Scout News and Notices

From Montreal comes word that Niall Burnett, who has had experience in the three sections of Scoutmaster, was Club Master at St. James (3rd) (Charlottetown) Scoutmaster of a troop of 40 new Boy Scouts, numbering about 140. This troop is fully uniformed, the uniforms being paid for by the Scouts themselves. S. R. Bowler, late Scoutmaster of 1st Charlottetown (Basille) is the Assistant Scoutmaster. So two Prince Edward Island Scouters are doing what their hands find to do. We congratulate them, and wish them the best of success.

The ability to make a good knot may enable you to save your own or some other person's life. So learn to make knots in a practical manner. Knowing what kind of a knot to make is just as important as knowing how to make it. An expert knoter does his work just as well in the dark as at any other time.

Now that spring is "just around the corner" it may be well to say a word about hiking. The game of doors game, particular attention should be given to games and other activities which will keep us out of doors. While a troop room is necessary, it should be looked upon as a last resource. Plan your hike and make preparation beforehand. Make short hikes at first. A Scout who has walked off his feet on his first hike will not want to go on another. Here are a few Scout activities you may practice while on hikes: Scout pace, judging distance, map-making, road sketching, laying and lighting of fires, cooking, tracking, etc.

We must remember that, in Prince Edward Island, when we move off the roads, we are on private property. Boy Scouts respect the property of others. Obtain permission of the owner before cutting wood or lighting fires on a chance to do a burn before leaving. Put your fire out. Clean up. Put your fire out, and then put your fire out.

Scouts who are interested in birds, and all Scouts should be, will be on the lookout for their little friends. It won't be long now until we hear the robin telling us to "cheer up, cheer up." A good collection for a troop to make is a complete list of birds seen by each one taken by a member of the troop. How many bird songs can you recognize? How many can you imitate?

Last Saturday evening, the District Commissioner visited 13th Charlottetown Troop (Church of Most Holy Redeemer). This is a new troop, and is making good progress. Scoutmaster Chas. Conolly and Asst. Scoutmasters Harry Pinzau and W. Toombs are to be congratulated. In answer to a question of the D.C., every Scout present signified his intention to be a Scoutmaster as soon as he is old enough.

He who has not sat around the Council fire, he who has not smelt wood smoke at twilight, who has not, after a hard and happy day, gathered with his chums, to hear music, song and story, to watch the stars appear one by one, while the evening breeze makes music among the birches and poplars, has missed the very essence of Scouting. No programme, devised and carried out in the Troop Room, can ever take its place.

The Patrol System is the ONLY way in which a troop of Boy Scouts can properly be conducted. No matter how your troop, it can be divided into patrols, of two or more. Get your Patrols in plan to devote a few minutes during a Patrol Corner period to this purpose. Then at the end of the evening, have your Court of Honor, at which the next evening's programme is discussed. Let Your Patrol Leaders do their own work. Don't try to do it all yourself.

A Scout is clean in thought, word and deed. Sometimes a fellow may say: "I can't help it if my thoughts come into my mind." You can help it if you try. God has given us so many beautiful things to think about. His own love for us, the love of our relatives and friends, the beauties of nature, the birds, the heavens at night, the fields, the woods, the running waters, that there should be no time for unclean thoughts. Clean thoughts will not breed unclean words and deeds.

We have each promised to "do a good deed for someone every day." While looking for something big to do, don't neglect the little things. Don't spend all your time dreaming of saving beautiful maidens from the tenth story of a blazing building, or plunging, fully dressed, into a storm-tossed ocean to rescue a drowning person. Clear the snow from the door for the poor old widow who lives next door to you; your little brother is having a hard time with his arithmetic lesson; help him. Begin at home.

A district training course for Cub Scouts is being planned. It is hoped that all Cub Masters and Assistant Cub Masters, who have not yet taken this course, will be on hand. Those who are not yet on hand, should be invited to take advantage of this opportunity. Will as many committed men as possible also attend. Dates and place of meeting will be announced later.

A Patrol Leaders Conference for the District of Queens Co. is being arranged for the 19th and 20th of April. Will Scout Masters please note.

It is a great pleasure to announce the formation of a troop at Hunter River, under the leadership of Scoutmaster Kell McLeod, a former Scoutmaster of Charlottetown (St. James). We extend to them a hearty welcome into the Great Brotherhood of Boy Scouts.

6th Charlottetown (Church of Most Holy Redeemer) has four new chums almost ready for investiture. Gerald Reedy, Maurice Blake, John Molyneux and Roland Hennesey.

We learn with regret of the departure in the near future of the Rev. Father Fleming of the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer. Father Fleming has been a great friend of Scouting since coming to Charlottetown. A valued member of the Provincial Council, his place will be hard to fill. —Grey Wolf.

YOUTH MOVEMENT DRAMATIZED—A unique attraction in the way of motion pictures is the film, "Youth Marches On," now being shown in the Prince Edward Theatre. It had its origin in Regina, where some 200 Canadian youths from all parts of Canada met in a spirit of Christian fellowship, and were inspired to portray on the screen their discovery of a new spirit and purpose in life. They started with only $175 but with the "unshakable conviction" that the film should be made. The scenario was developed around two theme songs composed by one of the members. The actors, with the scheme almost completed, subsequently twenty-five of the group went to England to join hundreds of other young fellows, and the film was completed there. It caught the imagination of a national distributor, and within a few months over 3,000,000 people in Britain had seen it. It has been translated into four languages. It had a five weeks' run on Broadway, and is now being shown through Canada with equally gratifying success. This last opportunity will be the last opportunity of seeing the picture in Charlottetown. It is most cordially to all interested in the youth movement.

In Memoriam
HAROLD E. YOULAND

However great may be the tragedy, or however deep the grief of those who are left behind, it is not a calamity to him, for such as he do not require the mellowing of age and his spirit has gone to be with that of his mother who loved him and whose love he had lost by her untimely death while he was yet but a child.

Such was some of the beautiful words of the pastor, spoken to a house thronged with friends who had come to pay their last tribute of devotion to the late Harold E. Youland, beloved nineteen year old son of William Youland of Cornwall, whose sudden passing on March 14th left the whole community under a cloud of sorrow.

Harold was a quiet and industrious young man and he will be distinctly missed in the community where his kind and generous nature and ever willing and efficient hands were never slow to assist in time of need.

He will be especially missed at the home, as he was the oldest of a family of five and had attained an age when he could, and indeed felt where he to the younger ones in some small measure at least, for the grievous loss they had sustained through the death of their mother who, as already stated, had predeceased him.

The interment took place at West Covehead and the funeral service was conducted by the Rev. T. A. Wilson of that place, who spoke from Ecclesiastes 12:1, "Rejoice not in the days of thy youth; while the evil days come not; nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say I have no pleasure in them."

The hymns sung were, "Take Comfort Christians," "Shall We Gather at the River," and "Nearer My God to Thee."

Funeral services were: Messrs. James Curran, Norman Cranwell, Stanley Gill, Joseph Reedy, Harry McLeod and Terrence Lamphier.

The remaining members of the family are, besides the sorrowing father, a sister Ethel, and a brother William Jr. at home; and a sister Charlotte and a brother Harold, residing with their aunt in Medford, Mass.; to all of whom very deepest sympathy is extended.

Racing On New Glasgow Ice

One of the most exciting races of the current season was held on New Glasgow ice on Saturday last. Although not as many horses were entered as on former race days, the races were very closely contested throughout.

Three classes were entered and results were as follows:

Class A—1. Mr. Tilley; 2. Happy Cope.

In Class A, Mr. Tilley won the first heat; the next two were tied and a fourth heat, for the purpose of breaking the tie also resulted in a dead heat.

Class B—1. Ladysmith; 2. Millie Cope; 3. Lady Bell.

In Class B, Ladysmith came in first in the three heats. Millie Cope a second, a third and a second, and Lady Belle third, second and third.

Class C—1. Mayfield Boy; 2. Clinton Peter.

In Class C, Mayfield Boy took the race in straight heats.

The summary:

Class A—Mr. Tilley (Black An. (drawn) — 1 dn dh dh Happy Cope (Geggie MacNeill) — 2 dn dh dh Class B.
