THE WIFE-SHIP WOMAN

Continued

"Yet you are lucky," I warned. "Damoan and his Choctaws have been outside all the morning."

This washed the grin from his wrinkled face.

I was not satisfied with Six Fingers' explanation of his excursion outside the village and had made a compact with him? Narbonne was dead, and there was no possible chances to continue the quest for Acaanibas, I warned Labrador:

"Say nothing to Six Fingers about tonight's plans. There was a look in his eyes that tells me he is trying to hide something from us," I said.

"When I start with mademoiselle tonight I shall give him no chance to spoil the plan. Of course we shall go through the hole in the stockade?"

"Of course; And I will keep Six Fingers with me. He frightens the girl."

At midday I went to mademoiselle's cabin and called her out and informed her of the hole in the palings and warned her to be ready to leave by means of it.

"You are determined not to go with me?" she asked.

"If I planned that way none of us could go. I shall be right behind you. I shall keep Six Fingers with me."

She was relieved to know Six Fingers was not to accompany her.

"I will not fail you, monsieur," she whispered.

There remained nothing now but to wait until evening. Owing to the brief time allowed for preparations the hunters could not roam very far, and some of these were returning continually, usually with strings of small game. I tried to get some rest against the exertions of the night, but each turning hunter was greeted with much shouting, and sleep was impossible.

It was twilight when Damoan returned to the village. He went out of his way to pass within a rod of me, and the look his dark eyes gave me was one of triumph. Yet I could not comprehend any immediate danger. The peace smoke would not blow away without some warning, plus an announcement as to when it could be renewed.

Gas In Stomach Hurts the Heart

Thousands of Cases of Heart Failure Are Caused by Acute Indigestion

Gas pressure from sour, acid, upset stomach is not only nauseating and highly uncomfortable but some day it may prove fatal!

When your meals are followed by bloating, a feeling of fulness or pressure, shortness of breath and pains around the heart, you may be sure that the acid condition of your stomach is producing a GAS that is pushing upwards and crowding your heart. That's the reason for the shortness of breath and sharp, shooting pains.

Whether young or old, the presence of stomach gas is truly serious and should always be given prompt and careful attention.

To quickly drive out gas, cleanse and sweeten the stomach, neutralize the acidity—nothing is better than the daily or "as needed" use of ordinary Bisurated Magnesia. It gives almost instant relief.

All reliable druggists can supply Bisurated Magnesia, in either powder or tablet form. You run no risk of loss for every druggist may sell it with the distinct understanding that unless its use gives complete satisfaction the small cost will be promptly returned.

With the going down of the sun the Huma women began running about the village, cackling excitedly. Fires were started in the opening before the chief's cabin. Kettles were hung over the fires and the various kinds of game were dumped in, the contributions ranging from squirrels and water-fowl to the deer meat. Damoan kept to the other side of the village and had his Choctaws posted about the exit. He believed he had us bottled up until the protection of the calumet had ended.

When it grew so dark there was no danger of being closely observed I walked to the girl's cabin, and was pleased to find the Indian women had succumbed to the temptation of the twinkling fires and had left mademoiselle unattended. I instructed her:

"After I have gone back I want you to steal behind the cabin and see if the hole is there as Six Fingers described."

"It is there. I saw him when he came through it."

"Then be ready for Labrador to call for you. When he comes you must act swiftly. Do as he says."

"The other?"

"I've told you he stays with me. He is acting queer. He may have bargained to sell us out."

To my astonishment she instantly denied this possibility, declaring:

"He would never sell me. "No, no, monsieur. He is evil, but he wants me to escape from this village and from the man you call the Fox."

She came to me and took one hand in both of hers and held it to her heart, and without a word retreated inside the cabin. I began to realize how horrible the whole situation must be fore her. She was denied the tonic of action and must dully wait, always fearing the worst. I was back at my cabin in time to meet Little Turkey and six warriors, who, as an escort of honor, came to lead Labrador, Six Fingers and me to the feast. As we walked between them and entered the firelight I beheld the chief's grandson and a delegation of warriors performing the same courtesy for Damoan the Fox. Behind Damoan came all of his Choctaws except four left to guard the exit.

The chief gave the sign for the feasting to begin. Minute portions were tossed over the shoulders for the ghosts, and the peace calumet was hung up on a pole by the side of the chief and was made the recipient of scraps of meat and rations of beans. Strong Bow looked up and down the double line of men, boiling the meat like dogs, and asked me why the white woman was not standing among the Indian women to watch the feast. I told him she was a queen in her own country and not used to standing while men ate, and that she preferred remaining in her cabin until the dancing began, when she would appear. Damoan grinned widely and murmured:

"She will stand while I eat, my friend."

I pretended not to hear, and Damoan stared at me curiously, trying to fathom my mind. Like the fox he feared a trap, but so long as I and my male companions were within immediate reach he could not reason out where we had a single chance. Six Fingers never raised his eyes from his food, and yet he was not hungry. Labrador devoured huge portions of under-done meat with the philosophy of one who makes the most of the hour which is his. In a short space of time the kettles were emptied except what was reserved for the women, and the warriors retired to paint for their dances. I called to Labrador in French and requested him to wait on mademoiselle and ask her to come and see the dancing.

Damoan demanded my attention by asking:

"So we renew the peace smoke in two sleeps, eh?"

There was so much exultation in his tone so much diablerie in his grinning face that I knew he was up to some new trick, something I had not dreamed of. I guessed frantically and could not imagine what it was; yet I knew he had his plans all laid before the feast began, and that he was not dependent upon the interval between the end of the first smoke and the beginning of the second.

"Much may happen in two days," I carelessly replied.

"As true as heaven," he mocked. "And much may happen in one day—before another sun."

"What are you planning to try tonight?" I bluntly asked.

He laughed merrily, and protested: "I try? Pardieu! Think I would break the law of the Humas? But if would the peace smoke hover over would the peace smoke hover over your English head for two days if it was known that you had broken the law?"

MINARD'S "KING OF PAIN" LINIMENT

JAMES BRUCE

There passed to his eternal reward in San Francisco, Cal., on the 4th. day of Sept. 1930, James Bruce in the 82nd. year of his life.

He leaves to mourn their loss, besides his wife, Mrs. Sarah Bruce, of San Francisco, two sons, M. L. Bruce of Vancouver B. C. Canada and A. J. Bruce of San Francisco, Cal. Three brothers, D. A. Bruce of Charlottetown, and John Bruce of Souris, Prince Edward Island; and Alec Bruce of Boston Mass. And one Sister, Mrs. Mary Taylor of Boston Mass.

James Bruce was a native of Prince Edward Island, where he spent the first years of his life in the persuit of Agriculture, and Carpentry.

In 1906 he moved west, locating in Regina, Sask., where he worked at his trade.

In 1922, he moved to San Francisco Cal. where he passed the remainder of his life quietly, and in christian service.

He was for many years a member of the Presbyterian church, both in Canada and America. Serving in both Countries in the capacity of Elder and Trustee.

He was a man of very high christian and moral integrity. Strictly upright in his dealings with others; loyal to the teachings of the holy scriptures, of which he was a faithful student, even to the close of his life.

He was greatly loved and honored by all he came in contact, regardless of race, color, or creed. He was unassuming in manner, and always charatable with those holding views and opinions which differed from those entertained by himself.

He was patient with the faults of others, yet firm in the strict adherance to the teachings and principles of his God whom he loved and served by a life seldom equalled in this world.

He is gone, but his life and influence will ever remain, a green spot in the memory of those who knew and loved him.

The funeral services were held in the parlor's of Suhr and Wieboldt, His pastor The Rev. A. R. Willis, of Ocean Avenue Presbyterian church, conducted the services, assisted by a former pastor, Rev. Hugh Gilchrist D. D. of Westminister church, and Dr. Fred A. Keast, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church where he frequentely worshipped.

The interment was made in beautiful Olivet Memorial Park, Cemetery.

Ends Piles Quick

Pile sufferers can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—bad circulation of the blood in the lower bowel. Cutting and external remedies can't do this—an internal medicine must be used. HEM-ROID, the prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, a specialist, succeeds, because it relieves this blood congestion and strengthens the affected parts. HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere, and has such a wonderful record of success right in this city that Hughes Drug Co., Ltd., says to every Pile sufferer, try HEM-ROID at any risk. It must end all Pile agony or you get your money back.

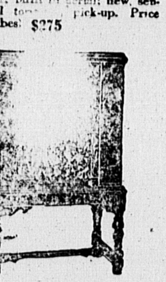
Philco Tone-Control

Brilliant—Bright—Mellow—Deep. Just turn this knob to bring in programs your way—with any one of these four tone values. At last you control station tone. You can listen to music as you like it. Speech can be more distinct, interference noises almost vanish. And for static s harsh in your neighbourhood, you can reduce stridency and enjoy many more programs.

Philco Radio Phonograph

New 9 tube Screen Grid Plus combined with electric Phonograph; Tone Control of both radio Programs and records. Automatic Volume Control; built in aerial; new, sensational tone pick-up. Price (less tubes) $275



Philco Highboy

New 9 tube Screen Grid Plus Chassis in an exquisite cabinet; equipped with Philco Tone-Control and automatic volume control. Price (less tubes) $199

Also—
A Marvellous Battery Set

For the first time in radio history rural dwellers can now have a set equal in every respect to the best electric sets. New tubes just perfected for battery operation make this Philco set a marvel for distance, selectivity and sensitivity. Battery consumption reduced to a point hitherto undreamed of —beautiful furniture models— Tone Control—wonderful values.

RADIO'S NEWEST MIRACLE PHILCO TONE-CONTROL

THIS newest achievement is another stride forward in Philco's steady march to the highest levels of wonderful radio performance. Years ahead of the industry, Philco balanced units created the pure, true, undistorted tone which lifted Philco to outstanding leadership in 1929.

But never before has anything been done to improve the tone sent you from the radio station. How well you know that even on local stations you like the character of tone from one station better than another. How often have you wanted to listen to some fine programs but were discouraged because of the quality of the reception.

At last you can have your favorite dance orchestra the way you like it—classical music; great singers; famous artists can be heard the way YOU have always longed to hear them; speaking voices, momentous messages from our public men, can be brought in with a realism only equalled by their actual presence. And finally, for radio stations which come in harshly or accompanied by crackles and buzzes from interfering electrical apparatus in your particular section, you can subdue the stridency and noise and enjoy many additional fine programs.

These things are made possible by this newest miracle of radio which has been named the Philco Tone-Control. Its four settings of tone quality—"brilliant"—"bright"—"mellow"—"deep"—open up new vistas of radio enjoyment. Philco Tone-Control is built in all the new Philco Screen Grid and Screen Grid Plus Radios.

Each and every Philco has balanced units which produce the true, clear, undistorted, Philco tone—new, exclusive circuits of great selectivity and remarkable sensitivity—wonderful distance range and power—reduction of static and background noises—new, improved electro-dynamic speaker, and a new, Station Recording Dial on which you can permanently log your favorite stations.

The Philco Screen Grid Plus has, in addition, Automatic Volume Control, which counteracts fading, so you can not only get but hold and enjoy out of town programs, near and far. It has built-in aerial and enormous power—a super-radio for those who want extra performance.

These new instruments are housed in beautiful cabinets—furniture of which you can be proud; priced from $135.00 to $275.00, less tubes). Ask your nearest Philco dealer for a free demonstration of Philco Tone-Control today. No obligation, of course, and easy terms when you decide to buy.
