Island Province

Charms Teachers

Dr. E. A. Hardy, (special Correspondence to The Toronto Globe) writes:

HALIFAX, N. S. Aug. 8. - "Anne of Green Gables" was, in a very true sense, hostess to the Canadian Teachers Federation yesterday. Through the co-operation of the business men of Charlottetown, the Prince Edward Island Teachers' Federation motored the delegates and their friends, about two hundred and fifty, across the island to the North Shore at Cavendish Cape.

There, through the kindness of the Avonlea, Sterling, Mayfield and New Glasgow Women's Institutes, they were entertained at an open air dinner across the road from the home of "Anne of Green Gables." The dinner was a delight, the scenery was lovely and the air was exhilarating.

The hospitality shown there and at the Cliff Hotel, North Shore, at supper was beyond praise. Even the fatiguing business sessions were forgotten in this perfect day.

The Charlottetown teachers, the Prince Edward Island Teachers' Federation and the island people generally revealed a hospitality of the finest type.

The whole body of visiting teachers, drawn from all the Provinces of Canada, left Charlottetown this morning enthusiastic "boosters" for Prince Edward Island as one of the most charming parts of Canada, the development of whose resources should be the concern of every Canadian.
