KINKORA SCHOOL

On Friday, June the eighteenth, Kinkora Hall was the scene of an interesting event when the closing exercises of Kinkora High School were held. The fact that the hall was filled to capacity by an enthusiastic and appreciative audience is ample evidence of the interest in education among the people of this district and others for whom the opportunities offered by Kinkora School are available. The following program was presented: Chorus—The Land of the Maple. Action Song—Busy Little Housekeepers. Medley of Irish Songs. Acrostic—For God and Country. Piano Duet—Echoes from Ireland. Playette—The House of Life. Song—O No, John. Medley of Scotch Songs. Pageant—Liberty. Action Song—Three Little Kittens. Kerry Dance. Although the whole program was of high quality and gave evidence of the thorough training received by the children, the Pageant "Liberty" deserves special mention. It was represented all the members of the Grade Nations now engaged in the struggle for Liberty. Each child bore the flag of the country represented, and the colorful array made a picturesque sight. Miss Gordena Murphy, Emerald read the Class Valedictory. Reverend M. J. Smith, J. C. D., then presented the Prizes and Certificates. Following is the Prize List: Prize for Highest Aggregate in Grade XI donated by the Kinkora Sub-Division of the C. W. L. merited by Doris McIsaac. Prize for Proficiency in Grade VII donated by Rev. G. V. McCabe, merited by Marjory Roberts. Prize for History in Grade VIII merited by Katherine Morris. Prize for Geography in Grade VIII merited by Louis Monaghan. Nineteen members of the Grade Eleven Class received Certificates for the successful completion of the Course prescribed for Grade Eleven by the Common Examining Board of the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland. Their names follow:—Frances Brennan, Kinkora; Pauline Brennan, Kinkora; Ethel Callaghan, North Wilshire; Marie Corcoran, Plussville; Adelaide Glover, Spring Valley; Betty Green, Albany; Evangeline Greenan, Kinkora; Doris Jay, St. Peter's; Doris McIsaac, Glenwood; Teresa McIver, Kinkora; Mary Moynagh, Emerald; Gordena Murphy, Emerald; William Murphy, Emerald; Catherine O'Hanley, St. Peter's; Leah O'Hanley, St. Peter's; Mary Reid, Stanley Bridge; Mary Richard, Charlottetown; Marie Ryan, Cardigan; Russell Smith, Kinkora. Eleven pupils received Grade VIII Public School Certificates:—Frances Farmer, Mary Gallant, Genevieve Greenan, George Johnston, Katherine Morris, Ronald McIver, Marie O'Brien, Teresa O'Brien, Marjory Roberts, Carl Smith, Desmond Sullivan. Very Reverend A. A. MacAulay, P. C. St. Peter's delivered a fine address to the graduates, congratulating them on their success and urging them to keep before them all their lives the high ideals instilled into them in High School. The speaker stressed particularly the necessity of the formation of good habits and the persevering practise of them. Mr. W. Alan Stewart, Charlottetown honored the occasion by his presence as representative of the P. E. I. Government and spoke briefly in appreciation of the program presented, expressing his wishes for the continued success of the School. Mr. C. B. Jelly, Supervisor of Schools, spoke as representative of the Department of Education, congratulating the pastor, sisters, pupils and parents on the splendid achievements of their School. Rev. W. V. MacDonald, Seven Mile Bay also spoke a few words of congratulations on behalf of the clergy present including Rev. G. V. McCabe, Kinkora; Rev. E. O'Hanley, St. Dunstan's; Rev. J. D. McNeill, N. Rustico; Rev. Eugene Mur-
