Pesky Erases Run-Scored Mark As Sox Keep Streak Intact

Gilbert Gets Big Chance In Preakness

By The Canadian Press
The steam-barging Boston Red Sox did it again yesterday, trouncing Chicago White Sox 4-0 in Beantown to set a new club record of 18 consecutive victories, while little Johnny Pesky set a new American League record by scoring six runs.

Pesky erased a mark held by many American League players and equaled the National League record set by Mel Ott in 1924.

The win kept Sox three games ahead of New York Yankees, who were unwell hosts to St. Louis Browns in the capital. Red Sox became the first major league hurler this season to win five games without a defeat.

There were other big doings around the circuit too.

Chicago's Bob Chance pitched them to a 5-1 win. Chandler thus became the first major league hurler this season to win five games without a defeat.

Practices For Legion Ball Team Announced

Forced to postpone their opening practice on Wednesday night due to the wet weather, officials of the Legion's ball entry in the City League have called practice sessions for 8:30 Friday night and Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

An open invitation is extended to all ball players wishing to try for a position on the team. With the league scheduled to get underway in the not too distant future, Coach Vic MacVittie requests a good turnout to enable him to make some progress in determining the opening day lineup.

Outstanding Canadian Horse Owner Passes

By The Canadian Press
TORONTO, May 8—One of Canada's great sport figures, Harry C. Hatch, 69-year-old millionaire owner of some of the finest blood stock ever, has passed away in hospital here today.

With him passed away a golden era in Canadian horse racing which saw him breed and develop horses which captured the Dominion's great stake race—the King's Plate at Toronto—died in hospital here today.

His death is a loss to the racing world. He was a pioneer in the breeding of Thoroughbred horses in Canada. He was the first Canadian to breed a horse which won the Kentucky Derby.

Dodgers Win Again Turning Back Reds In Tenth Inning

By The Canadian Press
Brooklyn Dodgers had to extend themselves yesterday, but they came out with another win as pitcher-thrower Don Padgett blasted a homer off relief pitcher Clayton Lambert to give the Dodgers a 4-1 triumph in the ninth to end the game on an extra inning.

Meanwhile, Chicago Cubs moved into third place in the National League standings as Hank Wyse pitched a four-inning shutout in the ninth to give the Cubs a 3-0 triumph over the Pirates.

Montrealers Climb To Top Rung With Double Victory

By The Canadian Press
Montreal Royals clinched a smashing uphill drive by sailing into first place in the International League standings yesterday as they walloped Newark Bears in both ends of a double bill, 6-2 and 5-0.

Good pitching, good hitting and snappy fielding by Royals all added up to grief for the Bears, who were knocked clean out of the first division into fifth place.

In other games played, Toronto Maple Leafs laced Jersey City Little Giants 7-3 at Toronto, and the collar-dwelling Rochester Red Wings jumped on Syracuse Chiefs for 16 hits and a trouncing 11-3 with two runs.

Steve Nagy and Glen Moulder turned in a pair of snappy twirling jobs at Montreal, and their mates turned in a pair of double plays in the first game and three more in the second. Les Burge was hammering the ball, and smashed his fourth homer of the season in the opener.

At Toronto, the Royals made an auspicious debut in the League lineup by cracking out a homer in the third inning to drive home two runs.

Bodie Jost led a 16-hit attack against pitchers Bob Katz and Ken Polivka with a triple, double and three singles at Rochester. Lanky Red Wine righthander Bud Beyerly coasted to his second win of the year.

WARNER'S "CONFLICT" IS POWERFUL DRAMA

In the prize-winning tradition of "Casablanca" and the more recently successful "To Have and Have Not" comes Warner Bros. powerful new melodrama, "Conflict", which opened last night at the Yeo Theatre. With a consistently superior cast headed by stars Humphrey Bogart, Alexis Smith and Sydney Greenstreet, the new film, destined to rank high among the top screen thrillers of the past few seasons, combines all the elements of those former Warner hits and adds a few new ones of its own. It goes without saying that any one picture employer, the individual eye-dolings of either Humphrey Bogart or Sydney Greenstreet, is bound to attain the maximum in suspense and first-rate, action-packed excitement. When the services of these two arch-miscreants are combined as they are in "Conflict"—then the total effect of good, suspense, combined with the artfully doubled. This is especially true of "Conflict", which bears heavily on actors and director for its most hair-raising effects.

Essentially a realistic study in modern-day psychology, the film recounts the curious case of one Richard Mason (Humphrey Bogart) who murders his wife, Kathryn (Rose Hobart) because of his persistent love for Kathryn's sister, Evelyn (Alexis Smith). Actually, Richard Mason accomplishes the "perfect crime".
