SHIP SHORTAGE HOLDS UP TOWN
BRADFORD, England, April 20 (Reuters) — No tour of Canada will be possible this year for 50 British schoolboys selected under the terms of a trust fund founded by the late W. H. Rhodes of Bradford, because of the shortage of shipping accommodation.

Annual tours for 20 London boys and 10 each from Bradford, Birmingham and Glasgow were staged in 1938 and 1939 and it had been hoped to resume the tours this August. Next tour now is set tentatively for 1948.
