the past half century have opened up infinite doors for further progress and further invention, and no one can guess what revelations lie in the immediate future or what possibilities may lie behind the revelations.

THE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST CHURCH

Q. What is the strength of the Disciples of Christ Church in Canada? A. The Disciples of Christ Church in Canada has over a hundred churches with 9000 members and 59 ministers.

Notes by the Way

None of us will ever forget the flu epidemic of 1918-19. As we saw hundreds and thousands of well people struck down and pass away in a few days or within a couple of weeks, it reminded us of what the plague or small pox must have been in former years.

The production of tobacco in Canada has grown to large proportions and the quality of the product is so highly valued in England that the demand far exceeds the supply.

THE LAND WE LOVE

Why should we import oatmeal, while growing millions of bushels of oats? Why import vast quantities of canned and pickled fruits and vegetables? Why not have a factory here making furnaces, grates and stoves?

HOUSEHOLD SCRAP BOOK

By ROBERTA LEE Molasses Cake Cakes containing molasses burn very easily. Such cakes should be baked in thick loaves that require long baking, and the tins should be lined with greased paper.

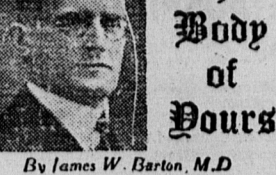

MODERN ETIQUETTE

Q. What is a grave breach of good manners when traveling on a train? A. To monopolize a dressing-room for quite a period of time.

DAILY LESSONS IN ENGLISH

WORDS OFTEN MISUSED "wags" means constantly, while "all ways" means in every way. OFTEN MISPRONOUNCED: bambino; a as in "father"; i as in "police"; o as in "no," accent after the i.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

None of us will ever forget the flu epidemic of 1918-19. As we saw hundreds and thousands of well people struck down and pass away in a few days or within a couple of weeks, it reminded us of what the plague or small pox must have been in former years.

THE PUBLIC FORUM

TEMPERANCE IN JUNE, 1927.

Sir.—In June last a very strong sermon was delivered in Charlottetown on the Temperance question. The following is a quotation of the sermon taken from columns of the daily Patriot.

DOES PROHIBITION PROHIBIT?

Sir.—On Oct. 20th, 1924, I was fined for an infraction of the Prohibition Act. During the next two years, Messrs. Barbour and Haywood, assisted by several others, made several ineffectual efforts to apprehend me.

THE ARTS NOT FORGOTTEN.

An academy of arts, and a school of arts and crafts is also included in the plans. While there are many similar gifts made by wealthy men in the Republic—apart from the Foundation—there have been but few whose philanthropy measured up to the figures noted above.
