NEW INDICTMENT AGAINST MR. HYDE

NEW YORK, May 13—The Grand Jury, which has been investigating the affairs of the Carnegie Trust Company and the City Chamberlain's office, yesterday handed up a new indictment against Charles H. Hyde, who resigned as Chamberlain last week. It is in fact a superseding indictment, alleging more details than were contained in the original one.

There was a good deal of excitement around the Criminal Court Building yesterday when a truck backed up and a large safe was taken up in an elevator and before the Grand Jury. It was the private safe of William J. Cummins, the directing spirit of the Carnegie Trust Company. The safe was kept in his private room in the banking office.

The District Attorney and his staff made no attempt to conceal their pleasure at getting the private papers of Mr. Cummins as they thought these would bring to light a great deal of new evidence. The safe was opened, and then the Grand Jury took a recess until next Wednesday. During the interim the District Attorney will examine the papers.

It now appears that when Mr. Cummins was examined in bankruptcy proceedings last week he offered to give to Payson Merrill, trustee in bankruptcy, all his property in the safe, for the benefit of his creditors. Mrs. Cummins did go to the safe and turn over his property.

When the Grand Jury handed up the superseding indictments against Mr. Hyde, Justice Vernon M. Davis asked the jury if it had finished its labors. The foreman replied that it was taking up a new line of inquiry, but was practically through.

THE BULLET COMES QUICK FROM ITALIAN

SYDNEY, May 14—What may result in a fatal shooting occurred tonight at Whitney pier, as a result of which two men are in Brooklands hospital in a critical condition from bullet wounds, and one man under arrest on the charge of shooting with intent to kill.

The Martinello brothers conduct a grocery store and bakery on Tupper street. They had in their employ as head baker an Italian, Naracuto Cutone. This evening the latter was due at work in the bakery at eight o'clock, but did not arrive until near nine o'clock. On his arrival he was upbraided by the proprietors for his tardiness in getting to work and a heated argument ensued, which developed into a serious row, during which personalities were used, when suddenly Cutone whipped out a revolver and shot Frank Martinello in the stomach, and turning the gun on the brother Alex. Martinello, fired, his second shot taking effect in the latter's shoulder.

There were only the three present in the bakery at the time, but the shots soon brought people running to the scene, and a physician was summoned. After temporarily dressing the wounded men they were taken to Brooklands hospital, where they were operated upon by Drs. Lynch and Bruce. Frank Martinello is in a very critical condition and may not live, the other is not seriously injured.

Cutone, who did the shooting, escaped from the building during the excitement, but was arrested about ten o'clock tonight by Deputy Chief McCornick, and placed in the police station to await a preliminary trial tomorrow.

Frank Martinello is about 24 and unmarried. Alex. Martinello, his brother, is about 28 and has a wife and three children. All are Italians.

OLD STAGE DRIVER MEETS VIOLENT DEATH

MILFORD, Oregon, May 12—"Jack" Loudon, one of the last of the old time stage drivers, was fatally injured yesterday at Haze Hill, 15 miles from Grant's Pass, while driving a four-horse team, which had become frightened. Knowing that he was approaching a high cliff and sharp curve, Loudon drew his revolver and shot one of the leaders dead. This failed to stop the team, however, which dragged the dead horse several yards and over the embankment. Loudon was thrown, down the precipice and his skull fractured. Two passengers jumped from the stage and escaped with slight injuries.

SAYS LIFE RODE TO EARTH AS STAR DUST

Prof. Arrhenius, director of the physico-chemical department of the Nobel Institute, near Stockholm, Sweden, and President of the Nobel Foundation in Chicago recently said: "Life originated on the earth through the medium of other planets, particular what we call the yellow stars. Were it not for the stars there would be no life here. The germs of the lowliest form of being travelled to this planet through the interstellar space as star dust and on the light rays. Thus it is that man is remotely the product of the stars, for as the lowlier life was developed throughout the ages, humanity resulted.

"The yellow stars are the best life producers. Ancturus, the largest yellow star, is the best. It is 50,000 times as large as the sun. It takes its light 160 years to reach the earth.

"The star dust is forced into space by the light rays emanating from the planet and, striking rays earth bound, may be literally forced here."
