INTERESTING GIFT —A unique and very interesting Xmas gift was presented to Grace Methodist Church last week by the young ladies of the congregation, in the shape of an elegant bulletin board which may now be seen outside the Church. The board is 36x62 inches and is 'interchangeable.' The interior can be removed and the letters, which are of two sizes, are of steel in place of ordinary paste board, lithographed in white. The letters are enclosed in a large glass case, the frame being of polished oak. The fittings are of brass and the whole thing is altogether attractive. The board was supplied by H. E. Winters Specialty Company, of Devenport, Iowa.

SPECIAL New Years Eve. supper served at the Kozey Korner between 11 and 12. 6371

THE WESTERN TRAIN arrived in the city at 10.50 last night. The Empress did not connect with the C.P.R. train and therefore there was no mail from Western Canada.

AN ATTRACTION.—The corner of Grafton and Prince Streets presents quite an attractive appearance now at night, a row of lights having been installed on the side of the road along the side and front of Zion Church. These lights add appreciably to the appearance of the neighbourhood and are certainly a creditable piece of work.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Cedride Arsenault Urbaine Ville on the arrival of twins, a boy and girl. Mr. Cyrus A. Gallant and Mr. Aubin L. Doiron, paid a visit to their home Rustico during their Christmas holidays.—M.

PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED.—Mr. Gallagher manager of the Prince Edward and Peoples Theatre gave his regular annual supper to the employees of both Theatres last night at the Kozey Korner. The supper was served in the Kozey Korner's usual style style and was pronounced by all a splendid success. There were thirty-three guests present including a number of the Parisian Girls troupe now playing here. Mrs. Gallagher was Chaperone for the party. After full justice had been done to the splendid repast prepared Mr. Gallagher gave each of his employes a present as a souvenir of the occassion. It may be noted that the employes had made Mr. Gallagher a handsome Christmas present in the shape of a fumed mont Bay, who are now training at oak desk. Before dispersing for the night the company gave three rousing cheers for Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher and a very pleasant evening was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

INSTITUTE —The Annual meeting of the Egmont Bay Farmer's institute was held in the Egmont Bay Hall on Dec. 23rd beginning at 2.30 p. m. The President in his opening remarks made allusion to the great benifits of the co-operation, hence the existence of a Farmer's Institute. He strongly reminded co-operation in every phase of farm occupation. A discussion was led on the possibility of an increase in the exhibition grant. Sale of lands was touched on by Rev. Father Baudreault in his remarks who said that Canadian lambs had a preference in the United States markets. The purchase of wire for fencing of twine, of sides of live hogs, all on the co-operative system, was given ernest considerations. It was deemed advisable also to purchase scales as it would, fill a time worn necessity. Co-operative sale of wool was dwelt upon. It was decided to have if possible in Egmont Bay a short Agricultural course for the benifit of farmers. Rev. S. Baudreault in his remarks insisted on a close study of the diffirent phases of co-operation. A united body has always power to go ahead. John D. Arsenault spoke on the Agricultural course, perserverance was what should characterize the farmer's efforts. The aim should be that farmers should have say in the price for the sale of their produce or live stock. Mr. Jas. L. Gallant also spoke on short course. Mr. H. J. Gallant spoke on sale of lambs. Mr. Elis E. Arsenault, said that farmers should place more exhibits at fairs or exhibitions. He cited his own experience in connection with the Amherst Fair. Since attending that Fair he had carried off over $200. in prizes. Mr. Joseph H. suggests more frequent meetings of farmers. The minutes of the last meeting were adopted as was also the report of financial conditions of the institute. The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year. President—Edilbert Poirier, Vice-Pres.—J. F. Arsenault Directors for each district—Urbain Ville, Aubin L. Arsenault, and J. H. Arsenault. Abrams Village, Armie D. Arsenault and Prosper L. Gallant, St. Chrysostome, Pierre Gallant, Antoine C. Gallant. Maxim Village, Edward Poirier and Damien Arsenault Auditor—J. F. Arsenault. Treasurer H. O. Gallant. Delegates to the Central Institute—Joseph H. Arsenault and Charles, M. Arsenault. After a unanimous vote of thanks to the President, the meeting adjourned.

INTERESTING LECTURE.—An exceedingly interesting illustrated lecture on the war was delivered by Rev. R. G. Fulton in Heartz Memorial Hall last evening, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid, the hall being crowded. Upwards of 120 views were put on the screen, a large number of which depicted scenes in Belgium and France, showing the ruthless vandalism of the German hordes in the destruction of some of the most beautiful historic buildings in the world. Pictures were shown of the ruins of countless poor homes and refugees on their retreat from devastated towns. A particularly striking and pathetic scene was that of "the last boat" conveying refugees to England and itself filled to capacity, the guards turning back crowds eager to get a place on the vessel. One picture depicted Belgian children praying for their fathers, while another showed the Red Cross hospital in Antwerp. In this connection the Rev. Lecturer, in speaking of the heroic death of Edith Cavell, said that the brave nurse who died a martyr's death at the hands of the German murderers, would rank in history with Florence Nightingale. She would always be the pride of the British Empire. Among the views was one of Rheims Cathedral, showing the magnificence of the structure. In reference to a scene of Belgians "sniping" at Germans, Mr Fulton told of the untimely death of a young man, of his former congregation at Chatham, by this means. Some weeks ago he was shot through the forehead by a German sniper, two comrades who were with him at the time luckily escaping. Photographs were shown of the leading men of the Allies, including King George, King Albert, Kitchener, Generals French and Joffre and Winston Churchill. The lecture was intensely interesting throughout; there was not a dull moment from beginning to end and Mr Fulton, from his inexhaustible stock of rich anecdotes, punctuated his discourse with a number of humorous stories which made the evening all the more entertaining.
