Yesterday at noon a horse crossed the East River, at Hickey's wharf, the first of the season. The River will soon be all coated with ice and thus the farmer's will be enabled to come to the city on market days with very little difficulty and in a shorter space of time than at present.

John O'Hare, City, passed away on New Year's Day, fortified with the sacraments of the church in the 84th year of his age. Deceased was born in Scotland and emigrated here with his parents when still quite young. He leaves to mourn a large number of friends and relatives.

The opening service of the week of Prayer, which was held in St James Church last evening was well attended. Rev T. F. Fullerton presided. Rev Mr Murphy of St Paul's delivered a splendid address on The Kingdom and the church. Prayer was offered by Col Moore, W. S. Louson, Rev Mr Thomas, T. C. James and Rev Daniel McLean. The singing was most inspiring and the service altogether enjoyable.

Persons unable to get No 133, The Guardian news department, by phone at any hour are asked to ring 124 as it is useless to call up any other number. In the interim, between the hour of closing Saturday night and that of opening in the early morning of Monday, communications and news can be dropped in the letter box of The Guardian main entrance, and further inquiries can be made by phoning as above.

The P. W. C. Basket Ball team defeated the Abbies at Basket Ball in the Y. M. C. A. last night by a score of 9-17. In the first half the score stood a tie 7-7. The P. W. C. got their eye on the basket in the last half and won out by a good margin. Though interesting throughout the game was not as pretty an exhibition of Basket Ball as some of the former games. In the intermediate game the Bankers surprised everybody by winning out from Abbies second team by a score of 16-17. The Bankers are all new at the game and considering their experience played well.

Lamp light will not be satisfactory if the burner be old, burnt out or dirty, if the wick be clogged, or if on use inferior oil. With your lamp in good order and MAXFLOWER OIL which is especially prepared for household use, you will have the best light for the eyes known to man. 10-23dtt.

Rev Joseph Freeman Tupper, who was ordained on Dec 19th, by the Bishop of Nova Scotia at Sydney, C. B., and has been appointed a travelling missionary in the western part of that Island, is well known throughout the Province as a hard worker and eloquent speaker. Before his recent illness he was termed "the most eloquent inter-collegiate debater in the Maritime Provinces." His many friends will be glad to know that much of his former vigor is returning. Mr Tupper's training and experience fits him well for missionary work. He has been educated at rural schools in Canada and in the United States, and has received considerable private tutoring. He should be well grounded in practically every branch of learning required in his profession. He received his theology training at King's College, Halifax Chronicle. Mr Tupper was at one time stationed at Georgetown and Cherry Valley.

Every day adds new customers to our list. Come in and see the many bargains we have to offer. Simon Joseph, Queen St. 12-21dtt.
