al market and sales of several loads of Manitoba 4 were made at 61-2 cents per bushel under the Winnipeg October option, c.i.f. Montreal. The market for Canadian western grades of oats was again weak and prices were reduced another cent per bushel. No. 2 c. w. were quoted at 76 cents and No. 3 western at 72 cents per bushel.

A feature of the flour trade was the marked improvement in the demand from English importers, for spring wheat grades and a fairly large business was done for both nearby and deferred shipment. The domestic trade was also better. The moderate and prices were unchanged. Prices for all lines of mill feed were well maintained under a good demand from all sources. The market for standard grades of rolled oats was steady under a fair demand. There was some inquiry from London for Canadian baled hay and some business was done. The local trade was quiet and prices were unchanged.

The undertone to the egg market was firm and the demand was fair. The receipts were 1,356 cases. Owing to the milder weather prevailing there was a lull in the demand for potatoes and this combined with the large receipts created an easier feeling and the tendency of prices were downward. Car lots of Prince Edward Island mountains were quoted at $1.45 to $1.50 per bag of 90 pounds, N. B. green mountains at $1.40 to $1.45 per bag in bulk; cobbles $1.30 to $1.35 per bag in bulk and Quebec white stock $1.25 per bag in bulk ex-track. A steady feeling prevailed in the butter market which was attributed to a slight improvement in the demand. The receipts were 54 packages. The demand from United States buyers for cheese continued fair and a moderate amount of business was again transacted. The receipts were 2,266 boxes.

OTTAWA, Ont. Oct. 26.—(Eggs)—Canadian egg markets have shown a little advance today, probably due to light receipts. Toronto—This market is still increasing with dealers paying country shippers, delivered, cases returned; extras 49 to 50, firsts 42, seconds 33. Prices to retailers for fresh extras 56 to 58, firsts 48 to 50, seconds 40. Edmonton—This egg market is steady. Dealers are quoting country shippers extras 40, firsts 37, seconds 32. Halifax—This egg market is firm on extras but slightly easier on firsts. Eggs are moving quite readily but there are very few offered. Dealers are quoting country shippers, delivered extras 49, firsts 45, seconds 33. Prices to retailers extras 55, firsts 48, seconds 42. St. John—This market has advanced under light receipts and the quality of arrivals is better. Dealers are quoting country shippers, delivered cases returned extras 48, firsts 44, seconds 36. Victoria—The egg market here is advancing under light receipts. Dealers are quoting producers extras 50, firsts 48, pullet extras 41. Prices to retailers are 5 cents higher. Montreal, Oct. 26.—A moderate amount of business was done with foreign buyers in wheat here today, but the inquiry for coarse grains was slow. There was some demand from exporters for wheat in the local market.

DEATHS WALSH.—At the Charlottetown Hospital on Friday, Oct. 21st, Mrs. Pius Walsh, aged 62 years. McLEOD.—At 62 Great George St. on Wednesday, Oct. 26th, 1927, Mrs. Flora McLeod, aged 77 years. Funeral from her late residence this (Thursday) afternoon, service starting at 2 p. m., funeral leaving the house at 2:30. Interment People's Cemetery.

Evidence Taken In Assault Case

In the case before Stipendiary Martin in a Police Court on Monday when Joseph Matthews was on trial charged with assaulting Mrs. Toombs, the only witness was Mr. A. E. Toombs.

The direct examination by Chief of Police Birtwistle was concluded and he was cross examined by the counsel for the prisoner, Mr. J. J. Johnston, K. C.

Some cross firing between the Chief and the counsel occurred, the latter complaining that leading questions had been asked by the Chief.

The evidence given by Mr. Toombs, was along the same lines as the report of the Guardian, which had appeared in the paper.

Mr. Toombs testified that after hearing a woman scream he shouted to her assailant, "You dirty brute," and ran in the direction of the scream. A man sprang out in front of him and started to run. He came out at a point ten feet from the southeast of St. Peter's Chapel door. Witness left his man and followed the man around the corner to Fitzroy street.

He followed him 12 to 20 yards on Fitzroy street. The man kept on until opposite Mr. J. A. Webster's residence then crossed over to the north side of Fitzroy St. The witness saw of him was when he was within about ten feet of him near a tree. He had a light colored coat and peak cap. He was fairly short, about five feet five inches in height. The coat was long for a suit coat and rather short for an overcoat. Witness thought he had a peculiar walk a little out of the ordinary. The witness then came back and found his daughter with her arms around his wife and was trying to get her through the wire fence. His wife was bleeding terribly about the face. Her eye was swollen and closed, her teeth plate was broken in two in her mouth, and her jaw was swollen. The witness accompanied the man to the north side of the street and left his daughter to take her mother the rest of the way. He then went to the Police Station and reported to Officer McInnis, and phoned for a doctor. His wife is still ill, very nervous, with a pain in her head, and is badly marked in the face, and badly bruised below the knee. She was not fit to come to court.

The next morning about seven o'clock he went to the place of the assault looking for his wife's broken teeth plate. On his way home he met a man who made him think it might be the assailant of the previous night. He met him between the street and the Police Station, south on Rochford street, east side, and about two thirds of the way down on Euston. Witness crossed over to the west side of Rochford street and followed same to Connaught Square and Pownall street, south on Pownall to King street, and east on King street to the first alley on King, north side. He had a good look at the man who was standing in an alley way. Mr. Toombs passed on the same side and went a hundred yards passed him and stopped. The man ran across the street and into a double house. The first double house on the south side of King from Pownall. The man went into the east tenement. Witness then came back to the Police Station and reported to the Police. The prisoner is the man he saw and followed on Sunday morning. He was later called to the Police Station to identify him. The man that he saw on Sunday morning and followed was like the man who followed after the assault that he thought he was worth following. The Sunday morning man had a light coat and light cap. Rather a long coat but not an overcoat, and a pair of overalls.

Cross-examination by Mr. Johnston, K. C., Mr. Toombs testified as follows: It was between 10.15 and 10.30 o'clock when I left the store. When I heard the scream it would be between 10.30 and 10.45. The night was very dark. The new chapel door is about twenty-five feet north east, the fence runs along the sidewalk on Rochford street. My daughter was trying to get her mother through the fence to Rochford Square. Saw marks near Rochford street (about in line with front of main building) inside the fence as of someone being dragged. The wire fence (two strands of wire) runs in south of the chapel door to the church wall. The man's entrance is on Rochford Square. He also so far as I know was brought to identify him. Can't remember whether the police told him the prisoner's name or not. The prisoner was remanded for a week, when the examination of could see my wife ahead of me. We were about Scantlebury's garage between that and Hennessy's house when I saw my wife cross the square. He could see under the street lights at the time. I was nearly in front of St. Peter's Church when my wife turned the corner. We might have been gaining a little on her. We had turned the corner when we heard her scream. It is a dark corner by the chapel. It was out of this dark spot that the man came running. When I saw him he was evidently outside of the fence. As far as I could judge when he came out he was not more than about eight or ten feet away. He was about the turn of the fence. I think he was not thirty-five or forty feet about of the chapel, but might have been. He did not measure. When he reached the corner of Fitzroy street he was not beyond the school. About half way along the school house he turned up fifteen to about twenty yards. He was running at the time, he could not tell then who he was. He had on a peak cap light colored and a light coat. Could not swear whether an overcoat or jacket. Could not recall pants. They were evidently darker than the coat or he would have noticed. The next morning he saw a man in front of yours (Mr. Johnston's) place. He was the only man on the street I followed him. He was about the same size of build,

NOVA SCOTIA TECH. And Acadia Play To Three All Tie WOLFEVILLE, Oct. 26.—In a ragged, "pushing" contest, the Nova Scotia Technical College held the Acadia football team to a 3-all tie here today. The game was a rather poor affair, full of wild booting and scrim pushing. After a poor start the Tech scrim controlled the ball for the rest of the game, while the half line passed nicely and were always dangerous. Considering their brilliant play in their victory over the Wanderers, the Acadia showing was disappointing.

—OPEN SEASON.—There seems to be a good deal of confusion regarding the "hartridge shooting season," which opened on Oct. 15th and closes Nov. 15th, after being closed since April, 1925, when an amendment to the Game Act was passed in the Local Legislature making an open season every other year (every odd year) from Oct. 15th to Nov. 15th. Consequently the next open year after this will be 1929, and so on.
