THE QUEST.

Oh! that I knew where I might find Him, And while our yearning souls thus cry our erring feet Are seeking Him amid the haunts of rank and power, Leaving the byways, where He might be found,
Turning our steps at each illusive sound,
And while we seek, He lingers where we seek Him not,
Within the heart of each day's common hour.

Oh! that I knew where I might find Him,
In things profound we plunge, amid Keen mysteries of thought we seek His foot to trace, Ofttimes in darkness groping, all our

APPRECIATION

On the evening of the 14th inst. a gaily number of the late parishioners of the Rev. Mr. Gray called on him at the Manse, Murray Harbor North, to convey to him their best wishes for his future welfare.

The evening was pleasantly passed in singing with Miss Janey B. Mc-Lure presiding at the piano, and appropriate selections from the graphophone which Mr. Harry Reid kindly lent for the occasion. At the conclusion of rendering one of Mr. Tutts famous speeches, a lady entered and with her most benign smile said "our presence was required in another room. The invitation was irresistible and we were soon seated at a table, the viands and delicacies on which would please the most fastidious epicurean. Comment was freely expressed on the good things provided by the ladies on very short notice, and brought to the mind of the writer the lines of the Poet.

"Oh women in thine hour of ease, Uncertain, coy and hard to please,
But when affliction wrings the brow A ministering angel thou"

After the replenishing of the inner man the company wended their way back to the parlor. In a short time the gracious smile again appeared, followed this time by the Rev. Mr.
Gray after a few appropriate remarks by several present a token of appreciation in the form of a purse was presented to Mr. Gray and the reading of the following address.

To The Rev. Mr. Gray:—As the relations existing between us as Pastor and people are severed, and before you take your final leave of us, we in the Murray Harbor North section of the congregation have assembled in the Manse this evening to convey to you our appreciation of your services as pastor for nearly eight years.
Pardon us, if we are a little personal when we remark that in you are eminently combined the Christian qualities, that should characterize any Ambassador of the Cross, and enabled you to creditably adorn the high and noble profession to which you have been called. The high ideals and lofty standard of Christian Virtue, which by your walk and conversation you set before us have impressed us all, and commands and carries with it the highest respect of old and young in the congregation and in the dim and distant future when you are gone and abide elsewhere we will have to say, "Time but the impression deeper makes as streams their channels deeper wear." of a congregation as a whole we can attest to the deep interest you took both Spiritually and morally in our welfare and we were to particularize, we would say, that the advancement of the young seemed to be ever uppermost in your mind, the success of which bears fruit in our Sunday School un-

ANY WESTERN WHEAT FLOUR.

Because "Beaver" Flour is the original and genuine blended flour. It contains nutritious, full flavored Ontario fall wheat, blended with a little Manitoba spring wheat to give added strength.

"Beaver" Flour is not like the woman who can make only one kind of cake or one kind of fancy pastry. "Beaver" Flour is like the attractive, capable, clever housewife who can make Bread, Rolls and Biscuits—Cakes, Pies and Pastry—and makes them all equally well. That's the flour you want! Order it at your dealer's.
