"Fruit-a-lives" Completely Restored New Brunswick Merchant To Health.

MR. ALVA PHILLIPS

BRISTOL, N. B., July 25th, 1911. "I am unable to say enough in favor of 'Fruit-a-lives' as it saved my life and restored me to health, when I had given up all hope and when the doctors had failed to do anything more for me. I had a stroke of Paralysis in March, 1910, and this left me unable to walk or help myself, and the Constipation of the bowels was terrible. Nothing did me any good and I was wretched in every way. Finally, I took 'Fruit-a-lives' for the Constipation, and it not only cured me of that trouble but gradually this fruit medicine toned up the nerves and actually cured the paralysis. Under the use of 'Fruit-a-lives', I grew stronger and stronger until all the palsy and weakness left me. I am now well again and attend my store every day and all day."

Big Ben

The Biggest Thing in the Clock Business

Big Ben is the biggest thing today in the alarm clock business. He is only three years old, but he's already getting more work from the Dominion than any clock alive. In three years time, 6,000 Canadian dealers have adopted him. Nearly half of the families in Canada leave it to him to call them up in the morning; nearly half the families in Canada use him all day long to tell the right time by. He is really two good clocks in one—a crackerjack of a time-keeper and a crackerjack of an alarm.

Big Ben stands seven inches tall. He is triple nickel-plated and wears an inner vest of steel that insures him for life. His big, bold figures and hands are easy to read in the dim morning light. His large, comfortable keys almost vibrate themselves. He rings five minutes steadily or ten intermittently. His price $3.00 is easy to pay because his advantages are easy to see. He is sold in Prince Edward Island by the following jewelers:

C. W. Patterson Charlottetown	G. H. Taylor Charlottetown

THE NOVA SCOTIA FIRES.—How appallingly extensive are the forest fires at present raging in Nova Scotia was indicated to residents of Charlottetown on Saturday afternoon by other means than telegraphic messages. Huge clouds of smoke drifted over the harbor until the impression almost was given of a thick fog having come on. But the plainly distinguishable smell pungent of burning wood left no doubt as to the meaning of the haze.

HAND HURT.—A painful accident occurred on the Railway wharf Friday about 3.30 by which Mr. Greg Hughes, of this city will carry around a bandaged hand for some time. Mr. Hughes was tipping an exceptionally heavy load of stone and the tip stick he was using broke—the broken immediately driven to Dr. Ledwell's office where his hand was dressed, and although a little painful is doing as well as can be expected.

Dr. McLellan appropriate to the occasion.

SEEKING HUSBY.—A P. E. Island woman got off the train up the line in search of her "hubby." She was an intelligent woman, says a Truro exchange. "Hubby" had left his home on the Island last Autumn to come to Nova Scotia to work in the lumber woods at the place indicated. He wrote, home for a time, and then suddenly stopped. After a while she got busy and learned there was a fly in the ointment, another woman in the family circle. However, he was not at the station, she got off at, neither was her rival, but she got some information that served to confirm all she had expected. Then she went to another place in search of the pair. He wasn't there, but the woman was, and when they met there was something doing by way of wordy warfare. The deserted wife tongue-lashed her rival to a finish, then took a passing train, enroute to New Glasgow where the wayward husband was working. She said she didn't want him back all she wanted was sufficient evidence to secure a separation and if all stories are true she has it.

Sir James and Mrs. Ross are on board and a party of some five or six, including Mr. E. M. McDonald, M. P. of Pictou.

A NEW PASTOR.—The Rev. Mr. Weeks who has taken the charge of the Pownal circuit, preached a practical and helpful sermon in the Pownal Church on Sunday night from, "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the father is this, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world." Mr. Weeks and his amiable partner have made a very favourable impression on the circuit.

WEDDING BELLS.—The marriage of Miss Flo McKenzie, daughter of the late Mr. Donald McKenzie of Charlottetown to Mr. William McLaren, son of Capt. William McLaren, of Georgetown, took place on Thursday, 21st, at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Henry Lawson Victoria, B. C. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Leslie Clay, The bride was one of the most popular and efficient teachers of the city having been on the staff of West Kent School and the Model School. Her wide circle of friends will wish her much happiness.

THE TRINIDAD.—Yesterday morning the big tourist steamer Trinidad of the Quebec Steamship Line arrived here from Quebec in the course of the last of the special excursion trips she has been making this season, which have proved so popular and successful. This has been the Trinidad's most popular season in this traffic, the total number of passengers that made the trip on her being a record.

NEW GLASGOW.—The popular subject "How to save time, labor and energy in housework" was discussed at the New Glasgow Women's Institute, on Friday afternoon. The meeting was held in the Hall, and the president occupied the chair. A talk on the above topic by the supervisor was listened to with much attention and interest, after which several of the members and visitors gave suggestions along the same line. Those present gathered many useful hints from the discussion besides enjoying a social afternoon.

CORNWALL.—The monthly mission study class of the W. M. S. of the Cornwall Methodist Church was held at the home of the President, Mrs. Pope Crosby, on Tuesday evening, August 19th. A goodly number gathered and a very interesting and profitable time was spent. First, under the leadership of Mrs. Roper, "China, its past history, its present conditions and future needs," absorbed an hour. Then followed a period of social intercourse when refreshments were served and very much appreciated. The genial husband of the President, Mr. Pope Crosby, did his part to make all feel at home and comfortable. The drive home through the moonlight lanes was also delightful.

Fur-breeders not only in this province, but in the entire New Brunswick and Ontario, among other parts of the Dominion, are evidently becoming alive to the possibilities of Karakule sheep breeding; the Karakule being it may be stated the class of animal from which the best Persian Lamb furs are produced. Following upon the recent importations into this island of a herd of Karakule sheep by Mr. J. R. Dennis and Dr. C. C. Young for the purpose of breeding Persian Lamb fur producing sheep here, Dr. Young, who is the original importer of Karakule sheep into the American continent, has been almost literally flooded with orders from persons in the places mentioned above for Karakule bred sheep. He told a Guardian representative yesterday that his estimate placed the total amount of these orders at about $100,000. Unfortunately he said, he had not the material at present to fulfil them and he had therefore advised the intending purchasers to "stick to their money" till such stock as they desired was available, and not to be in haste to purchase as there is an undesirable class of "non-fur-producing sheep that is being sold as the genuine Karakule which may be unloaded upon them.

Mr. Walter Jones, the well known local fur-farming expert and his law-ther-in-law, Mr. F. Boyver, have joined with Dr. Young and Mr. Dennis in their Karakule sheep venture in this island. With Mr. Jones, Dr. Young will leave this morning for Ottawa in order to interview the Customs authorities on the question of duty on Karakule sheep. Dr. Young argues that these sheep should be allowed to enter Canada free of duty, because they are registered animals—being registered in Russia though not in Canada. From Ottawa Dr. Young and Mr. Jones will proceed to the Toronto exhibition for the purpose of selecting sheep of the Lincoln, Cotswold and Leicester varieties, also some Highland black-face

Nervous Children

Are Often in the Early Stages of St. Vitus Dance

They Need a Tonic to Strengthen the Weak Nerves and Restore them to Natural Health.

Many a child has been called awkward, has been punished in school for not keeping still, or for dropping things, when a child is not really at fault, as the trouble is really St. Vitus dance in its earlier stages. So common is this nervous disease in childhood that in some schools one-fifth of all the pupils have been found suffering from it in one form or another. Before the presence of the disease is betrayed, there is usually a disturbance of the general health. The child shows listlessness and inattention. Then it becomes restless, and twitching of the muscles and jerking of the limbs and body follows. A remedy that cures St. Vitus dance and cures it so thoroughly that no trace of the disease remains is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which makes the new blood necessary to feed the starving nerves and gives them the nourishment they demand. Mrs. Hiram Barnhart, Scott's Junction, Ont., says: "About two years ago my oldest daughter, Mabel, then ten years of age, was stricken with St. Vitus dance. She could not keep still for half a minute, no matter how hard she tried. Her limbs would jerk and twitch and every little thing would start her crying. I gave her several bottles of medicine—said to be good for the nerves, but instead of helping her she was steadily growing worse. Her voice would change so that we could hardly understand her, and her face became twitched until she did not look like the same child. I had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills myself when run down, and finally decided to give her these. When she had taken two boxes I could not notice an improvement, and by the time she had used five boxes she was fully cured. However, I was determined to make the cure permanent if possible, and I gave her two boxes more, and I can truthfully say that she has never had a symptom of trouble since, and is now as bright and active as any child of her age. I heartily recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all mothers as the result of what they have done for my child and myself."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

sheep, for the purpose of breeding with the Karakule sheep that were imported by Dr. Young and Mr. Dennis into this province. From Toronto they will cross to the United States, where they will visit the U. S. Experimental Station seven miles beyond Washington, D. C., in order that Dr. Young might inspect some young half-breed Karakule lambs that are falling there now and select for the U. S. Government which of these lambs should be killed to produce the best type of fur. Dr. Young will also call the attention of the American Government to the fact that there was an individual who was publishing the erroneous and grossly misleading statement that Persian lamb fur was produced from Persian sheep and not from Karakule sheep while, says Dr. Young, the Persian sheep is not a fur-bearing animal at all. Dr. Young and Mr. Jones will also visit the sheep farms of El Paso, Texas.

The Karakule sheep which were recently imported by Dr. Young and Mr. Dennis are doing excellently at the latter's farm where they are at present. But they are to be removed to the ranch of Mr. Boyver, where they will be kept during the breeding season.

Yesterday there was another farmers' picnic to the Experimental Station, the sixteenth of the season. The farmers comprising this party were the members of the Grand River and Wellington Institute, as well as several farmers from Nostham. Altogether their number was about 200 and they were accompanied by Mr. H. D. Doble, M. L. A., the Rev. Father John McDonald. Travelling to Charlottetown by special train, they reached the Station at a quarter to eleven o'clock in the forenoon and were made welcome by Mr. and Mrs. Clark.

After luncheon in the picnic grove, the round of the station was made, Mr. Clark conducting the party and making them thoroughly acquainted with the experiments in agricultural and poultry farming, showing the results that had been achieved in the various directions and the means that had been adopted to produce those results.

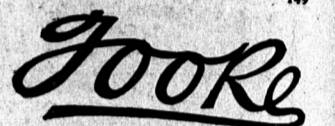

At the conclusion of the inspection of the farm, the visitors gathered on the lawn and there a vote of thanks to Mr. Clark was proposed by Mr. Doble and supported by Mr. Frank Gillis, the president of the Grand Ri-

Afterwards the party were left to their own devices and these almost principally consisted of motor car rides through the city; several automobiles going out to the Station and taking the visitors in parties for pleasant drives, which were greatly appreciated and enjoyed. The party on their special train left the city at five o'clock in the afternoon.
