50 Coats at 1-2 Price

On going through our Mantle Department we find we have 50 odd coats ranging in sizes from 32 to 40 Bust. In many of these lines we had as many as 25 coats, but in most cases now we have only one or two in each line left. So that in order to make a complete clearance of the entire lot we are placing them on sale this morning at just (1-2) their regular value. The $10.00 coats for $5.00 $11.50 for $5.75, $12.00 for $6.00 $14.00 for $7.00, $16.00 for $8.00. $18.00 for $9.00.

Ladies' Dresses

We have just received another shipment of ladies' dresses in panamas, voils and poplin trimmed with braid and fitted in with a yoke of lace, right up in the top notch fashion, They come chiefly in navy and black price $10.50 to $18.00

Net Waists: We have just received by express another shipment of these waists which are so very popular at the present time. We have them in a variety of designs and patterns ranging in prices from $3.75 to $7.00. Nothing would be more appropriate for a nice Christmas present than one of those lovely waists.

Ladies' Skirts: at $2.50. This line is an exceptionally strong value and is one of our leaders this season. It is made of heavy black Vicuna, made and trimmed according to the seasons styles. On comparing this skirt with the regular $3.50 and 3.75 skirts you will admit that ours at $2.50 are fully as good.

Misses' Skirts: We have just opened up a large assortment of skirts in misses sizes, made from ends of cloth, which in the regular way would cost from $3.75 to 4.25. This lot was cleared out to us for $2.75 each.

Xmas Novelties

Christmas Novelties: for the past week we have been busy receiving bundles, packages and cases of Christmas Novelties for every department of the store. Our Customers will find it to their advantage to do their buying early, and in this way get the first choice of our large and select stock. This shipment includes dainty lace collars, leather goods, hand bags, gentlemen's neck ties, umbrellas, gloves, new neck frilling, ladies' coat sweaters, kimonas doilies, table covers, laundry bags and cushion tops, neck furs, etc., etc.

AN 8,000 DOLLAR ADVERTISMENT

In this week's issue of the Saturday Evening Post of Philadelphia is a two-page advertisement costing $8,000.00 for the single issue. This one ad. is expected to familiarize over 5,000,000 people with "Rexall Shampoo Paste," a preparation for shampooing and cleaning the hair and removing dandruff scales. In connection with this advertisement 4,500 Rexall druggists each in a different town in the United States and Canada will run advertisements and make window displays of Rexall Shampoo Paste and Rexall Hair Tonic. By the force of this combined advertising the attention of 100,000,000 people will be directed to these superior articles for the hair—and it is expected that the week's sales of Rexall Shampoo will amount to over 200,000 packages. The care of the hair has now become a serious subject and it is largely due to the enterprise of the Rexall Stores who knowing the merits of their preparations for the hair have spent thousands of dollars in bringing them to public notice. Their sales are immense, that of the "Rexall Hair Tonic" and "Rexall Shampoo Paste" totalling 2,233,000 last year. Each is guaranteed satisfactory to the user and the fact that there are few complaints shows the wonderful properties they possess. For this community The Rexall Store is The MacKinnon Drug Co., who are sole agents gnd carry a large stock of "Rexall Shampoo Paste" and "Rexall Hair Tonic." They will be pleased to give you full information and a free booklet on the care of the hair.

PROHIBITION.

lated paper a list of the names of th inspectors under our Prohibitory Law, together with the salary they receive from the Government in orde that the interested public might know exactly how much money is be ing spent annually in this particula direction. Then I would like to see in print a statement of the convictions secured by each inspector since the 1st December, 1910. By this information, it appears to me, we could get an idea whether the game is worth the powder.

If all our inspectors are doing their level best throughout the Province to enforce the law then it needs no lengthy argument to show that there is something radically wrong somewhere. Wedding parties seem to have no trouble in getting two or three cases when wanted. The individual topers travel back and forth over our railway and are frequently seen treating their chums to some sort of a dose from a bottle. I claim, Mr. Editor, that the temperance people of this Island have a perfect right to know who the inspectors are, how much they get, what they are doing, why they are left in office when proved inefficient, even when the Provincial Alliance strongly protests against the retention of those unfit for the work.

I may be astray in my conclusions, but I am of the opinion that the lack of interest in the enforcement of the Prohibition Laws on the part of the temperance people is due to the fact that so many of the inspectors put so little heart into their work and thus they seem to indicate that they can do as little as they please and still hold the job because the party,—the dear party—will not turn them out no matter how the temperance people may protest.

But apart from this there is another strong reason: The churches with a few exceptions, are not alive to the needs of the hour and the importance of the work. How many of the clergymen of the Island have any interest whatever in the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of P. E. Island? Seldom is there in attendance at any session of the Grand Division more than two. How many have any interest in the I. O. G. T. as a sister organization with the Sons? Possibly three or four.

If we read the temperance history of this Province aright, it was largely the work of the Sons of Temperance and the I. O. G. Templars that brought about the enactment of the Prohibitory Law and these same organizations are now practically the only organized temperance societies that from week to week come together in division and lodge rooms to review the ground and help arouse the temperance sentiment that yet prevails among us. But I fear that even these time-honored institutions are losing heart in the fight, for there are good reasons to infer that the divisions and lodges are conducted chiefly by the boys and girls without the help, encouragement and mature judgment of those of riper years among the heads of families.

I may say further that we look to the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance and to the Grand Lodge I. O. G. Templars, through their executive officers, to take the lead in laying out the ground and taking the initiative in arranging for right wide-awake temperance rallies all over their jurisdiction during the winter months. These organizations have spme paid officials and we expect to see them first in the field.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space, I am, &c., &c.

ROOSEVELT'S BARGAIN WITH THE RAILWAYS.

WASHINGTON, November 28—Wharton Earker, a retired banker of Philadelphia, sprung a sensation on the senate committee on interstate commerce today, when he alleged that a New York financier told him in 1904 that the financial interests would support Theodore Roosevelt for president because the latter had "made a bargain with them on the railroad question."

Mr. Barker's statement came in the midst of a vigorous attack on the "money trust" in which he alleges that President Roosevelt had been given the details of the impending panic of 1907, several months before it happened, but took no action to prevent it. He declared that the Aldrich currency plan was the handiwork, not of former Senator Aldrich, but of a Mr. Warburton, of the banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb and company of New York; and that a fund of $1,000,000 had been started to insure its adoption.

"Three or four weeks before the election in 1904," said Mr. Barker, 'I was walking down Broadway when I met one of the most distinguished money kings in New York, a man now dead. He said to me: "We are going to elect Roosevelt." I expressed surprise and asked if he had given up the support of Parker. He said 'yes, that they had frightened Roosevelt so had made a bargain with them.' "

Members of the committee looked somewhat incredulous, and Mr. Barker added:

"I wish Mr. Roosevelt were here."

"I wish he were," said Senator Townsend.

"It would be interesting."

Mr. Barker said the financial giant, whom he declined to name, told him that Roosevelt had "made a bargain on the railroad question." Mr. Barker continued:—

"He is to holler all he wants to," he told me, 'but by and by a railroad bill will be brought in by recommendation of the president cutting off rebates and free passes, which suits us, who own the railroads to make polling arrangements and providing for maximum rates."

The railroad man added, said Mr. Barker, that under the latter authority, it would be possible to add from $300,000,000 to $400,000,000 to the total freight charges paid by American public

"I told him I did not believe Roosevelt had made any such statement," said Mr. Barker, "but when the annual message of 1905, went to congress, he recommended most of these things. I wrote to President Roosevelt and told him what I heard, and that I had thought the man lied, but now I must believe he had not. It was the only letter of mine Mr. Roosevelt ever failed to answer."

WHERE TO SHIP SMELTS AND EELS

With the quickly advancing season smelts and eels are being eagerly sought for by American buyers. Prominent among them will be found the firm of Robert W. Cole, 20 Fulton Fish Market, New York, who will give personal attention to all consignments sent him from this Province and will sell the goods to the best possible advantage and make prompt returns. Mr. Cole offers the best references as will be seen by his ad. and S. B. Wiley & Sons are his transfer agents.

N. S. Gates Co., No. 3 Fulton Market, New York, and make a specialty of smelts and eels will secure for customers who ship from this Province a first class ready market and assure them of the highest prices obtainable as will be seen by their ad. which appears elsewhere. Shippers in this Province who wish to send consignments can get full particulars upon application as to the best manner to send goods and are asked to ship goods so that they will reach Fulton Market in the morning.

J. Edwin Treakle, 20 Fulton Fish Market, New York, has had a long experience with the handling of smelts and eels on the American market and knows the trade requirements well. He wants large shipments of fish from this Province and is prepared to handle them promptly and to the best advantage. His references are the best and tip top prices are assured his customers as will be seen by his ad. elsewhere. Shippers should write him before shipping elsewhere.

Satisfaction is assured all shippers in Prince Edward Island who send their consignments to Burnet & Keeney, wholesale commission dealers in fresh fish, 6 Fulton Market, New York, whose ad. appears elsewhere in this issue. They make a specialty of smelts, eels and clams and can find a ready market for large amounts. The facilities for handling their goods are up-to-date in every way and they always ask and receive the highest market prices as the buying public are prepared to pay for first quality goods.

The ad. appears elsewhere of Caleb Haley & Co., 14 Fulton Market, New York, who wants consignments of smelts and eels from this Province. They are represented in Prince Edward Island by a native of this Province, L. W. Wright, now with the firm, a man who has had a large experience in the fish business and knows what is best for the shippers in this Province. A trial order will convince the sender of the reliability of the firm's business methods.

R. W. Sandiford, wholesale commission merchant, whose place of business is at 38 Fulton Market, New York, has been established since 1870, and now has a trade that assures his customers the most satisfactory returns for all smelts and eels they care to send him. His personal attention assures quick sales and prompt returns, making all business with him a pleasure. Shippers should write him re consignments and any particulars they may want will be sent. The ad. appears elsewhere.

I. Goodman Co., Fulton Fish Market, New York, have a splendid market for smelts and eels from this Province and shippers would do well to send them consignments as they dispose of them promptly and make quick returns. The firm gives the best of references as will be seen by the ad. in another column and as they have been doing business here for years past they need no further introduction. They make a specialty of hard clams, lobsters, smelts, bass and eels.

Since 1880 M. L. Sullivan & Co., Fulton Market, New York, have been catering to the American fresh fish trade, as will be seen by their ad. in another column. Making a specialty of eels, smelts, lobsters, clams and bass, they are ready to receive large consignments and look to this Province to help them supply their trade. They send their returns promptly by express money order and assure their customers the personal attention which goes far to making a satisfactory business transaction.
