Wason, will preach at Corwall at 11 a. m., Kingston at 3 p. m., and North Winstoe at 7 o'clock. The services on both circuits will be a missionary character.

Telephone subscribers please add to their directories the following new subscribers:—422—Post Office Inspector's office, 399-J—Dr. Pethick, residence, 399-L—B. R. Brown, residence, 131-L. James Hunter, room at Finley House; 432—S. A. McLeod, residence; 20—L—Dr. T. E. Smallwood, residence; R5-4—Franklin Boyva, residence, Bûbury.

The Schooner Maud Carter, owned in Louisburg has made the round voyage to Charlottetown in less than six days, besides discharging a load of coal and shipping a cargo of produce. The quick trip has broken all records and Capt. John Weatherbie, one of her owners, is to be credited for the "fast driving," it being the first voyage on which he acted sailing master. Glace Bay Exc.

The Guardian has received two perfect rose buds with the petals just opening into a bloom. The buds were picked at Rocky Point yesterday afternoon by a Prince of Wales College student, Miss Florence Murray of O'Leary. It is exceedingly late in the season for roses as ordinarily they cease blooming about the last of August. Miss Murray deserves congratulations for her quickness of observation.

The Cheese Board met in Charlottetown last Friday with a small attendance. Cable message read: 4,000 cheese boarded, white 127, colored 13c. Only a few sold at that figure; curb market same. Mr. Spillet secured output of board at 12c. Mr. Morrow said the factories needed to put stoves in their curing rooms as the cheese needed more treatment. Mr. Spillet said that the cheese in cold weather remained very pasty and was unfit for shipment unless properly cured.

On Thursday, Oct. 17th, at Free-town there passed away one of the oldest residents in the person of David Reeves, at the good age of eighty-three years, after an illness of a few weeks caused by the general breaking up of the system. The deceased was an honorable and upright man in all his dealings and acquired a good share of this world's goods. He leaves the following children to cherish the memory of a kind and affectionate father:—Janie and Horatio, Claremont, N. H., Mrs. Joseph Webster, Imperial, Sask., who arrived home shortly before her father's death; Davis of Seattle, Wash; Herbert of Victoria West; Duncan of Norboro; Esther, and Hubert of Free-town and Picton at home. The funeral on Saturday was largely at the house and grave by Rev. Mr. Morris, Kensington. The remains were laid to rest in the Methodist Cemetery, Birch Grove, beside those of his wife who predeceased him some years ago. The pall bearers were—John Walker, Caleb Taylor, William Deighan, Joseph Baker, John Power, Patrick Killy.

Don't forget that for every ill there's a Rexall Remedy and that each Rexall remedy is a guaranteed, non-secret preparation endorsed by over 3,000 dealers. No secrets or mystery to Rexall remedies—the formula is plainly printed on each label. Over 300 of these preparations—one for each common ill. Sold, recommended and guaranteed by the McKinnon Drug Co., The Rexall Store, Corner Gt. George and Kent Sts. 10-17 Metf.

Mrs. Lucas of Sackville, N. B., is visiting in Charlottetown the guest of Rev. Thomas and Mrs. Marsball.

As will be seen by ad in another column a number of splendid patched foxes are offered for sale at $1250.00 each. These animals can be seen at Hudson Gordon's ranch, Alberton.

The Guardian prints all the HOME and other news, and has the SWEET honor and pleasure of being the HOME paper for Prince Edward Island.

Mrs. Frederick E. Smallwood, Brighton, will be At Home on Wednesday and Thursday, afternoons, Oct. 23rd and 24th.

The estate of the late Frederick H. Sellar, Charlottetown, was given for administration October 21. His widow Helen E. Sellar is administratrix according to the inventory the estate is worth $25,022.80 and devolves upon his widow Helen B. Sellar and the following children Ernest Frederick Sellar, Jean Iona Sellar and Russell Edward Sellar.

Mrs. W. H. Scott, Charlottetown, has returned from an extended visit to the Pacific Coast. While in Vancouver she visited with her son William Scott, who is practicing law in that city. Mrs. Scott met many interesting people who apparently are making good. On her return she stopped at Regina where her youngest son Guy, formerly with the Bank of Nova Scotia, but who since its arrival in the west has gone into the real estate business, is now located. From Montreal Mrs. Scott went to Boston where she spent several weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Two Prince Edward Islanders in British Columbia will have particular reason to remember the visit of the Duke of Connaught and party to the Kootenays this year. Captain Forest Orr, belonging to Frenon River, commander of the steamer Magic one of the C.P.R.'s lake and river steamers in which part of the trip was made and Chief Engineer Donald McLeod, of the same ship, formerly of Charlottetown, received handsome gifts from the Duke. Captain Orr received a diamond pin engraved with the initials of His Royal Highness and Engineer McLeod a similarly intialed silver watch box. In each instance His Royal Highness personally made the presentations and thanked the recipients for the manner in which they had contributed to the pleasure of the tour.—Exc.

A complete change of programme was shown at the People's Theatre, Charlottetown, last night. The Lubin production, "The Wooden Bowl" was a story of a child whose love for his old and noble grandfather taught the parents a salutary lesson. "Thos. Chatterton, Poet" an Ambrosio production, told the story of the hard life of a poet. It was a story of ye ancient times and the costumes and settings were carefully looked after. The Edison comedy "Two White Roses" supplied the merriment and was heavily enjoyed by the patrons. Miss Chapman in the illustrated song "When Sunday Rolls Around", sang in her usual charming manner and for her spot specialty she gave "Why Did You Make Me Care," a publication of Joe Morris and a favorite at present in some of the big theatres in the States. It is needless to add that Miss Chapman did ample justice to the production.
